

David Z. Bean

Puyallup Tribe

Vice Chairman

Vice Chairman David Z. Bean was first elected to the Puyallup Tribal Council in 2006. He graduated from the University of Puget Sound in 1992 with a degree in business and public administration. After graduation he spent eight years working for the Puyallup Tribe's economic development arm, which at the time was known as Puyallup International Inc. Vice Chairman Bean works tirelessly with Puyallup Tribal Staff and NW Tribal Leaders in the areas of Public Safety, Health Care, Education, Natural Resources Protection and Gaming. He is an active member in his community spending much of his time with Elders and Youth of the Puyallup tribe. He participates regularly in cultural activities by drumming, singing and dancing with children throughout the community as well as within the NW Canoe Society. He strives to promote healthy, positive, and structured lifestyles for members of his community.
