

Vernon Stearns

Vernon Stearns is the current President of the Intertribal Timber Council and represents the Spokane Tribe of Indians on the executive board. Mr. Stearns is an enrolled member of the Spokane Tribe and has worked for his Tribe for 16 years within the Forestry & Wildland Fire Management programs. Mr. Stearns is the Spokane Tribal Hazardous Fuels Program Manager overseeing an active land management program that has exceeded planned accomplishments in mechanical and prescribed fire activities since 2009. Mr. Stearns represents the ITC on the Wildland Fire Leadership Council, is the ITC Fire Subcommittee Chair, and sits on the Biomass Development Team for the Spokane Tribe. Mr. Stearns earned a Certificate of Completion in Biological Sciences for Federal Land Managers from the University of Nevada Las Vegas in 2008.