

MARGARET EVERSON
PRINCIPAL DEPUTY DIRECTOR
U.S. FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE

Margaret Everson is the Principal Deputy Director of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (Service). Prior to joining the Service in November 2018, Margaret served as Ducks Unlimited's (DU) Chief Policy Officer for four years. Margaret received her bachelor of science in biology, with a concentration in marine biology from St. Francis College and her J.D. from Vermont Law School.

Margaret has served in a variety of roles that touch wildlife, conservation, and natural resources matters. Prior to joining DU, Everson worked as a consultant for State agencies, as well as an assistant attorney general of Kentucky and general counsel for the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. From 2006 to 2008 Margaret was appointed by the Secretary of the Interior to serve as counselor to Dale Hall then director of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Prior to serving as counselor to Dale Hall, Margaret was with the Department of the Interior's Solicitor's office for four years. Margaret is the former chair of the American Wildlife Conservation Partners.