

Anna Miller Bio

Anna Miller is the Tribal Council Secretary for the Grand Traverse Band of Ottawa and Chippewa Indians. Before her election in 2024, she worked as a Human Resource Professional for the Grand Traverse Band Government. Anna holds a Master of Science in Administration (MSA) in Business Administration from Central Michigan University.

Throughout her career, Anna has dedicated herself to serving the members of the Grand Traverse Band, holding various positions and leadership roles in government and gaming operations. Her lifelong goal has been to help others, and she is honored to serve her community and work toward advancing her tribe and its members.