Phone: 202-461-4240

Kameron Matthews, M.D, JD, FAAFP, was appointed as the Deputy Under Secretary for Health for Community Care, Office of Community Care, VA Central Office, effective December 9, 2018.

Dr. Matthews has demonstrated exceptional leadership in her career, including serving twice as the acting Deputy Under Secretary for Health for Community Care as well as in her role as the Assistant Deputy Under Secretary for Health for Community Care, and Deputy Executive Director, Provider Relations and Services, Office of Community Care.

Dr. Matthews is a board-certified family physician with a focus on underserved medicine and advocacy. In addition to her administrative duties, she provides primary care services through the VISN 21 Teleprimary Care Hub. She serves on committees of the National Association of Community Health Centers (NACHC) and she serves as the 2018-2020 National Academy of Medicine James C. Puffer/American Board of Family Medicine fellow. She is honored to have been awarded the 2017 National Minority Quality Forum's 40 Under 40 Leaders in Minority Health, 2015 National Medical Association Council for the Concerns of Women Physicians Emerging Trailblazer Award, the 2015 NACHC Health Professions Education and Training Award, and the 2015 Congressional Black Caucus Foundation Health Braintrust Congressman Louis Stokes Public Health Advocate Award.

Dr. Matthews possesses the knowledge and experience that will be crucial to our organization during this season of change with VA's community care programs.
