MAJOR GENERAL TIMOTHY G. FAY

Maj. Gen. Timothy G. Fay is the Director of Strategic Plans, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Strategic Plans and Requirements, Headquarters U.S. Air Force, Washington, D.C. In this role, he is responsible for the development, analysis, evaluation and integration of the resource allocation plan to meet worldwide air, space, and cyber requirements. His directorate also analyzes Air Force core mission areas and reviews legislative, policy, and operations as they relate to the total force to create a more unified Regular Air Force, Air National Guard, and Air Force Reserve. General Fay is also engaged in the Air Force Global Posture Policy, International Standardization, and Combatant Commanders Regional plan assessments.

General Fay was commissioned following his graduation from the U.S. Air Force Academy in 1987. His previous assignments include instructor pilot and weapons officer duties in the B-52 and B-2, and staff service at Headquarters, U.S. Strategic Command, U.S. Forces Iraq and the Joint Staff. He served in operations Desert Storm, Allied Force and Iraqi Freedom, commanded at the squadron, group, and wing level, and is a command pilot with more than 3,900 flight hours. In his previous assignment, he served as the Deputy Director, Current Operations, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations, Headquarters U.S. Air Force, Washington, D.C.
