

About Tiffany Bohee, President of Mercy Housing California

Tiffany Bohee is a recognized leader in urban development and community transformation. As the President of Mercy Housing California, she leads the state's operations, including real estate development, fundraising, resident services and local and state policy initiatives. With a portfolio that includes over 160 properties across the state, Mercy Housing California serves low-income working families, seniors, veterans, people who have experienced homelessness, people living with HIV/AIDS, and people with disabilities.

Bohee joined Mercy Housing California as President in January of 2025. As the California affiliate of Mercy Housing, one of the country's largest and most impactful affordable housing development nonprofits, Mercy Housing California is poised for unprecedented growth under Bohee's leadership, with more than 3,000 affordable homes in development across Los Angeles County, the San Francisco Bay Area, and the Sacramento Valley.

Prior to serving as the President of Mercy Housing California, Bohee has led over two decades of transformative impact in both the public and private sectors. Her career includes pivotal roles at Lendlease and the San Francisco Office of Community Investment and Infrastructure (OCII), where her innovative approach reshaped urban landscapes while delivering on the promise of affordable housing and sustainable development. At Lendlease, Bohee championed ambitious mixed-use, mixed-income developments, balancing community well-being and economic vitality. During her tenure as OCII Executive Director, Bohee led the revival of iconic districts such as Mission Bay, Transbay, and Hunters Point Shipyard/Candlestick Point, contributing thousands of affordable homes and driving economic revitalization in underinvested communities. Her leadership and track record have earned her high praise, including designations such as Most Influential Women in Business from the San Francisco Business Times and Silicon Valley Business Journal. She has a Bachelor of Arts in politics from Princeton University.

About Mercy Housing

Mercy Housing, Inc. (MHI) is a national nonprofit headquartered in Denver, with regional affiliates headquartered in Atlanta, Chicago, Denver, San Francisco, and Seattle. The portfolio includes over 340 affordable housing communities comprised of 25,700 homes across 21 states, serving more than 40,000 people with low incomes. Mercy Housing California is the largest regional affiliate of Mercy Housing, Inc.

Mercy Housing is committed to creating affordable homes and inclusive communities by developing, financing, and operating affordable, program-enriched housing for families, seniors, and people with special needs. Founded by the Catholic sisters in 1981, strong leadership and a clear vision has taken Mercy Housing from a small Nebraska nonprofit to more than $5 billion in real estate development.

