A BILL

To increase accountability of the Securities and Exchange Commission and to require the Commission to implement a rigorous, fair, and public process for waiving bad actor disqualifications in the securities laws.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Bad Actor Disquali-
5 fication Act of 2022”.

6 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7 It is the sense of Congress that:

1           (1) The automatic disqualification provisions in 2           the securities laws are valuable tools that protect in-
3           vestors, the markets, and the public by deterring
4           misconduct, reducing recidivism, promoting market
5           integrity, and removing bad actors from the market.

6           (2) These tools are inappropriately underuti-
7           lized and waivers of the automatic disqualification
8           provisions are disproportionately granted to the larg-
9           est financial institutions on Wall Street, many of 10          which are recidivists. Between July, 2003, and De-11          cember, 2014, large financial firms received the vast 12          majority of waivers of sanctions, about 82 percent of 13          201 total waivers.

14          (3) Waivers of these automatic sanctions should 15          be granted sparingly and only through an open and 16          transparent process.

17 SEC. 3. INCREASING TRANSPARENCY AND ACCOUNT-
18 ABILITY IN WAIVING BAD ACTOR DISQUALI-
19 FICATIONS.

20          Section 36 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934
21          (15 U.S.C. 78mm) is amended by adding at the end the 22          following:

23          “(d) WAIVER PROCEDURE AND IDENTIFICATION OF 24          BAD ACTORS.—

25                  “(1) WAIVER PROCEDURE.—

1 “(A) TEMPORARY WAIVER.—

2 “(i) PETITION FOR WAIVER.—A per-
3 son may petition the Commission for a
4 temporary waiver of a disqualification or 5 pending disqualification described under
6 subparagraphs (A) through (G) of para-
7 graph (3).

8 “(ii) GRANT OF WAIVER.—With re-
9 spect to a petition made by a person under 10 clause (i), when such person becomes an 11 ineligible person, the Commission may vote
12 to provide such person with a single 180-
13 day temporary waiver, by order, if the 14 Commission determines that such person
15 has demonstrated immediate irreparable
16 injury.

17 “(iii) PUBLICATION OF PETITION.—
18 The Commission shall publish any petition
19 for a temporary waiver along with the 20 order containing an explanation for any 21 Commission determination immediately fol-
22 lowing the related vote under clause (ii).

23 “(B) GENERAL WAIVER.—Following the 24 180-day period provided under subparagraph
25 (A), the Commission, by vote during a meeting

1 open to the public, may not waive any disquali-
2 fication described under subparagraphs (A)
3 through (G) of paragraph (3), unless the Com-
4 mission determines, without regard to the direct
5 costs to the ineligible person associated with a
6 denial, that such waiver—

7 “(i) is in the public interest;

8 “(ii) is necessary for the protection of 9 investors; and

10 “(iii) promotes market integrity.

11 “(C) FEDERAL REGISTER NOTICE; PUBLIC
12 HEARING.—Before making a determination
13 under subparagraph (B), the Commission shall 14 publish adequate notice in the Federal Register
15 of the pendency of the waiver determination
16 and shall afford the public and interested per-17 sons an opportunity to present their views, in-18 cluding at a public hearing.

19 “(D) PROHIBITION ON ADVANCE AD-
20 VICE.—Commission staff may not advise any 21 person of the recommendation of staff to the 22 Commission or on the likelihood of a waiver
23 being granted or denied under this paragraph 24 for such person.

1           “(E) RECORDKEEPING REQUIREMENT.—

2           The Commission shall keep a public record of 3           all requests for a waiver under this paragraph 4           that are later withdrawn.

5           “(2) DATABASE OF INELIGIBLE PERSONS.—The 6           Commission shall establish, and maintain, a public
7           database of all ineligible persons that the Commis-
8           sion has voted against providing a waiver under this 9           subsection or that have indicated their ineligibility in 10          any disclosure to the Commission.

11          “(3) INELIGIBLE PERSON DEFINED.—For pur-
12          poses of this subsection, the term ‘ineligible person’ 13          means any person that—

14                 “(A) is an ineligible issuer and not eligible 15                 to qualify as a well-known seasoned issuer (as 16                 such terms are defined under section 230.405
17                 of title 17, Code of Federal Regulations);

18                 “(B) is not eligible to make use of an ex-
19                 emption provided for certain Regulation D pri-
20                 vate offerings under section 230.505 or 21                 230.506 of title 17, Code of Federal Regula-
22                 tions;

23                 “(C) is not eligible for any safe harbor for 24                 forward-looking statements provided for under 25                 section 27A(c) of the Securities Act of 1933;

7 adviser with respect to solicitation activities, as 8 described under section 275.206(4)-3 of title
9 17, Code of Federal Regulations;

10           “(F) is not eligible to make use of an ex-
