

Bio of Jay Walker, South Louisiana Bank, Houma, LA

Jay Walker, a native of Houma, LA, has been in community banking for 37 years. He has been employed by South Louisiana Bank, in Houma, Louisiana for the past 32 years. He serves as the bank's Chief of Lending in charge of all lending areas, and manages a sizable commercial loan portfolio for the bank. He is a 1985 graduate of Nichols State University, with studies at Louisiana State University, and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance. He is also a graduate of The School of Banking of the South, at LSU. In his lifetime, Jay has experienced over a dozen hurricanes and tropical storms living in Houma, located 50 miles southwest of New Orleans, LA. He currently serves as the President of the Morganza Action Coalition, a 501 C 4 non-profit which advocates for the completion of the Morganza to the Gulf Hurricane Protection Levee System. The system, which when completed, will extend nearly 100 miles along the coastal Parishes of Terrebonne and Lafourche. Jay is married to Amy his wife of 34 years. He is the father of 4 boys, and has five grandchildren.