

Ambassador Roger Noriega

Roger Noriega is a Visiting Fellow at the American Enterprise Institute, where he coordinates the Institute's program on Latin America. He has more than two decades of U.S. public policy experience focusing on political, economic, and security conditions in the Western Hemisphere. He served as U.S. Assistant Secretary of State for Western Hemisphere Affairs (Canada, Latin America, and the Caribbean) and U.S. ambassador to the Organization of American States from (2001-2005). He was a staff member in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee (1997-2001) and the House International Relations Committee (1994-1997) and worked at the U.S. Agency for International Development during President Ronald Reagan's administration. Ambassador Noriega is founder and managing director of Visión Américas LLC, a firm that represents U.S. and foreign clients.