(10) Iran’s Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei is currently sanctioned under Executive Order 13876 (2019), which blocks the property of the Supreme Leader and his office, as well as persons determined by the Secretary of the Treasury to be appointed by the Supreme Leader or his office as a state official of Iran or to have provided material support for such persons (it also prohibits transactions with designees and makes them inadmissible for entry into the United State). As of April 20, 2023, 112 persons have been designated for sanctions pursuant to Executive Order 13876. Major foundations and economic conglomerates overseen by the Supreme Leader that have been designated under Executive Order 13876 include Execution of Imam Khomeini’s Order (EIKO), Astan Qods Razavi (AQR), and Bonyad
Mostazafan (Mostazafan Foundation of Islamic Revolution).
