

Bill Millan

Bill Millan is the Chief Conservation Officer and Director of Policy, at the International Conservation Caucus Foundation (ICCF). In this role, he is responsible for broad strategic advice and management for the global operations of the ICCF. He manages programs in Mexico, Colombia, Peru and the OECS islands. In recent years, the ICCF through its affiliate the Conservation Council of Nations (CCN) has helped arrange for the foundation and activities of 11 similar legislative caucuses in Latin America and Africa and is in talks for creation of such caucuses in the Caribbean and East Asia.

Prior to his work at the ICCF, Mr. Millan was a career Foreign Service Officer for over twenty years. He has served in US embassies in Colombia, Venezuela and worked as a Political Counselor at the US mission to the Organization of American States. Bill Millan is an US Army veteran and earned two Bronze Stars in Vietnam.