

Omar Zakka

Mr. Omar Zakka is the youngest of three sons of Mr. Nizar Zakka, a U.S. Legal Permanent Resident and Lebanese national being held hostage in Iran. He and his brother currently reside in Texas.

Like his father, Omar attended high school at the Riverside Military Academy in Gainesville, Georgia, and graduated in 2016.

During his time at Riverside Military Academy, Omar was a member of the JROTC program during which he was promoted to 2nd Lieutenant. He also was a part of the Mixed Martial Arts and Jiu Jitsu teams as well as the Computer Science and Multimedia clubs. He is fluent in Arabic, English and French and enjoys soccer and horseback riding.

Omar now works at H-E-B in Katy, Texas, and would like to continue his education in Electrical Engineering.
