

United States House of Representatives
Committee on Foreign Affairs

“TRUTH IN TESTIMONY” DISCLOSURE FORM

Clause 2(g) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives and the Rules of the Committee require the disclosure of the following information. A copy of this form should be attached to your written testimony and will be made publicly available in electronic format, as required by House rules.

1. Date of Hearing: May 21st, 2019
2. Your Name: Heather A. Conley
3. Organization or organizations you are representing: Center for Strategic and International Studies
4. In the current calendar year or either of the two previous calendar years, have you or your organization(s) received any Federal grants or contracts (including subgrants and subcontracts) related to the subject of the hearing or your representational capacity at the hearing? Yes No (select one)
5. In the current calendar year or either of the two previous calendar years, have you or your organization(s) received any contract or payment originating with a foreign government related to the subject of the hearing or your representational capacity at the hearing? Yes No (select one)
6. Are you currently negotiating or awaiting approval to receive a contract with or payment from a foreign government related to the subject of the hearing or your representational capacity at the hearing? Yes No (select one)
7. If you answered “Yes” to either item 4, 5 or 6, list the source and amount of each grant, contract, or payment. You may list additional grants, contracts, or payments on additional sheets.
8. Are you an active registrant under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA)? Yes No (select one)

Signature: Heather A. Conley

Please attach a copy of this form to your written testimony.

Truth in Testimony Disclosure

1. Date of hearing: 5/21/19
2. Your name: Heather A. Conley, Senior Vice President for Europe, Eurasia, and the Arctic; and Director, Europe Program
3. Organization or organizations you are representing: Center for Strategic & International Studies (CSIS)
4. In the current calendar year or either of the two previous calendar years, have you or your organization(s) received any Federal grants or contracts (including subgrants and subcontracts) related to the subject of the hearing or your representational capacity at the hearing?

2018:

- Department of Defense / $348,892.32 / Start: August 2018 /Developing U.S. tools to identify, organize, and counter emerging gray zone challenges. Final product to include report and speaks to identifying gray zone challenges as well as organizing for the same
 - Department of Defense / $200,832.82 / Start: July 2018 / Study looks at the Cold War and derives history lessons from that time – specifically looking at unconventional operations during the 1980s.
5. In the current calendar year or either of the two previous calendar years, have you or your organization(s) received any contract or payment originating with a foreign government related to the subject of the hearing or your representational capacity at the hearing?

2019:

- Government of Lichtenstein, Embassy of Lichtenstein: $9,000 for the Diplomatic Forum series, which brought together experts for private and public events focusing on transatlantic diplomacy. Discussion in this series sometimes included topics of Russian influence in Europe, as it is a topic of increasing relevancy in the region.
- Government of the United Kingdom, Embassy of the United Kingdom: $6,500 for Modern Deterrence. A project focused on exploring the theory and principles of modern deterrence so that future defense leaders in NATO countries have a common basic grounding in the topic. The project produced a video which includes discussion on contemporary Russian disinformation and influence.

2018:

- Government of Norway, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Norway: $210,339 for NATO and Transatlantic Security, an extended project involving public events, workshops, and written publications. The hope is to engage experts and policy makers to better understand challenges to the international system, Russia's future, and NATO.

- Government of Norway: $32,000 for work on security in Northern Europe and research on regional policies toward the Arctic. This includes Russian attempts to assert dominance in the Arctic through various construction projects.
- Government of Finland / $58,861.00 / Start: December 2017, End: June 2018 / Study analyzing counters to gray zone tactics. Final product included short paper making recommendation as how to counter tactics.