

Paraic O'Brien is a multi-award winning Irish TV journalist working as a foreign correspondent in the UK. He has brought his distinctive style and eye for detail to all the major global stories over the last 10 years at Channel 4 News. From the refugee crisis, to the Syrian war, to the war in Ukraine he endeavours to combine analysis with putting the individual centre stage in all his reporting. His specialist areas include migration, extremism and populism.