

Curriculum Vitae
JORGE LEE GALINDO

Licentiate in Law from Intercontinental University (Mexico).

Founding partner and Director General of Lee and Associates Law Practice, which specializes in Ecclesiastical Law.

He has established more than one thousand religious associations and various Christian denominations before the Mexican State and also acts as the legal representative for many of them.

He is the author of three books: Juridical Manual for Religious Associations; Commentary on the Law of Religious Associations and Publish Worship in three editions; and Mexican Ecclesiastical Law: A Perspective from its Practical Application, which is currently being edited for its upcoming publication.

He has been invited by the federal government of Mexico to write various articles on the theme of Religious Associations in books and periodicals published by the prestigious National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) and the Ministry of the Interior.

He has given presentations at various forums, seminars, workshops and roundtables at the national and international level and given many interviews on radio programs on themes related to Ecclesiastical Law in Mexico.

He was a member of the board of directors of the Inter-American Federation of Christian Jurists (FIAJC) from 2007 to 2010.

He was president of the Latin American Network of Christian Lawyers in Mexico, A.C, from 2006-2010 and currently acts as legal counsel to the network.

He is President of the Commission for Religious Freedom and Equality of both the Inter-American Federation of Christian Jurists and the Latin American Network of Christian Lawyers in Mexico, A.C.

He is Director of Impulso 18, a non-governmental organization dedicated to promoting and defending freedom of religion and belief in Mexico.