

Shayan Arya is an expert on Iran and also a human rights and political activist. He has been elected to the central committee of the Constitutionalist Party of Iran (Liberal Democrat) where he is currently serving his third term. He has co-authored many articles, focusing on the Islamic Regime of Iran's human rights violations, internal politics and terrorist activities. The articles have been published around the globe in publications such a Wall Street Journal, The Australian, Washington Times, Jerusalem Post, and Strategic Outlook, among others.