

Anthony Vance, Director

U.S. Baha'i Office of Public Affairs

Anthony oversees the development of the office's programs and strategic direction. He joined the office in 2010 after spending four years at the Baha'i World Center in Haifa, Israel representing it to the diplomatic community, civil society, and parts of the host government. A lawyer by training, he spent 21 years in the U.S. Agency for International Development in legal and managerial positions in Washington, Cote d'Ivoire, Kenya, Botswana, and Egypt. Anthony holds a B.A. in Economics, an MBA, and a J.D. from Harvard University.