

Dr. Issam Raad is an infectious disease specialist, who is a Distinguished Professor of Medicine at the University of Texas at Houston. He is President of Health Outreach to the Middle East (H.O.M.E.), a Christian, interdenominational organization that exists to bring physical, psychological and spiritual healing to poor and suffering people in the Middle East in the name of Christ. H.O.M.E. has established a program to train, build and send thousands of Arab, Christian physicians and healthcare professionals on how to share the love of God at the bedside. H.O.M.E. supports three medical clinics, one charity hospital, a home care medical service, and a mobile clinic that provides medical care for the people of Egypt.
