

Fr. Athanasius Habtu Ghebre-Ab, Ph.D

Fr. Athanasius Habtu Ghebre-Ab serves as a parish priest at Holy Trinity Eritrean Orthodox Church in Cincinnati, Ohio, and is also the Director of External Relations for the Canonical Eritrean Orthodox Church in Diaspora under the imprisoned Patriarch, Abune Antonios and His Holiness's designated bishop, His Grace Abba Mekarios. The Diaspora Diocese includes all of North America, Europe and the Middle East.

He holds a Ph.D. in history and is a senior faculty with the rank of full professor at the University of Cincinnati where he has taught for over a quarter of a century. The focus of his study is African History, specializing in colonial history in the horn of Africa. His published books include Massacre at Wekidiba: The Tragic Story of a Village in Eritrea (Red Sea Press, 2013); Ethiopia and Eritrea: A Documentary Study (Red Sea Press, 1993). He is presently working on a title: Full Circle: Coming Home to the Faith of Our Fathers. He has also published several commissioned works and others still in progress pertaining to the Eritrean Orthodox Church. For several years now, he has published several articles on and advocated for religious freedom, separation of church and state and on behalf of all prisoners of conscience in Eritrea. He is married to Mical T. Ghebre-Ab, his wife of thirty-six years and they have two grown children.