I was an employee of the Department of State until January 12, 2017. Since that time on two occasions, I have received reimbursement for travel, hotel and meals for participation in conferences on North Korea human rights in Geneva, Switzerland, and Seoul, South Korea. I believe that a portion of the funds were provided by government agencies of South Korea. I have not been employed to represent a particular point of view, but merely to voice my own personal thoughts and beliefs on issues related to North Korea human rights.
