

Jeffery Morehouse bio

In addition to being an award-winning filmmaker, Jeffery Morehouse, volunteers much of his time as Executive Director of Bring Abducted Children Home (BACHOME.org). Bring Abducted Children Home is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the immediate return of internationally abducted children being wrongfully detained in Japan. It also strives to end Japan's human rights violation of denying children unfettered access to both parents. BAC Home works to increase public awareness through outreach in the general community on the crisis of international parental child abduction. He is also a founding partner in The Coalition to End International Parental Child Abduction and the G7 Kidnapped to Japan Reunification Project.

He believes it is important for Parents of Internationally Kidnapped Children to strategically engage in raising the level of awareness this human and family rights crisis. Info about his son's kidnapping and his efforts is at:

www.bringmochihome.wordpress.com and www.bachome.org/mochi-morehouse/

Though his U.S. sole custodial order has been recognized by courts in Japan in 2014 and 2017, his son "Mochi" Atomu Imoto Morehouse remains kidnapped and cut off from him.