

Hearing on “Update on COVID-19 in Africa”
U.S. House of Representatives
House Foreign Affairs Committees
Subcommittee on Africa, Global Health, and Global Human Rights

Ambassador Kip E. Tom Biography

Ambassador Kip E. Tom served as the United States Ambassador to the United Nations Agencies for Food and Agriculture and the United States Ambassador to the Rome-based United Nations agencies from 2019- 2020. Currently, Ambassador Tom is the Managing Member of Tom Farms LLC and President of CereServ Incorporated, where he leads finance, strategy and production operations. In addition to being active in Agri-Business operation in Indiana for the past 39 years, Ambassador Tom has also served as a crop production consultant to various companies in Argentina, Brazil and Chile.