

Questions from Mr. Bishop of North Carolina for Mr. Matthew Seligman

During my five minutes of questions, the following exchange occurred with you:

Q: ... I looked on Lexis. I couldn't find any case in which you've served as counsel of record in which you finally prevailed. Can you name one?

A: I've worked on legal teams that have prevailed at every level of the federal judiciary, including the Supreme Court of the United States.

Q: Can you name a case?

A: Yeah, sure. So Tyson v. Bouaphakeo which is a case at the Supreme Court.

In follow up, I have reviewed all reported decisions and some associated filings Tyson Foods, Inc. v. Bouaphakeo, 577 U.S. 442 (2016), and its litigation history. I find no indication of your having served as counsel of record in any of the proceedings.

Please provide as complete a list as possible of all litigation before American courts in which you personally have appeared as counsel of record. For your convenience, you may limit your answer to cases in which a decision is reported in a major legal database such as Lexis or Westlaw. If your answer continues to include Bouaphakeo, please provide a specific citation to the court decision or filing reflecting your having served as counsel of record.
