Jacqueline Simon

Jacqueline Simon is the Policy Director of the American Federation of Government Employees, AFL-CIO (AFGE), the largest federal employee union representing over 700,000 federal and District of Columbia employees. She represents AFGE on all policy matters affecting the union's members including civil service protections, collective bargaining, privatization, pay, health insurance, retirement, and budget.

Ms. Simon also serves AFGE as a member of the Federal Salary Council, the Federal Prevailing Rate Advisory Committee, the Employee Thrift Advisory Committee, and the Federal Employees Health Benefits Employee Advisory Committee.
