

Julia Matta

Julia Matta is GAO's Managing Associate General Counsel responsible for appropriations law and GAO audit engagements related to budget and financial management and assurance. Before assuming her current position, she was the Assistant General Counsel for Appropriations Law. She also previously supported GAO's audit engagements on defense capabilities and management and financial management and assurance. Before joining GAO in 2002, Ms. Matta served on active duty in the U.S. Army JAG Corps for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Ms. Matta has been practicing appropriations law for over 20 years. She shepherded the publication of several new chapters of the fourth edition of Principles of Federal Appropriations Law (Red Book). She is a frequent speaker on appropriations law to congressional staff and to other federal agencies. Ms. Matta is also a frequent instructor of the Principles of Appropriations Law course that GAO offers to federal agencies.

Ms. Matta received a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from Georgetown University and her law degree from Georgetown University Law Center. She is a member of the Maryland bar.