

MIKE LITT

mikelitt@gmail.com · (702) 427-1608
12 1/2 7th Street SE · Washington, DC 20003

WORK EXPERIENCE

U.S. Public Interest Research Group (U.S. PIRG), Washington DC

Consumer Campaign Director, November 2017 - Present

- Principal author, "Equifax Breach: One Year Later: (September 2018)

U.S. Public Interest Research Group (U.S. PIRG), Washington DC

Consumer Advocate, March 2015 - November 2017

- Witness before House Financial Services Committee for Continuation of Hearing entitled "Examining the Equifax Data Breach" (October 2017)
- Principal author, interactive map showing fees for credit freezes in each state and the need for free freezes (October 2017)
- Principal author, "Predatory Loans & Predatory Loan Complaints: The CFPB's Consumer Complaint Database Shows the Need to Stop Payday Debt Traps" (August 2016)
- Panelist on data breaches at the Consumer Federation of America's 50th Annual Assembly (March 2016)
- Co-author, "Why You Should Get Security Freezes Before Your Information is Stolen." (October 2015)
- Principal author, "Mortgages and Mortgage Complaints: A Report on the CFPB Consumer Complaint Database" (July 2015).

Clean Energy Project (CEP), Las Vegas NV

Field Director, January 2013 - March 2015

- Grew grassroots and business support for clean energy policies with the National Clean Energy Summit, the Buy Green List, and other initiatives

EDUCATION

University of Texas, Austin TX

BA, American Studies Class of 2005