
Triana McNeil

GAO

202-512-6691

Ms. McNeil is currently an Acting Director at GAO. Since joining GAO in 1998, Ms. McNeil has made cross-cutting and high-impact leadership contributions in a variety of key audit areas, including identifying ways to better protect investors and limiting federal exposure to emerging fraud issues. Most recently she has directed GAO work on government performance, agency collaboration practices, and law and justice issues. She also works with other Supreme Auditing Institutions to share good practices and develop guides to enhance auditing practices.
