

Biography

Michael Gianasi has been the County Clerk and Recorder of Christian County, Illinois since his appointment in 2017 and election in 2018. Prior to his appointment and election, Michael was the Illinois account manager for a Geographic Information Systems consulting firm and before that, he had twelve years of experience in the Christian County Supervisor of Assessments office as the chief deputy and then as the Supervisor. Michael is currently a member of the legislative committee for the Illinois Association of County Clerks and Recorders, focusing on policy discussions related to legislative proposals originating in the Illinois General Assembly. Michael graduated from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1994 with a B.S. in General Engineering.