

JACQUELINE DE LEÓN

Staff Attorney

Jacqueline De León is an enrolled member of the Isleta Pueblo. As a staff attorney at NARF, she leads field hearings across Indian Country on Native American voting rights. She also practices ongoing voter rights litigation. Prior to her work at NARF, De León was a senior associate at the law firm WilmerHale for four years focusing on international antitrust and litigation.

She holds a J.D. from Stanford and a B.A. from Princeton University in Philosophy. De León clerked for Judge William H. Walls of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey and Chief Justice Dana Fabe of the Alaska Supreme Court.