

Harmeet K. Dhillon
Partner, Dhillon Law Group

Harmeet Kaur Dhillon, the founder and senior partner of Dhillon Law Group Inc., is a lawyer who fights passionately for her clients in all walks of life.

Harmeet's practice, in addition to business and employment litigation, includes a substantial amount of constitutional litigation, including numerous free speech, due process, equal protection, and other fundamental rights issues. A substantial part of Harmeet's practice includes representing candidates, ballot measure proponents, and political parties throughout the U.S. in high-stakes litigation matters, often involving novel legal issues.

Harmeet founded civil rights nonprofit Center for American Liberty in 2018, which handles civil rights cases involving speech and other liberty interest throughout the country, including three religious liberties cases challenging COVID restrictions on religious practice which achieved successful rulings in the United States Supreme Court in the first quarter of 2021. Ms. Dhillon is the national co-chair of the Republican National Lawyers Association, and the Republican National Committeewoman from California. She is also a frequent legal and media commentator on high-profile litigation and policy issues, including technology censorship issues.
