

Amendment Offered by Representative Bennie G. Thompson (D-MS)
To Committee on Homeland Security Committee Rules for the 115th
Congress

Insert at the end, the following:

RULE XVII.—APPOINTEE FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE.

A witness invited to testify, who is appointed by the President with or without Senate confirmation, shall include a disclosure form identifying any arrangement, affiliation, relationship, or substantial financial interest the witness has with any organization, company, or entity directly related to the subject of the hearing as well as the nature of the relationship disclosed, unless the committee Chairman and the Ranking Member determine that there is good cause for noncompliance.