

United State House of Representatives
Committee on Financial Services

“TRUTH IN TESTIMONY” DISCLOSURE FORM

Clause 2(g) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives and the Rules of the Committee on Financial Services require the disclosure of the following information. A copy of this form should be attached to your written testimony.

1. Name:	2. Organization or organizations you are representing:
Charles Blauner	American Bankers Association
3. Business Address and telephone number: 1120 Connecticut Avenue, N.W. Washington, D.C. (202) 663-5339
4. Have you received any Federal grants or contracts (including any subgrants and subcontracts) since October 1, 2008 related to the subject on which you have been invited to testify?	5. Have any of the organizations you are representing received any Federal grants or contracts (including any subgrants and subcontracts) since October 1, 2010 related to the subject on which you have been invited to testify?
<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No
6. If you answered “yes” to either item 4 or 5, please list the source and amount of each grant or contract, and indicate whether the recipient of such grant was you or the organization(s) you are representing. You may list additional grants or contracts on additional sheets.
7. Signature

Charles Blauner
Managing Director
Global Head of Information Security
Citi

---

Charles Blauner is the Global Head of Information Security for Citi.

Charles joined Citi in February 2006 as the Head of Information Security for the North America Consumer organization. As the Global Consumer Group was formed, Charles took on the broader responsibilities for the Consumer business globally.

In early 2010 Charles was asked to take on the role of Citi Global Head of Information Security. In this role, Charles sets Citi's Information Security strategy and is accountable for Citi's Information Security posture across all lines of businesses, functions and regions.

Charles started his Information Security career at Bell Communications Research in 1986. In 1994, Charles joined JP Morgan as the lead Information Security architect and in between 1994 and 2001 Charles held various roles including Chief Information Risk Officer for JP Morgan and Investment Banker. In 2001, Charles joined Deutsche Bank as the Chief Information Risk Officer. After assignments in both NY and London; Charles left Deutsche Bank in 2005 to form AbsoSecurity, an Information Security Risk Management consulting company working with major financial services firms in NY and London, before being recruited to join Citi in 2006.

Charles became the chair of the Financial Services Sector Coordinating Council (FSSCC) - which works on critical infrastructure protection issues with the US Treasury Department and the Department of Homeland Security in July of 2012. Previously, Charles held numerous industry positions including: Chair of the American Bankers Association E-Commerce Policy Committee, Chair of the OpenGroup Security Program Group, Chair of the FIX Security Working Group, Founding Director of the FS-ISAC.

Charles earned a BS degree in Computer Science from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1982 and earned a MS degree in Computer Science from the University of Southern California in 1986.