

Kami Geoffray Extended Bio

Kami Geoffray joined the Women's Health and Family Planning Association of Texas as Director of Program Management in 2016 and has served as its Chief Executive Officer since January 2017, where she oversees the administration of the second-largest Title X family planning services grant award in the nation, which includes sub-awards for 37 agencies operating more than 140 Title X service sites across Texas.

Previously, Kami worked for over three years as a Senior Policy Advisor within the Texas Health and Human Services Commission's Medicaid and CHIP Office of Policy and has also served as Public Policy Coordinator at the Louisiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence.

Kami serves as a Steering Committee Member of the Texas Women's Healthcare Coalition, as a member of the Family Planning National Training Center's Leadership Council, and as the incoming Secretary of the Family Planning Councils of America. She has served as a member of Power to Decide's Better Birth Control Framework Expert Panel and has been honored with the National Family Planning and Reproductive Health Association's Advocacy and Public Affairs Award.

Kami received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Rice University and her Juris Doctor degree from Tulane Law School. After law school, she clerked for the Honorable John E. Conery of the 16th Judicial District Court of the State of Louisiana and is a member of the Louisiana Bar.
