HEARING NOTICE

TO: Members of the Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations

FROM: Diana DeGette, Chair

SUBJECT: Subcommittee Hearing on “Formula Safety and Supply: Protecting the Health of America’s Babies”

The Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations of the Committee on Energy and Commerce will hold a hybrid hearing that includes both in-person and remote attendance on Wednesday, May 25, 2022, at 11 a.m. (EDT). The hearing is entitled, “Formula Safety and Supply: Protecting the Health of America’s Babies.” Witnesses will be by invitation only.

This hearing will take place in the John D. Dingell Room, 2123 of the Rayburn House Office Building, as well as remotely using Cisco Webex online video conferencing. Members will receive Webex participant access information by email before the hearing. No staff from member offices will be allowed in the Committee room. However, one staffer from each member’s office may join the hearing remotely as an attendee. Each designated staff attendee must register at the provided link by no later than Tuesday, May 24, 2022, at 12 p.m. (EDT). The public may view this hearing via live webcast on the Committee’s website: <http://energycommerce.house.gov>.

For members planning to attend in person, the Committee notes that this hearing is being held during the COVID-19 pandemic, therefore the Committee will adhere to the greatest extent possible to the safety guidelines issued by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Attending Physician of the Capitol. Guidelines regarding the conduct of this hearing were previously distributed.

The bipartisan staff briefing for this hearing will be held using Microsoft Teams on Friday, May 20, 2022, at 1 p.m. (EDT). The Democratic staff briefing will be held immediately following the bipartisan briefing. The Republican staff briefing will be announced separately. Information for these briefings will be sent out later this week.
