HEARING NOTICE

TO: Members of the Subcommittee on Communications and Technology

FROM: Mike Doyle, Chairman
Subcommittee on Communications and Technology

SUBJECT: Virtual Subcommittee Hearing on “Trump FCC: Four Years of Lost Opportunities”

The Subcommittee on Communications and Technology of the Committee on Energy and Commerce will hold a virtual, fully remote hearing at 10 a.m. (EDT) on Thursday, September 17, 2020. The hearing is entitled, “Trump FCC: Four Years of Lost Opportunities.” The witnesses will be the five commissioners of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

This hearing will take place remotely via Cisco Webex online video conferencing. For Members only access, Committee staff will email Webex access information next week. One staff member from each Member’s office may also join this remote hearing as an attendee. Each designated staff attendee should RSVP with his or her name and email address to Zach Kahan with the Committee staff (zach.kahan@mail.house.gov) by no later than 12 p.m. (EDT) on Tuesday, September 15, 2020. The public may view this hearing via live webcast on the Committee’s website: <http://energycommerce.house.gov>.

The bipartisan staff briefing for this hearing will be held by conference call on Wednesday, September 16, 2020, at 2 p.m. (EDT). The Democratic staff briefing will be held after the bipartisan briefing concludes using GoToMeeting online conferencing. The Republican staff briefing will be announced separately. Dial-in information for these conference call briefings will be sent out before the briefings.

If you have any questions, please contact Joe Orlando with the Committee staff at (202) 225-2927 or by email at joe.orlando@mail.house.gov.

Currently the U.S. House of Representatives Office Buildings, as well as the U.S. Capitol complex, are closed to the public. Official meetings of the Committee on Energy and Commerce, or its subcommittees, are broadcast and available on the Committee’s website: www.energycommerce.house.gov.
