

Michael P. O'Neal, Vice President-Corporate Underwriting
First American Title Insurance Company

Michael O'Neal is a Vice President of Corporate Underwriting at First American Title Insurance Company. One of the country's leading experts on notarial law and practice, Michael has lectured extensively to state and national audiences on electronic and remote online notarization and has assisted dozens of states in updating their notary laws and regulations for the 21st century. Michael has more than two decades of experience in the title insurance and settlement industry. He graduated with an A.B. in Government from Georgetown University, has an M.A. in Middle Eastern History from Tel Aviv University, and earned a J.D. from The George Washington University Law School. A native of Florida, Michael lives and works in Washington, D.C. He may be reached at moneal@firstam.com.