

SAMUEL LEE ALEXANDER

[REDACTED]
Fairbanks, Alaska 99709 [REDACTED]

Summary

Committed public servant with work that reflects both work and personal priorities. Proven leader capable of managing sensitive operations in politically complex and dangerous environments. Engaging presence in the classroom, capable of inspiring and motivating students to excel. Dedicated to the preservation and revitalization of Alaskan Native Languages.

Education

Masters of Business Administration - Tuck School of Business, Dartmouth College, 2014

- Finalist, MassChallenge Business Accelerator, Boston, Massachusetts
- Winner, Barris Incubator, Tuck School of Business, Dartmouth College, New Hampshire
- Dartmouth Ventures 2nd Place (2014)

Bachelors of Science in General Management – United States Military Academy 2002

Professional Instruction, Presentation and Conference Participation

2018 – 22-24 May – UAF Alaska Native Language Revitalization Institute Facilitator

2017 – 2 November – Testimony to US Senate Energy Committee on behalf of Gwich'in Steering Committee

2017 – 19-23 June - Dinjii Zhuu K'yaa Summer Immersion Camp Facilitator

2016 - Peter, H. and Alexander, S. Teaching/Learning an Indigenous Language. CoLang 2016. Fairbanks, AK

SAMUEL LEE ALEXANDER

Academic Experience (professional/developmental)

- Primary instructor for the online and in residence instruction for two separate upper-division Homeland Defense and Security and Emergency Management courses.
- Teacher's assistant for both 1st and 2nd Year University level Gwich'in Instruction

Volunteer and Community Service

- Gwich'in Steering Committee 2013 – Present
- Volunteer Gwich'in Tutor

Memberships

- Gwich'in Council International Board Member
- Tuck Veteran's Association

Career History

- Term Instructor University of Alaska Fairbanks, School of Management (Aug 2015 to present)
- Adjunct Instructor University of Alaska Fairbanks, School of Management (Jan 2015 to May 2015)
- Detachment Commander, ODA 5222, 5th Special Forces Group, U.S. Army Special Forces, Fort Campbell, Kentucky (2008-2011) w/duty Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation New Dawn, Levant
- Student Officer, U.S Army Special Warfare Center and School (2006-2008) Brigade Assistant S4/Brigade Maintenance Officer, 2nd BCT, 1st Armor Division, Baumholder, Germany (2005)
- Executive Officer, Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 2nd BN, 2nd BCT, 1st Armor Division Baumholder, Germany (2004-2005)
- Iraqi Liason Officer, Infantry Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 2nd BN, 2nd BCT, 1st Armor Division, Baumholder, Germany (2004) w/duty Operation Iraqi Freedom

SAMUEL LEE ALEXANDER

- Infantry Rifle Platoon Leader, Charlie Company, 2nd BN, 2nd BCT, 1st Armor Division, Baumholder, Germany (2003) w/duty Operation Iraqi Freedom