

Dan Fisher

[REDACTED]
Gillespie, Illinois 62033

M [REDACTED]

Profile	I am the current Treasurer for the City of Gillespie and an advocate for the city and its residents. I am married and have two adult children. I am a member of the city's planning and economic development group, Grow Gillespie, as well as being a member of the RECLAIM Act's Illinois Working Group.
Experience	Senior Project Manager, John H Crawford &amp; Assoc. PC – 1989 until retirement in 2017 Job duties included participation in the design, construction, inspection and administration of civil engineering and mining projects such as highways, bridges, water and sewer systems. Worked with predominately small municipal clients to assure the project was completed on time, on budget and to the satisfaction of the client, the funding agent and the company. Coordinator of Economic Development, Macoupin County, Illinois – 1982-1989 Administered county economic development programs and actively recruited businesses and industries to locate or expand into Macoupin County. Owner, Fisher Publishing Company – 1979-1989 Operated group of small weekly newspapers. Duties were typical of small business ownership: everything and anything that needed done! Mayor, City of Gillespie – 2000-2004 Treasurer, City of Gillespie- 2014-present Both are part-time elected positions.
Education	Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville – Graduate School in Political Science BA-Political Science, 1973 University of Illinois-Urbana/Champaign- Major in American Literature, 1969-1971
Other	Graduate Assistant, Political Science, SIU-E; attended intensive training program on Japanese language and culture at Ritsumeiken University in Kyoto, Japan; Completed National Main Street Center's condensed training program, Illinois Clean &amp; Beautiful training program and various certification skills via Illinois Department of Transportation and Illinois EPA. Worked as stringer for St. Louis Post Dispatch newspaper. Served as team member Kellogg Foundation/Rural Partners Program, Macoupin County, Illinois; Served as Marketing Committee Member, Western Illinois Corridor of Opportunity Program. Former member American Political Science Association, International Typographical Workers Union and Teamsters Local #525.
References	Available upon request.