

Subcommittee on National Parks Forests and Public Lands
Oversight Hearing
Roads to Ruin: Examining the Impacts of Removing National Forest
Roadless Protections
FOR THE RECORD SUBMISSIONS

1. Representative Gallego Submission: Washington Post Article from August 29, 2019, entitled Trump pushes to allow new logging in Alaska's Tongass National Forest, by Juliet Eilperin and Josh Dawsey.
2. Representative Grijalva Submission: Alaska Public article from September 24, 2019, entitled Records show federal government, tasked with rewriting Tongass rules, also funded Alaska timber group, by Elizabeth Jenkins.
3. Representative Grijalva Submission: State of Alaska, Division of Forestry's application for a modification of grant administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture Forest Service dated August 21, 2018.
4. Representative Haaland Submission: Resolution #ABQ-19-029 adopted by the National Congress of American Indians entitled Oppose Rulemaking that Weakens or Eliminates Protections of the Roadless Rule within Tribal Traditional Territories and Support the "No-Action Alternative" in the Alaska-Specific Roadless Rulemaking.
5. Mr. James Furnish Submission: Comment letter to the USDA Forest Service regarding the Alaska Roadless Rule from Catherine M. Mater, President of Mater Engineering dba Mater Ltd., and Jim Furnish, Deputy Chief of the USDA Forest Service (Ret.).
6. Outdoor Alliance: Letter to Chair Haaland and Ranking Member Young expressing concerns with efforts to undercut the integrity of the Roadless Rule, dated November 12, 2019. [Retained in Committee Files]
7. The Wilderness Society: Letter to Chair Haaland and Ranking Member Young expressing strong support for H.R. 2491, the Roadless Area Conservation Act, dated November 12, 2019. [Retained in Committee Files]