

Savannah Lindquist

Development and Communications Coordinator

👤 Profile

Hardworking and self-driven university student majoring in psychology. Experienced activist and volunteer Crisis Counselor. Thrives in fast-paced work environments that provide consistent challenges and opportunities for growth.

📁 Employment History

Development and Communications Coordinator at Ladies of Liberty Alliance, Washington D.C.

May 2018 – Present

Responsible for a variety of tasks including development research, assisting with Salesforce, and building the Speakers Bureau. I also work on the organization's social media presence and compose email campaigns for various projects.

North American Programs Intern at Students For Liberty, Washington D.C.

June 2019 – August 2019

As a member of the Summer 2018 class of the Koch Internship Program with the Charles Koch Institute, I worked with the North American Programs team of Students For Liberty on various tasks, as well as attended professional development training once a week.

Pennsylvania State Chair at Young Americans for Liberty, Philadelphia

October 2015 – November 2016

Responsible for working with eastern Pennsylvania campus leaders to plan and execute events, as well as assist with recruitment efforts across the northeast.

🎓 Education

Tidewater Community College, Norfolk

August 2018 – Present

A.A.S. in General Studies

Old Dominion University, Norfolk

August 2017 – Present

Psychology Major

Temple University, Philadelphia

August 2013 – November 2016

Neuroscience and Religion double major.

📄 References

References available upon request

Details

7573509170

savannah@ladiesofliberty.org

Links

LinkedIn

Skills

Ability to Work Under Pressure

Flexibility and Adaptability

Able to manage and implement Social Media campaigns

Willingness to Learn

Microsoft Office

Google Sheets

Data Analysis

