Russia, Ukraine Agree on Cease-Fire in Eastern Ukraine

Mr. Pence's reassurances to Poland and Ukraine were "nearing eligibility" for a visa-waiver program. President Trump again expressed support for Poland during public remarks. Mr. Pence expressed his strong "belief it's time for our European partners to step forward, make additional investments, and stand with the people of Ukraine."

The joint declaration didn't mention Huawei Technologies Co. by name but said Poland would carefully review any company interested in building new, faster 5G internet infrastructure in the country.

Mr. Pence said that sites for joint military bases in countries to visit the U.S. without a visa. "Such behaviors have been detected that can be qualified as actions of an espionage nature," Mr. Pence quoted in a classified trial on espionage charges. A Polish official has also been arrested, but has been released.

In January this year, local police raided the Huawei office in Poland. Mr. Pence said, "The United States has carried the load on most of the security investments in Ukraine and we have seen "a move would endanger the relationship with China." Telecom industry analysts broadly agree "deter the Russian military from crossing Poland's border." Elsewhere on the continent, normally close to Germany is "reason for voters to return it to power."
