

ABOUT JOY VILLA

Joy Villa is a pro-life, pro-America, pro-Second Amendment, conservative singer and actress in Hollywood who loves the Trump administration and has been outspoken as a regular political commentator on “Fox & Friends,” “Mornings with Maria,” “Hannity,” “Watters’ World,” and many other programs.

She is the author of the bestselling book, “Kickass Conservative! How I Escaped Liberal Feminism To Become a Freedom-Loving Trumpican —and How You Can, Too”.

She is regularly at the White House and was appointed to the Trump campaign advisory board in 2017 by Senior Adviser Lara Trump.

Following her appearance at the 2017 Grammys in her “Make America Great Again” Trump dress, her EP “I Make The Static” rocketed to the No.1 spot on both iTunes and Amazon. She beat out Beyoncé, Adele, and Lady Gaga, and her album landed at No. 1 in Alternative, No. 1 in Rock, and No. 1 on Billboard’s Top 200 Albums.

She has toured to over 35 countries as a performer and now lives in Los Angeles
