68 Pursuant to notice, I now call up H.R. 1693, the Eliminating 69 a Quantifiably Unjust Application of the Law Act or the EQUAL
70 Act.

71 [The Bill H.R. 1693 follows:]

COMMITTEE INSERT**

73 For purposes of markup, I move that the committee report
74 the bill favorably to the House.

75 The Clerk will report the bill.

76 Ms. Fontenot. H.R. 1693, to eliminate disparity and 77 sentencing for cocaine offenses --

78 Chairman Nadler. Without objection, the bill is considered
79 as read and open for amendment at any point. I will begin by 80 recognizing myself for an opening statement.

81 H.R. 1693, the Eliminating a Quantifiably Unjust Application
82 of the Law Act or the EQUAL Act will eliminate the unjust
83 sentencing disparity between crack cocaine and powder cocaine
84 offenses. This long overdue bipartisan legislation for those 85 who allow defendants who were previously convicted or sentenced 86 to a federal offense involving crack cocaine petition for a
87 sentence reduction.

88 In 1986, Congress passed the Anti-Drug Abuse Act which 89 created mandatory minimum penalties for drug offenses and 90 introduced the 100 to 1 sentencing disparity between crack cocaine
91 and powder cocaine offenses. This meant that a person who 92 distributed 5 grams of crack cocaine received the same 5 year
93 mandatory minimum sentence as a person who distributed 500 grams
94 of powder cocaine. A person who distributed 50 grams of crack
95 cocaine received the same 10 year mandatory minimum sentence as 96 a person who distributed 5,000 grams of powder cocaine.

97 It soon became evident that this sentencing disparity had 98 also created a significant racial disparity. Four years after 99 Congress passed the Anti-Drug Abuse Act, the average federal 100 sentence for Black defendants was 49 percent higher than the 101 average for White defendants. In the ensuing decades, the 102 Sentencing Commission and many members of the law enforcement
103 community strongly and repeatedly criticized the 100 to 1 ratio
104 and urged Congress to address the disparity.

105 As early as 1995, the Sentencing Commission began urging 106 Congress to rectify this unfairness. Besides the troubling
107 racial disparity in sentencing, the Commission also expressed 108 concern over the significant difference in punishment between 109 street-level dealers of crack cocaine and the powder cocaine
110 suppliers who sold the cocaine in the first instance.
111 Unfortunately, Congress rejected the Commission's proposed
112 amendment to the sentencing guidelines to equalize the penalties
113 for crack and powder cocaine.

114 From 1997 to 2007, the Commission continued to warn Congress
115 about the unjustified ratio, noting that there is no legislative 116 history that explains Congress' rationale for selecting the 100
117 to 1 drug quantity ratio for powder cocaine and crack offenses.

118 It provided evidence of its findings that the penalties
119 exaggerated the relative harmfulness of crack cocaine, swept too 120 broadly, most often applied to lower level offenders and mostly 121 impacted minorities.

122 Congress, however, took no action, prompting the Commission
123 to pass an amendment to the sentencing guidelines in 2007 as a
124 partial and modest remedy to the urgent and compelling problem
125 associated with the ratio. In doing so, the Commission
126 unanimously and strongly urged Congress to take action on its 127 recommendations and to provide a comprehensive solution.

128 In 2010, Congress finally acted by passing the Fair
129 Sentencing Act which did not eliminate the disparity, but 130 significantly reduced the disparity from 100 to 1 to 18 to 1.

131 The fair sentencing applied only to pending and future cases, 132 leaving thousands of inmates without a path to petition for 133 relief.

134 The First Step Act of 2018 made the Fair Sentencing Act
135 retroactive, providing a path of relief for some, but not all
136 individuals affected by the sentencing disparity. It is now past
137 time to finish the job. The crack cocaine and powder cocaine
138 disparity has greatly contributed to the rise of mass
139 incarceration, devastating communities of color, and severely
140 undermine public confidence in our criminal justice system.

141 The EQUAL Act would finally equalize the treatment of powder
142 cocaine and crack cocaine, two forms of the same drug, by 143 eliminating the sentencing disparity. It would also provide a
144 path to retroactive relief from a disparity that is not rooted

145 in science, does not promote public safety, and fosters racial 146 disparity.

147 This bipartisan legislation represents an important step
148 in our efforts to reform the criminal justice system. I commend
149 Representative Jeffries for introducing this important
150 legislation and for assembling a broad and bipartisan coalition
151 of stakeholders in support of the bill, including the Department
152 of Justice and advocacy groups that span the ideological spectrum.

153 I urge all my colleagues to support this bill.

154 I now recognize the Ranking Member of the Judiciary
155 Committee, the gentleman from Ohio, Mr. Jordan, for his opening
156 statement.

157 Mr. Jordan. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Since Congress
158 passed the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1986, the Federal Criminal Code
159 has contained harsher punishments for individuals convicted of 160 or sentenced for federal crimes related to crack cocaine as 161 compared to powder cocaine, as you said in your opening statement.

162 The Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1986 created a 100 to 1 sentencing
163 disparity between these two substances.

164 At a hearing on this hearing just a few weeks ago, many on 165 the other side of the aisle discussed the racial disparity that 166 these mandatory minimum sentences have on communities of color.

167 But we should remember how this disparity came into existence.

168 The Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1986 passed the Democrat-controlled

169 House by a vote of 392 to 16. Among the Democrats voting for 170 the act in '86 were then Representatives Chuck Schumer, Dick
171 Durbin, Charlie Rangel, Major Owens. In the Senate, the Act
172 passed 97 to 2 with then Senators Joe Biden, John Kerry, and Al
173 Gore, all voting in favor. In fact, then-Senator Biden, not only 174 voted for the measure, he co-sponsored it and helped write in.

175 In 2010, Congress passed the Fair Sentencing Act which 176 reduced the sentencing disparity between crack and powder cocaine
177 from 100 to 1 to 18 to 1, so a step in the right direction. In 178 2018, Congress passed, and President Trump signed, the First Step
179 Act, which made the Fair Sentencing Act retroactive. This law
180 allowed anyone sentenced for federal drug offenses related to 181 cocaine to move for a re-sentencing under the 2010 standard.

182 The EQUAL Act would eliminate the federal sentencing
183 disparity between crack and powder cocaine and allow someone 184 previously convicted of an offense related to cocaine to move
185 for re-sentencing.

186 Mr. Chairman, I thank you and yield back and look forward
187 to our discussion.

188 Chairman Nadler. I now recognize the chair of the 189 Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, and Homeland Security, the 190 gentlelady from Texas, Ms. Jackson Lee, for her opening statement.

191 Ms. Jackson Lee. Good morning and thank you so very much,
192 Mr. Chairman and to the Ranking Member. I am proud to support

193 H.R. 1693 which will finally eliminate the sentencing disparity
194 between crack cocaine and powder cocaine offenses and provide 195 retroactive relief to the thousands of individuals who received 196 harsh and unfair sentencing based on this disparity.

197 If you were to take a journey through the sentence systems
198 of America, both state and federal, you would see the remnants
199 of the failed War on Drugs, individuals who received 20 and 30
200 and 40 year sentences, mostly falling and burdening those in urban 201 centers, and yes, rural centers.

202 I have long championed the equalization of crack cocaine
203 and powder cocaine offenses. Beginning in 2007, I introduced 204 legislation H.R. 295 that would have ended the disparity because 205 we had learned that most of the assumptions on which the 100 to 206 1 ratio was based turned out to be unfounded. For example,
207 science made clear that powder cocaine and crack cocaine are two 208 forms of the same drug, producing similar effects once they reach
209 the brain. There is no scientific basis for treating crack cocaine
210 more harsher than powder cocaine.

211 We also learned that there is no greater danger to public
212 safety from crack offenders and powder cocaine offenders and that 213 the 100 to 1 ratio overstated the relative harmfulness of the 214 two forms of cocaine and diverted federal resources away from 215 prosecuting the highest level traffickers.

216 The unfounded assumption that led to the 100 to 1 sentencing

217 disparity has damaged communities of color for generations. A
218 higher percentage of Black Americans are convicted of crack
219 cocaine versus powder cocaine offenses and received significantly 220 longer sentences for comparable offenses.

221 I am aware of a neighbor's brother was standing on a street
222 corner, had crack cocaine, and was not only charged with that 223 offense, but was charged with conspiracy and was sentenced to 224 25 years in his young life. The percentage of individuals serving 225 reasonably longer sentences because of the disparity are not mere 226 statistics from the Sentencing Commission. This data reflects
227 lost years for thousands of individuals and family. These 228 individuals are fathers, mothers, sons, and daughters. They are 229 William Underwood, Matthew Charles, and Cynthia Shank, who 230 testified before the House and Senate Judiciary Committee about 231 the devastating impact of the sentencing disparity and mandatory 232 minimum laws have had on them, their families, and countless 233 others who are similarly situated.

234 The crack and powder cocaine sentencing disparity is another
235 byproduct of our country's failed War on Drugs and our punitive
236 response to the crack cocaine crisis of the 1980s. Congress
237 allowed race-based myths and unfounded assumptions about crack
238 cocaine has shaped federal crack cocaine policy. But it is time
239 for science, data, and evidence to reform it. Congress started 240 that process in 2010 when it passed the Fair Sentencing Act and

241 reduced the sentencing disparity to 18 to 1. The First Step Act
242 in 2018 made the Fair Sentencing Act retroactive.

243 But the crack and powder cocaine disparity persists even 244 under the 18 to 1 ratio. In Fiscal Year 2019, nearly 81 percent 245 of crack cocaine offenders were Black, while 27.4 percent of 246 powder cocaine offenders were Black.

247 In Fiscal Year 2020, 77.1 percent of crack cocaine offenders
248 were Black, while 27.3 percent of powder cocaine offenders were 249 Black. Since 2010, the gap between the average sentence imposed
250 for crack and powder cocaine offenses have narrowed, but not 251 closed. And as the Supreme Court recently noted in Terry versus 252 the United States, the lowest level of crack cocaine offenders
253 are still ineligible for release despite Congress' passage of 254 the First Step Act.

255 Today, we can end this injustice by passing the EQUAL Act
256 of 2021 putting an end to the harmful impact of the crack and 257 powder cocaine sentencing disparity. Doing so we will also 258 ensure that thousands of people who lost years of their lives
259 because of the failed policies of the War on Drugs and the 260 opportunity for re-sentencing.

261 I thank our friends, Representative and Chairman Jeffries
262 for introducing this bipartisan and bicameral legislation with 263 original cosponsors of Representative Bobby Scott, Kelly
264 Armstrong, and Don Bacon. I am delighted for those of us in the 265 Judiciary, as well as myself, to be cosponsors on this important

266 legislation.

267 I also thank Chairman Nadler for his leadership in bringing 268 up this bill as part of our federal sentencing reform agenda that 269 we will continue to press in the subcommittee of which I chair.

270 I urge my colleagues to join in bipartisan support and that 271 means all of our colleagues on both sides of the aisle for the 272 EQUAL Act which includes members of this committee and to vote
273 yes on H.R. 1693.

274 Mr. Chairman, I yield back.

275 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back and I now
276 recognize the Ranking Member of the Crime Subcommittee, the 277 gentleman from Arizona, Mr. Biggs, for his opening statement.

278 Mr. Biggs. I thank the chairman. It is so important to 279 remember the words of one of our witnesses from a hearing on this 280 topic just a few weeks ago. At a hearing on this issue, many 281 on the other side of dais discussed the racial disparity that
282 these mandatory minimum sentences have on communities of color.

283 Mr. Malcolm noted how he "had been struck at how often people
284 agree about what ought to be done, even if they disagree about 285 why those measures are warranted." He urged us to "focus on your 286 areas of agreement, and not let the perfect be the enemy of the 287 good."

288 I hope that is what happens here today. Whether you support

289 the bill or oppose it, I hope we can have an honest debate on 290 this discussion.

291 I was struck at that hearing just a couple of weeks ago that 292 many members on the other side claimed that the crack powder
293 disparity is rooted in racist ideology. The reason that was so 294 striking to me is because President Biden, Speaker Pelosi, and 295 Majority Leader Schumer, all here when that law was put into place, 296 supported the underlying laws the EQUAL Act would now amend.

297 Are we to believe that Democrats put racists in three of 298 the top four political positions in this country as would be 299 implied by the previous speaker's comments?

300 Around the time these laws were being passed, Ebony Magazine
301 profiled Congressman Charlie Rangel. The magazine labeled
302 Congressman Rangel as "the front line general in the War on Drugs."

303 Representative Rangel is quoted as saying "I don't know what 304 is behind the lackadaisical attitudes towards drugs, but I do
305 know that the American people have made it abundantly clear.
306 They are outraged by the indifference of the U.S. Government to 307 this problem."

308 A couple of years after that article, Congressman Rangel
309 stated "We should not allow people to be able to distribute this 310 poison without the fear that maybe they might be arrested and 311 put in jail."

312 Nobody in this room believes Charlie Rangel was or is a

313 racist. So as we go through this today, I hope that we have a 314 meaningful substantive discussion rather than a discussion that 315 imputes motivations, that may be wildly inaccurate. I hope that 316 cooler heads prevail.

317 Mr. Chairman, thank you. I yield back.

318 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back. Without
319 objection, all other opening statements will be included in the 320 record.

321 I now recognize myself for purposes of offering an amendment
322 in the nature of a substitute. The Clerk will report the 323 amendment.

324 [The Amendment offered by Chairman Nadler follows:]

325

326 COMMITTEE INSERT**

327 Ms. Fontenot. Amendment in the nature of a substitute to 328 H.R. 1693 offered by Mr. Nadler of New York. Strike all that 329 follows after the enacting clause --

330 Chairman Nadler. Without objection, the amendment in the 331 nature of a substitute will be considered as read and shall be 332 considered as base text for purposes of amendments. I will now
333 recognize myself to explain the amendment.

334 This amendment adds the phrase of 2021 to the bill's short
335 title, but it makes no substantive changes to the bill. I urge 336 members to support the amendment and I yield back the balance
337 of my time.

338 Are there any amendments to the amendment in the nature of 339 a substitute?

340 Mr. Jeffries. I move to strike the last word.

341 Chairman Nadler. For what purpose does the gentleman from 342 New York, Mr. Jeffries' response to the bill seek recognition?

343 Mr. Jeffries. Move to strike the last word.

344 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

345 Mr. Jeffries. I thank the distinguished chairman for your 346 leadership and for recognizing me today. We are here to markup
347 H.R. 1693, the Eliminating a Quantifiably Unjust Application of 348 the Law Act, otherwise referred to as the EQUAL Act which will 349 finally eliminate the federal crack and powder cocaine sentencing
350 disparity and provide retroactive relief to those who have already 351 been convicted or sentenced.

352 In 1986, Congress passed the Anti-Drug Abuse Act which 353 established a 100 to 1 disparity in sentencing for crack cocaine
354 and powder cocaine. That means a five year mandatory prison
355 sentence for distribution of 500 grams of powder cocaine, but 356 only 5 grams of crack cocaine to trigger the same sentence. Of 357 course, there is no policy justification punishing crack cocaine
358 offenses more harshly in the same offense involving powder
359 cocaine.

360 Indeed, there is no pharmacological difference, no chemical 361 difference, no physical difference in how the body processes crack
362 cocaine as compared to powder cocaine. But there was a difference 363 in terms of its disparate impact on communities of color and 364 low-income communities of every single race in urban America,
365 in rural America, small town America, and in Appalachia.

366 Now according to the U.S. Sentencing Commission in Fiscal 367 Year 2020, 77.1 percent of crack cocaine trafficking offenses
368 were Black, whereas most powder cocaine offenders ultimately 369 convicted and prosecuted were either White or Hispanic.

370 There is significant economic cost as well to the sentencing
371 disparity. A recent report from the Prison Policy Initiative
372 found that our system of mass incarceration fueled in part by 373 unjust sentencing drug laws cost the government and American 374 families and the taxpayers at least $182 billion every year.

375 Of course, the human and economic costs of these policies have 376 not resulted in improved public safety which was the rationale
377 used to justify the original laws.

378 That is why we have the support of right of censor groups
379 like the Major Cities Chiefs Association, the Association of 380 Prosecuting Attorneys, as well as notably the National District
381 Attorneys Association. Stakeholders, who of course, understand 382 what is necessary to keep America safe and have dedicated their 383 life to doing so. They recognize that this law has been 384 unsuccessful, unjust, and uneconomical.

385 Now Congress has acted several times led by the Judiciary
386 Committee to incrementally eliminate and address the sentencing
387 disparity. In 2010, Congress passed the bipartisan Fair
388 Sentencing Act led by former Members Bobby Scott and Jim
389 Sensenbrenner which reduced the disparity from 100 to 1 to 18
390 to 1. And then, of course, the bipartisan First Step Act of 2018
391 which former President Trump signed into law, made that change
392 from 100 to 1 to 18 to 1 retroactive.

393 Today, 35 years after the Anti-Drug Abuse Act was signed
394 into law and 50 years after President Richard Nixon declared the 395 beginning of the failed War on Drugs, it is time for this Judiciary
396 Committee to finish the job that we have started over a decade
397 ago and end this discriminatory law once and for all.

398 The bill has broad support from groups within the law

399 enforcement community, civil rights community, faith community,
400 medical community, progressives, conservatives, and all points
401 in between. And I would like to thank them for their tireless 402 advocacy.

403 Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to enter into the 404 record letters from the organizations and their statements of 405 support.

406 Chairman Nadler. Without objection.

407 Mr. Jeffries. I also want to thank the bipartisan
408 cosponsors of this legislation, Representatives Kelly Armstrong,
409 Bobby Scott, and Don Bacon for their partner and leadership.
410 I want to thank the chair of the subcommittee, Representative
411 Sheila Jackson Lee for her steadfast leadership in this area, 412 as well as the Republican supporters of this legislation in the 413 Senate, Senators Portman, Tillis, and Rand Paul, along with 414 Senators Booker and Durbin on our side of the aisle. I appreciate 415 the time and consideration and urge the committee to support this 416 legislation and I yield back.

417 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back. For what 418 purpose does the gentleman from Texas, Mr. Gohmert, seek
419 recognition?

420 Mr. Gohmert. Move to strike the last word.

421 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

422 Mr. Gohmert. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and I am grateful

423 to Congressman Jeffries for bringing this bill and just so there
424 is clarity about why there is such a gross disparity. Since I
425 have been here in Congress, the issue came up of the great
426 disparity and there were comments made at the time that gee, this 427 was a racist disparity. Dan Lungren was here and he was saying 428 that he was here back in the '80s when that had passed and that 429 Republicans had been told of the White members, if you don't 430 support -- and Charlie Rangel was pushing it and most of the 431 Congressional Black Caucus was, but he said Rangel's pitch was 432 if you do not support this big disparity in punishing crack
433 cocaine, then you must be against minority communities because 434 crack cocaine is absolutely destroying black communities. And 435 the Republicans didn't want to be seen as racists, so they voted 436 for that big disparity.

437 And I agree with my colleagues across the aisle, now, there
438 really was -- that was not appropriate to have that kind of 439 disparity. As someone who has sentenced people for both powder
440 and crack cocaine under state law, I don't see any reason there
441 should be this kind of disparity. But I would also caution that 442 we be careful about how the term racist is used because that term 443 enabled the bill to pass that actually was racist not in the 444 intention of anybody, including the Black Caucus that was pushing 445 it, but in effect, it was very unfair in the way it ended up
446 treating people who had crack cocaine as opposed to powder

447 cocaine.

448 So I had made the comment previously that it would be great 449 if we could have a bill that just fixed this gross disparity,
450 even the 18 to 1, and I am grateful to Mr. Jeffries for doing
451 exactly that. This was a very clean bill that did exactly what 452 the gentleman had indicated it would and that is why I am pleased 453 to be a cosponsor and very grateful that you have handled it this 454 way.

455 Chairman Nadler. Will the gentleman yield?

456 Mr. Gohmert. Certainly.

457 Chairman Nadler. Well, the gentleman is exactly right.
458 Charlie Rangel and other members of the Black Caucus did back
459 in the 1980s say that this was racist. They were wrong then and 460 they have admitted since then that they were wrong. I don't think 461 there is any single member of the Black Caucus, current or present, 462 who doesn't think, hasn't admitted that they would then hear their 463 mistake.

464 Mr. Gohmert. Reclaiming my time. So I applaud this. This 465 is the way we ought to be doing things. I like having one subject, 466 one bill, and we agree this does need to be fixed. So I thank 467 the chairman for bringing this to committee for markup and I am 468 very grateful for the way in which this was brought to the 469 committee.

470 Mr. Jeffries. Will the gentleman yield?

471 Mr. Gohmert. Certainly.

472 Mr. Jeffries. I want to thank the distinguished gentleman
473 from Texas. We had had this conversation informally, you and 474 Cedric Richmond, when he was a part of the committee, and we 475 appreciate your support and your commitment to dealing with this 476 issue. And I think the record is very clear. It was a bipartisan 477 failure. And as --

478 Mr. Gohmert. But you did it, and you made it happen. And 479 I am grateful for that. And the record should reflect you did
480 exactly what you said you were going to do and I am very grateful.

481 Mr. Jeffries. Thank you.

482 Mr. Gohmert. I yield back.

483 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back. For what 484 purpose does the gentleman from Rhode Island, Mr. Cicilline, seek 485 recognition?

486 Mr. Cicilline. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

487 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

488 Mr. Cicilline. I want to thank you, Mr. Chairman, for 489 bringing this bill to the committee and I want to thank my friend,
490 Chairman Jeffries, for introducing this vital and overdue
491 bipartisan and bicameral legislation.

492 In 1986, Congress passed the Anti-Drug Abuse Act. This law
493 unjustly drew a drastic distinction between crack cocaine and 494 powder cocaine, the same drug, just in a different form. That

495 distinction created a sentencing disparity of up to 100 to 1
496 meaning you needed 100 times the amount of powder cocaine than 497 crack cocaine to get the same sentence. We cannot overlook that 498 this difference, like many drug enforcement laws in our history,
499 created a highly disproportionate impact on communities of color
500 and there was no evidence-base rationale for this disparity.

501 After decades of advocates and experts fighting to change
502 the sentencing disparity, Congress finally acted in 2010 with 503 the Fair Sentencing Act which changed the disparity from 100 to 504 1 to 18 to 1. The First Step Act of 2018 made that change
505 retroactive. We finally took a step in the right direction, but 506 that wasn't enough. Just because 18 is lower than 100 doesn't 507 mean we made things fair. There is still a huge sentencing
508 disparity between crack and powder cocaine related offenses
509 today.

510 This vital legislation finally ends the discriminatory
511 sentencing disparity between crack and powder cocaine. It also 512 importantly allows for those commonly-serving sentences related 513 to crack cocaine to petition to have their sentences appropriately
514 reduced. Our prisons are overcrowded and lives are hurt every 515 day because of sentencing disparity and high sentencing minimums
516 for non-violent crimes in America. This is one step of the many 517 we need to take to change this horrible cycle.

518 I want to thank Chairman Jeffries for this important

519 legislation and I am proud to support it today and I urge my 520 colleagues to do the same. And with that, I yield back.

521 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back. For what 522 purpose does the gentleman from California, Mr. Issa, seek
523 recognition?

524 Mr. Issa. Strike the last word, Mr. Chairman.

525 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

526 Mr. Issa. Mr. Chairman, I think today is an extremely 527 important day for all of us who want to take away a talking point
528 which is real, which appropriately needs to be reduced. Like 529 you, I was here when we reduced from 100 to 1 to 18 to 1, recognizing 530 an extremely addictive drug, and one that that still has an adverse 531 effect on our community. But in fairness, if the debate continued
532 to be about the disparity between crack and powder cocaine, then 533 we are missing the point. The point is that the War on Drugs
534 is not over and to the extent that someone had called it a failed 535 war for purposes of reducing or eliminating the punishment and 536 the real effort to stop the illicit use of these dangerous drugs, 537 they missed the point.

538 Moving it to a one to one ratio, I believe is not 539 decriminalizing, nor would I support it if it is. Crack cocaine, 540 powder cocaine, the various opiates of all sorts including the 541 synthetics like fentanyl, continue to represent a threat to our 542 society and in fact, are to a great extent the cause of violence.

543 Legalizing these drugs or decriminalizing them would not in any 544 way, shape, or form, make our streets safer, our communities more 545 productive, or life better for the very people we speak about
546 today.

547 For that reason, the reason of wanting to make sure that 548 people have a confidence that it is not about one group over the 549 other, it is not about punishing one group based on their race
550 or the location that they are likely to live in, but rather a
551 recognition that these drugs are dangerous. These drugs need
552 to be stopped and people will be punished, but that punishment
553 will be equal to the suburban, well to do, powder user versus 554 the urban crack user, is a worthwhile effort.

555 So just as we did a decade ago, it is time to send that 556 message, the message that Congress takes the illicit use of these 557 drugs seriously, and wants to make sure that people believe that 558 the protection of the communities versus the punishment of those 559 who break the law is equal under the law. I support this 560 legislation. But again, I do not support this legislation
561 because it decriminalizes or because it is going to make the 562 sentences light. I support it because it is going to allow people
563 to get off the subject of somehow the disparity and on the subject
564 of the danger of cocaine, just as the danger of fentanyl and other 565 drugs are real and continue to have a detrimental effect on our 566 society.

567 So I hope that as we quickly pass this legislation, move
568 it to the President's desk, we will do so recognizing two things, 569 one, that we are still engaged in what will be a struggle for 570 all of our lives which is to keep our children from being hooked
571 on addictive drugs that diminish their ability to be productive;
572 and two, that we are not here to say that people are racist because 573 of what the law was.

574 As some of the other speakers have said, many of the people
575 who did this did so at a time of great strife in their communities.

576 I served with Charlie Rangel as many of us on the dais did.
577 I know that, in fact, he was dealing with a community that was 578 ravaged by crack cocaine and that he was doing what he thought
579 at the time was the best. If he were here today, I have no doubt
580 he would be leading the charge for this very change, but not 581 because he cared differently about his community, but because 582 the time for the message has changed, but not the time to continue 583 the struggle against illicit drugs that diminish the lives of 584 people in our community, whether the suburban, the rural, or the 585 urban.

586 Mr. Chairman, I thank you for bringing this legislation in 587 a timely fashion and yield back. Of course, I yield.

588 Ms. Jackson Lee. Let me just, quickly, with your assessment
589 of Mr. Rangel's advocacy, all of us knew him and the chairman
590 is right. But I do think it is important to take note that facts

591 change.

592 Crisis do not but facts change, and I believe Mr. Rangel, 593 a former U.S. Attorney -- Assistant U.S. Attorney -- was trying 594 to save lives as well as the Congressional Black Caucus.

595 We maintain that we are the conscious of the Congress as 596 it relates to these issues, and I can truly say that is where 597 his direction was.

598 This is now done by the gentleman from New York. I think 599 it's more than appropriate. But I think we should recognize the 600 times of that particular moment as related to crack cocaine.

601 We are now looking to equalize the issues and to treat drug
602 addiction in a totally different way.

603 I'd just conclude my remarks by saying we remember the War
604 on Drugs led by other persons, and we see that that did not work.

605 And so here we're trying to do what is right in 2021.

606 I thank you for allowing me to have the time. I yield back.

607 Mr. Issa. I thank the gentlelady and yield back.

608 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

609 For what purpose does Ms. Scanlon seek recognition?

610 Ms. Scanlon. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

611 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

612 Ms. Scanlon. The disparate sentencing between crack and 613 powder cocaine is a harmful remnant of the War on Drugs and it's 614 contributed to the mass incarceration we see across the country.

616 I'm thankful that national leadership and this Congress have 617 chosen to learn from history and correct the mistakes of the past,
618 in this case, the discriminatory sentencing disparities in crack
619 cocaine offenses, which turbo charged the rise in mass
620 incarceration.

621 We have made progress on this issue with the Fair Sentencing
622 Act and the First Step Act in recent years. But today, we can 623 go further.

624 Six years ago, I had the privilege to participate in the 625 Clemency 2014 Project, a joint initiative of the White House,
626 the Department of Justice, and a host of nonprofit organizations
627 across the ideological spectrum, ranging from the Koch Brothers
628 to Families Against Mandatory Minimums.

629 With that project, I joined private bar lawyers across the 630 country in screening thousands of case files of nonviolent
631 offenders who had been subjected to these unfair mandatory
632 minimums.

633 We filed hundreds of clemency petitions, and I was so pleased
634 to be part of an effort with my firm where we obtained clemency
635 for 29 individuals.

636 In representing those clients, the devastation of the drug 637 epidemic became clear, as did the fact that that devastation was 638 compounded by harsh sentences for nonviolent low-level offenders.

640 By representing these folks, by talking with them and their 641 families, we saw how it had destroyed their lives, destroyed their 642 families, destroyed their communities.

643 So now is the time to fully fix -- actually, it's past time
644 to fully fix this unjustified disparity once and for all,
645 especially for those still serving sentences based upon it.

646 Importantly, this bill is retroactive and allows those 647 harmed by this misguided policy to seek justice.

648 Thank you, Mr. Chairman and Mr. Jeffries, for putting forth
649 this critical legislation for our consideration today. I'm 650 looking forward to voting to pass the EQUAL Act out of committee
651 today and urge all of my colleagues to support the bill.

652 I yield back.

653 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

654 For what purpose does Mrs. Demings seek recognition?

655 Mrs. Demings. Move to strike the last word.

656 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

657 Mrs. Demings. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

658 As a former police chief, I joined the Major City Chiefs
659 Association in their support of this bipartisan legislation, the 660 EQUAL Act.

661 While we, as a nation, have come a long way, I, clearly,
662 understand that there is still much work to do and I am honored

663 that we are doing that work together on this day.

664 I served 27 years as an enforcer of the law, and now I have 665 the privilege of serving here with my colleagues in Congress
666 writing the laws. Accountability does matter.

667 But regardless of our political affiliation, as legislators
668 we share the awesome responsibility to eliminate, modify, tweak
669 any policy or practice that has a disparate impact on any group
670 of people.

671 I know, as a former law enforcement officer and a social 672 worker, that drug addiction has devastated many communities and 673 many families, and I look forward to in the future working together
674 to invest more resources in the treatment of individuals suffering
675 from this devastating disease.

676 But we must address sentencing disparities. Many 677 colleagues here today have already pointed out an individual
678 convicted of an offense involving five grams of crack cocaine
679 would face the same mandatory minimum sentence as an individual 680 convicted of a crime involving 500 grams of powdered cocaine.

682 We know that that is not right. I, clearly, hear the 683 concerns of my brothers and sisters of the National Association
684 of Police Organizations about violent crime. As a police chief, 685 the reduction of violent crime was my number-one priority.

686 But the disparities involving the mere possession of crack

687 versus powder cocaine must -- they must be addressed. Forty-one 688 states have already eliminated the sentencing disparities at the 689 state level.

690 Protecting Americans continues to be my top priority. The 691 rule of law and the proper application of the law clearly define 692 who we are as a nation. We can and we must rise up to meet this 693 moment.

694 I urge my colleagues to let's unanimously support this 695 legislation. I thank the gentleman from New York.

696 And with that, Mr. Chairman, I yield back.

697 Chairman Nadler. For what purpose -- the gentlelady yields
698 back.

699 For what purpose does Mr. Biggs seek recognition?

700 Mr. Biggs. Move to strike the last word.

701 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

702 Mr. Biggs. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

703 My only purpose is to submit for the record a letter dated
704 July 16th, 2021 from National Association of Police
705 Organizations, Inc.

706 Chairman Nadler. Without objection.

707 [The information follows:]

710 Mr. Biggs. Thank you. I yield back.

711 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

712 For what purpose does Mr. Cohen seek recognition?

713 Mr. Cohen. Strike the last word (simultaneous speaking)
714 past 20 years.

716 Mr. Cohen. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

717 When I walked in today I thought of Bill Murray and I thought
718 of it even more when I got here. The first person I saw on entering 719 Rayburn was Bob Goodlatte, the honorable, decent, good human being 720 Bob Goodlatte. And it was like Groundhog's Day seeing Bob walk
721 into the building.

722 And then to come to committee where he used to chair and 723 hear us discussing crack cocaine and who was racist and what is 724 racist, and the drug -- War on Drugs is even more Groundhog's
725 Day.

726 This War on Drugs is as much and, I would submit, a greater 727 failure than Afghanistan. If we can get out of Afghanistan, which 728 we have done, which I think is the right thing to do but it's 729 still going to be a detriment to the girls and the women of 730 Afghanistan and probably the many of the people who helped us
731 because we're not going to be able to get them out, wait until 732 the last minute to try to get them out, the people that helped 733 us as interpreters, translators, aides, et cetera, we can get

734 out of the War on Drugs, too.

735 But it will take a bipartisan effort. It'll take the 736 president to work with us. And it doesn't mean legalizing
737 everything. But it means seeing these things as social problems, 738 as mental health and physical health issues.

739 Sending somebody who's hooked on heroin or cocaine or some 740 other drug of that nature to jail is a waste of time and in error.
741 To get them help and treatment is the right thing to do.

742 This bill is long overdue. I remember when Bobby Scott, 743 and we worked to get it to 18 to 1. Well, 18 to 1 was not as 744 bad as a hundred but it was still wrong, and that was 10 years
745 ago, I think.

746 What Congressman Jeffries is doing and those of us who 747 co-sponsored are doing the right thing. But, unfortunately,
748 Congress is slow as molasses in getting things done right and 749 getting up to date and getting over cultural lag.

750 This is a cultural lag oasis, and this bill ends one of those 751 cultural lags. But another is having marijuana scheduled as 752 Schedule One. We have been talking about that the entire 15 years 753 I've been here and before, and that's just as insane and just 754 as much of a cultural lag.

755 Marijuana is not as dangerous as heroin and the other drugs
756 of which it's associated, and we need to deschedule it and get 757 it out of the federal jurisdiction.

758 You know, there was just a sprinter, Ms. Sha'Carri
759 Richardson, who was America's top 100-meter contestant to be in 760 the Olympics. Her mother died. She smoked some marijuana after 761 her mother's death because she was depressed and aggrieved.

762 She was in Oregon, a state where it's legal. But she had 763 it in her system because it stays in your system for give or take 764 20 days. And so the Olympic Committee said, no, she can't 765 compete. A lifelong dream that she had been working for for years
766 and years and years and she's not allowed to go to Tokyo.

767 Marijuana is not a performance-enhancing drug unless you're 768 entered in the Coney Island hot dog eating contest on the 4th
769 of July. To take her right to appear and her dream away from 770 her is absurd, and this Congress should see that we don't have 771 these problems in the future.

772 We deschedule marijuana. We leave it up to the states.
773 If she'd have got rip-roaring drunk on margaritas, Red Bull or 774 whatever else you drink out there these days -- lagers -- she'd 775 have been fine because it wouldn't have shown up in her system,
776 and if it had shown in her system -- if she'd have been .20 alcohol,
777 she still would have been allowed to run. But for marijuana,
778 and it could have been 20 days ago and just a puff or two, she's 779 gone.

780 So let's get real. The War on Drugs is a total failure.
781 Nancy Reagan was wrong. Everybody who followed her and the 782 others who said just say no were wrong because that wasn't 783 sufficient.

784 Let's pass this bill and let's decriminalize marijuana, and 785 let's get our people to where they are not being afflicted by 786 the cultural lag of the United States Congress.

787 Thank you. I yield back the balance of my time.

788 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

789 For what purpose does the gentlelady from Texas seek
790 recognition?

791 Ms. Jackson Lee. Chairman, I have an amendment at the desk.

792 Chairman Nadler. The clerk will report the amendment.

793 Ms. Fontenot. Amendment to the amendment in the nature of
795 strike lines 10 through 18.

796 Chairman Nadler. The amendment will be considered as read.

797 [The Amendment offered by Ms. Jackson Lee follows:]

799 COMMITTEE INSERT**

800 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized to explain
801 her amendment.

802 Ms. Jackson Lee. I thank the chairman. I move to strike
803 the last word.

804 This amendment, which focuses on H.R. 1693's retroactivity
805 provision makes technical but important changes to ensure that 806 our courts have the ability and discretion to efficiently decide 807 sentence reduction motions that are filed by or on behalf of 808 individuals who have been sentenced to crack cocaine offenses.

810 After we passed the Fair Sentencing Act and First Step Act,
811 federal courts were immediately bogged down in litigation
812 involving a range of technical and substantive issues about the 813 legislation.

814 This litigation led to circuit splits and considerable delay
815 for individuals seeking relief. The amendment, first, clarifies
816 that the EQUAL Act's retroactivity provision applies to 817 individuals that, in fact, who were sentenced to specific federal 818 offenses involving crack cocaine on or before the date of 819 enactment.

820 Second, it allows courts to decide and hold resentencing
821 hearings without the requirement that the defendant be present.

822 Rule 43 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure requires the 823 defendant is present at sentencing hearings. But resentencing

824 presents issues that are not generally implicated during the 825 initial sentencing process.

826 Specifically, defendants who are already serving sentences
827 are often incarcerated at federal facilities in states that are 828 far from the district in which they were sentenced.

829 This means that U.S. Marshals would have to transport
830 individuals for hearings in which relief may or may not be granted
831 by the court. Depending on the location, this transport could 832 take weeks, denying that particular incarcerated person their 833 rights.

834 By adding language that does not require the defendant's
835 presence, we will eliminate the burden on the marshals and 836 unnecessary litigation over a technical issue. This also allows 837 individuals seeking resentencing to receive a timely adjudication
838 of their motions.

839 We have already made a commitment as we support the EQUAL 840 Act that we live in an unfair system. As we proceed to 841 retroactively deal with re-sentencing, let's make it so these 842 incarcerated persons can get their just day, hopefully, their 843 fair day.

844 Third, the amendment adds to First Step Act's language
845 limiting the number of motions that can be made under the EQUAL 846 Act. This promotes judicial economy without diminishing the 847 ability for all affected by the crack cocaine disparity to be

848 heard and resentenced by courts in a timely manner. Again, 849 justice must prevail.

850 Finally, the amendment makes clear that courts have the 851 discretion to grant motions for a sentence reduction based on 852 the factors raised in 18 USC Section 3553(a). Sentencing courts 853 are in the best position to decide sentences based on all of the 854 factors before it.

855 We must ensure that we maintain a court's judicial discretion
856 and the mandate on courts to impose sentences that are sufficient 857 but are fair, just, and not greater than necessary under the 858 current law.

859 I believe that this represents the sentiment of most of the 860 members of this committee over the years.

861 With that, I ask my colleagues to support this amendment,
862 and I yield back.

863 Mr. Jordan. Mr. Chairman?

864 Chairman Nadler. For what purpose does the gentleman seek
865 recognition?

866 Mr. Jordan. To strike the last word.

867 I would just say I think -- I think the amendment makes sense
868 and is a good amendment, and I think our side will support that 869 and appreciate the gentlelady bringing it forward.

870 Ms. Jackson Lee. Thank you, Mr. --

871 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back, and I now

872 recognize myself to speak in support of the Jackson Lee amendment.

874 The amendment makes several important changes to the EQUAL
875 Act to strengthen the underlying legislation. It clarifies the 876 application of the Act's retroactivity provisions specifically
877 for crack cocaine offenses.

878 It also promotes judicial economy by not requiring 879 defendants to be present at resentencing, by incorporating the 880 First Step Act's limitation on successive motions, and by making 881 clear that courts have discretion deciding motions for 882 resentencing relief.

883 Making these changes will ensure that individuals affected
884 by the unjust sentencing disparity have a clear pathway for relief 885 and that our judicial system is not overburdened as courts fully 886 exercise their discretion to consider motions for thousands of 887 individuals who have been waiting year after year for the relief
888 provided by the EQUAL Act.

889 I thank Chairwoman Lee for offering the amendment. I thank 890 Mr. Jordan for supporting it, and I urge my colleagues to support 891 it as well.

892 I yield back.

893 For what purpose does Mr. Raskin seek recognition?

894 Mr. Raskin. I move to strike the last word, Mr. Chairman.

895 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

896 Mr. Raskin. I rise in very strong favor of Mr. Jeffries'
897 legislation and I just want to salute him on the EQUAL Act, which 898 eliminates that 18 to 1 sentencing disparity between powder
899 cocaine and crack cocaine offenses, which itself, of course, was 900 an improvement over the 100 to 1 sentencing disparity embodied
901 in the 1986 Anti-Drug Abuse Act.

902 And it's especially gratifying to see, you know, such broad 903 bipartisan support across the aisle for doing this, and I just 904 wanted to take a moment to observe that we are all recognizing 905 that this is an unjust disparity built into the law that has clear 906 racially disproportionate effects.

907 But it was not undertaken with any deliberate racist motive,
908 all of which is to say that the law can operate in a way that 909 adversely affects racial minority groups even if the law is not 910 adopted with a specific invidious purpose of discriminating
911 against them.

912 So it's a good teaching and learning moment for all of us,
913 and I'm glad that we're moving forward to make the law much more 914 equal and much more fair, regardless of where you stand on the 915 underlying question of the War on Drugs.

916 And I yield back to you, Mr. Chairman.

917 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

918 For what purpose does Ms. Dean seek recognition?

919 Ms. Dean. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

920 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

921 Ms. Dean. I, too, rise in support of the underlying 922 legislation as well as the amendment offered by the gentlelady
923 from Texas.

924 This is a remarkable day. It's terrific to hear legislators
925 recognizing the disparate impact -- the unfair unjust impact of 926 former legislation. It's always the right time to correct what 927 was a mistake of the past.

928 This morning, I lend my unwavering support to the EQUAL Act.
929 I recognize the importance of speaking truth to power when we 930 discuss both addiction and racist sentencing disparities that 931 have cast a shadow on the United States since the beginning of 932 the so-called War on Drugs.

933 During multiple hearings, I've spoken to the failure that 934 the War on Drugs in the United States has imposed and commend
935 the committee, Chairman Nadler, you, for bringing up this 936 important bill to markup.

937 I echo the leadership of Representative Jeffries in 938 highlighting the unjust sentencing disparities between crack
939 cocaine and powder cocaine, a disparity not supported by criminal 940 justice, not supported by science, and only supported by racial 941 disparities that continue to be present within our criminal 942 justice system.

943 Our criminal justice system currently is not a

944 one-size-fits-all system. For far too long, the United States
945 has relied on a system of over criminalization in which we overused 946 and misused criminal law to address societal harms that could 947 be more effectively handled through civil channels or other 948 institutions.

949 We have to deal with the issue of addiction and not simply 950 criminalize it. This is evidenced by the nation's present
951 incarcerated population, which, sadly, boasts of approximately 952 2.3 million people.

953 This bill is an important first step to address the unjust
954 War on Drugs through its important retroactivity provisions made 955 stronger by this amendment.

956 I look forward to a future where drug addiction is addressed
957 in a manner supported by science and health, decriminalization
958 and compassion for those who suffer from this disease.

959 I urge my colleagues in this House to lend your support to 960 the overdue bill, and I yield back the balance of my time, Mr.
961 Chairman.

962 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

963 For what purpose -- the question occurs on the Jackson Lee 964 amendment to the amendment in the nature of a substitute.

965 All in favor say aye.

966 Opposed?

967 The ayes, obviously, have it.

968 Are there any further amendments to the amendment in the 969 nature of a substitute?

970 Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Chair?

971 Chairman Nadler. Who seeks recognition?

972 For what purpose does Mr. Fitzgerald seek recognition?

973 Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Chair, I have an amendment at the desk.

974 Ms. Jackson Lee. Point of order.

975 Chairman Nadler. The point of order is reserved.

976 The clerk will report the amendment.

977 Ms. Fontenot. Amendment to the amendment in the nature of 978 a substitute to H.R. 1693 offered by Mr. Fitzgerald of Wisconsin.

979 Add at the end the following (d) fentanyl or fentanyl analog
980 cases. Nothing in this section --

981 Chairman Nadler. The amendment will be considered as read.

982 [The Amendment offered by Mr. Fitzgerald follows:]

984 COMMITTEE INSERT**

985 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized in support
986 of his amendment.

987 Mr. Fitzgerald. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

988 Good bill before us today, and a good amendment that we just 989 adopted. Has everything kind of moving in the right direction.

990 I think I have something that I would hope that members of 991 the committee would consider. I just returned from McAllen, 992 Texas, last week with Representative Biggs, and we had an 993 opportunity not only to meet with Border Patrol and observe a 994 lot of things that, quite honestly, were surprising to me or 995 shocking to me, having not been to the border before in that 996 context.

997 But the one thing we heard from Homeland Security is kind
998 of the methods they used or the approach they used to continue
999 to catch most of the narcotics that they could, in fact, by design
1000 come up with a strategy to capture that are making their way across 1001 the border right now at an alarming rate.

1002 And there were some percentages thrown out where only 20
1003 percent of maybe what's coming across is actually being 1004 apprehended. The major discussion was -- again, it is 1005 interesting to hear some of the comments -- but, you know, a lot
1006 of it that was being captured was marijuana, cocaine, and 1007 Fentanyl. Fentanyl, fentanyl, fentanyl.

1008 And, you know, so I know there was some discussion here about

1009 the War on Drugs. But, unfortunately, America is not fighting
1010 the War on Drugs in a vacuum. There are so many other global 1011 influences on what's happening here.

1012 We know that the components of fentanyl are being
1013 manufactured in China, making their way to many different parts
1014 of South America, and then the fentanyl comes across.

1015 And there was a couple of anecdotal stories, but the one
1016 I just wanted to relay was there was a bachelor party where four 1017 guys were smoking pot and, unfortunately, that pot was laced with 1018 Fentanyl and one of the individuals died and three of them ended 1019 up in the hospital.

1020 So, you know, what's being dismissed, I think, as, you know,
1021 don't worry about it, it's just a few people smoking pot, that 1022 is not necessarily the case.

1023 The Mexican cartels, they continue. They have full control
1024 over the production and supply of fentanyl into the U.S. and,
1025 you know, if you talk to law enforcement they're going to tell 1026 you, you know, this stuff is so deadly and so available, it's 1027 the new front that we need to fight on a regular basis.

1028 So the amendment I have before the committee today would 1029 simply, you know, once again, incorporate the idea that fentanyl
1030 should be a Schedule One drug, and we're working on that with 1031 the SOFA Act, and we need to close any of these loopholes that,
1032 I think, currently exist.

1033 And, like I said, good bill before us today. Great bill.
1034 Great bill. It is going to tackle something that's very complex,
1035 and I think that Representative Jackson's amendment makes it 1036 better.

1037 And I think this also would not only, I think, do that, and 1038 if we were going to have a bill later on that was going to deal 1039 with the fentanyl issue, great. Okay. Let's do that.

1040 But, you know, it's here. We're here this morning. We're 1041 tackling something that's bipartisan. We all know that this is 1042 a major issue, and I think that this amendment would make this 1043 bill much better.

1044 And who would oppose it once we get out of this committee?
1045 I mean, I can't believe that there would be anybody that would 1046 dismiss this as not necessary.

1047 If you talk -- if you talk to your local law enforcement,
1048 they're going to tell you it's here. It's not -- it's not 1049 something that's coming. It's here on our doorstep.

1050 Let's do something about it right here this morning. Let's
1051 close this down. Let's give law enforcement the tools they need 1052 to fight this deadly drug that's now here in America.

1053 And I yield back.

1054 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

1055 Does the gentlelady insist on a point of order?

1056 Ms. Jackson Lee. Mr. Chairman, I withdraw my point of order.

1057 Chairman Nadler. Point of order is withdrawn.

1058 [Pause.]

1059 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady withdraws the point of 1060 order.

1061 I recognize myself in opposition to the amendment. The 1062 amendment is, clearly, well intended. But it is not -- it is 1063 not necessary, and I am concerned that someone may read -- that 1064 the amendment may be read incorrectly, that it may be read as 1065 limiting the application of the bill in a way that we wouldn't 1066 want it limited.

1067 So I would oppose it, although I really don't think it --
1068 and I don't think it's necessary. It might be misread.

1069 So on those grounds I'd oppose it. I yield back.

1070 Does anyone else seek recognition on this amendment?

1071 Mr. Jeffries. Mr. Chairman?

1072 Move to strike the last word.

1073 Yeah. No, I appreciate the spirit in which the 1074 distinguished gentleman has offered this amendment and,
1075 certainly, look forward to working with him on some of these issues
1076 and challenges related to fentanyl.

1077 I think, as the distinguished gentleman from Texas, Mr.
1078 Gohmert, indicated, our objective here was to deal with this issue
1079 of the sentencing disparity involving crack cocaine and powder
1080 cocaine in the cleanest possible way.

1081 And it's for that reason that I oppose the amendment, but 1082 I appreciate the spirit in which it has been offered.

1083 Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Chairman?

1084 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

1085 Does the gentleman yield back?

1086 The gentleman yields back.

1087 For what purpose does Mr. Jordan seek recognition?

1088 Mr. Jordan. Well, I'd strike last word, Mr. Chairman.

1089 This is as simple as it gets. I mean, as the gentleman from 1090 Wisconsin just -- it's a one-sentence amendment that says we all 1091 know fentanyl is bad. Let's make sure we keep it that way and 1092 deal with it in the appropriate fashion.

1093 It's straightforward. If the chairman thinks it's -- I 1094 don't see where the chairman could think it is not necessary to 1095 state what we all know is obvious in a plain and straightforward
1096 amendment dealing with the substance that is wreaking havoc in 1097 so many of our communities in every one of our districts.

1098 So why not err on the side of making sure we deal with 1099 something in the best way possible, particularly a drug of this 1100 -- a dangerous drug like this that has done so much harm to so 1101 many communities?

1102 With that, unless the gentleman from Wisconsin would like 1103 some time.

1104 Mr. Cohen. Would the gentleman yield?

1105 Mr. Jordan. I'd be happy to yield to the gentleman from 1106 Wisconsin, then I'll yield to the gentleman from Tennessee, if 1107 that -- if there's time left.

1108 Mr. Fitzgerald. Thank you. Thank you to the ranking
1109 member. I mean, we know that, you know, maybe we were in a
1110 territory where there was a question of germaneness. That's why
1111 we drafted an amendment to the amendment to kind of clear that 1112 up.

1113 I think we're -- I think we're really in good shape right
1114 now, and I can't -- I can't understand why we wouldn't just 1115 simply take care of this right now. It makes -- it makes no
1116 sense to me. I mean, I understand, you know, people get kind
1117 of protective of their own piece of legislation and they don't 1118 want it amended and they don't want it maybe off the target.

1119 But I mean, this is all I heard about at the border, was 1120 fentanyl and the deadliness of it and the effect it's having on 1121 this country. And like I said earlier, if there was a bill coming 1122 down the pike that dealt with just that issue, great, let's take 1123 that up. But I'm unaware of that. And here it is before us this 1124 morning.

1125 Again, Mr. Chair, I'm not sure why we -- why we wouldn't 1126 tackle this right now. I yield back to the ranking member. Yield
1127 to the gentleman from Tennessee.

1128 Mr. Cohen. Thank you, Mr. Jordan. And the question really

1129 is directed to anybody who can answer it. I don't see how this 1130 relates to the bill we've got before us. It changes crack and 1131 cocaine, it deals with crack and cocaine.

1132 I'm all against fentanyl, but this bill doesn't relate to 1133 fentanyl and it doesn't change anything to do with fentanyl.
1134 It doesn't make the sentences less. I see it. It doesn't change
1135 them, it has nothing to do with fentanyl.

1136 So if somebody can tell my why this fits and if we do it
1137 what difference it'll make in the world. I mean, I'm all against 1138 fentanyl. I'll be for all the anti-fentanyl, anti-heroin,
1139 anti-buggery, anti whatever bills you want to bring. But what 1140 does it got to do with this bill?

1141 Mr. Jordan. Well, I think the Chairman already answered
1142 that question, said it was germane, and it deals with a very 1143 important issue that is confronting our country, confronting our 1144 nation, confronting every single neighborhood. And that's why
1145 the gentleman from Wisconsin brought this amendment forward.

1146 Be happy to yield to the gentleman from Ohio.

1147 Mr. Chabot. I thank the gentleman for yielding. I won't 1148 take a lot of time but I mean, I thank the -- I thank the 1149 gentleman for offering this very constructive amendment, I
1150 believe.

1151 And this has been a pretty bipartisan markup here, and I
1152 think we're for the most part on the same time -- on the same

1153 side on this. We're trying to do what's here. And I think what's 1154 fair would be to include the gentleman's amendment in this.

1155 Fentanyl is killing thousands and thousands of Americans
1156 all across the country in all of our districts. I know it is 1157 in my district. And the thing that's so deadly about it is 1158 oftentimes people, let's face it, shouldn't be ingesting or 1159 smoking or however they're taking the drugs to begin with, but 1160 some do. And many aren't aware that it's been laced with 1161 fentanyl.

1162 And there are analogs and so the bad guys who've been able 1163 to get around the traditional fentanyl by just modifying it in 1164 a slight manner molecularly, which makes it tough for the laws
1165 to actually apply in every case, makes it tough for prosecutors.

1166 And we've worked on that issue in a bipartisan manner for some 1167 time.

1168 But it's killing thousands and thousands of Americans. And 1169 I guess it's -- it would be more convenient just to ignore it
1170 altogether in this hearing. Why? Well, maybe because for 1171 example it's coming in from our greatest rival, China, and 1172 competitor, some would say enemy.

1173 But it's coming from there, and much of it is coming across 1174 a border which was pretty secure for quite some time because of 1175 the work of the previous administration, and the Congress to some 1176 extent. Which now is a tremendous crisis now, the Biden crisis

1177 at our southern border. It's coming across there and killing 1178 Americans.

1179 But I think if I had that record, I wouldn't want to talk
1180 about this either. So thank you to the gentleman for offering
1181 it, and I yield back.

1182 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman's time has expired. For 1183 what purpose does Ms. Jackson Lee seek recognition?

1184 Ms. Jackson Lee. Mr. Chairman, thank you, I'd like to strike
1185 the last word.

1186 Let me associate myself with Mr. Chabot's remarks that this 1187 legislation and this discussion has been enormously bipartisan.

1188 And I take the words of the ranking member seriously. I withdrew 1189 my objection. I think the gentleman from New York, the proponent
1190 of this legislation, has a very pointed remark.

1191 What I would say to you is that I think if we did a poll,
1192 I am assured that everyone would be opposed to fentanyl. It
1193 kills. So the Chairman, ranking member, and to the proponent
1194 of the amendment, let's let our committee and our subcommittee
1195 is very interested in this issue.

1196 And I would make the argument that we could work together
1197 on the question of fentanyl in a more extensive way that would 1198 not, if you will, steer us away from the intent and mindset of 1199 the EQUAL Act.

1200 I think it's important for us to address fentanyl on its

1201 two weak and wicked legs, and that is clearly what it is. It
1202 is a killer. And so I'd extend to the gentleman the opportunity
1203 to work together on a focused legislation, a focused opportunity 1204 to deal with fentanyl.

1205 We have not taken that up yet. We've had some other issues
1206 of course on our side of the aisle about increased mass
1207 incarceration. But we have no opposition for the deadliness of 1208 fentanyl.

1209 So I would indicate that I am in opposition to its present
1210 submission as an amendment, but to the ranking member Mr. Jordan
1211 and his point, Mr. Chabot's point about bipartisanship on this
1212 legislation, I can say to you that we could work on this matter
1213 in our subcommittee. And we'd be happy to work with the gentleman
1214 on that question at this time.

1215 With that, I will yield back my time, or yield to the 1216 gentleman on it. If not, I'll yield back.

1217 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back. Is there any 1218 further discussion of this amendment? For what purpose does Mr.
1219 Roy seek recognition?

1220 Mr. Roy. Move to strike the last word.

1221 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

1222 Mr. Roy. Thank the Chairman. I certainly don't want to 1223 rain on the bipartisan parade. I'll have a little bit more to 1224 talk about it in a minute about my concerns and disagreement with 1225 the underlying legislation.

1226 But with respect to the amendment, I do believe that the 1227 amendment has merit. I would recognize that it is, you know,
1228 not directly on point with respect to cocaine specifically and 1229 the purpose of the underlying bill.

1230 However, given the extent to which fentanyl is in fact laced
1231 into numerous narcotics, notably cocaine, I do believe it's 1232 important to make that very clear that nothing would, you know, 1233 negatively impact the ability of law enforcement to be able to 1234 go after those that are peddling, distributing fentanyl.

1235 And right now, we do in fact have a crisis of epic proportions
1236 relating to fentanyl. And I think it's, you know, what we do 1237 as a body matters. What we do in terms of messaging matters.

1239 I think saying that whatever the result is of this debate
1240 on the crack powder disparity and what that means with respect
1241 to punishing those who peddle crack or cocaine, which I'll have 1242 more to say about in a minute, we should be very clear that the 1243 distribution of fentanyl, which is decimating our young and 1244 decimating thousands of Americans directly as a consequence of 1245 why the open borders. Which is literally not able to be refuted, 1246 right. It's just, it's factual.

1247 Right, why did Governor DeSantis send resources to Texas?

1248 In his speech he made very clear, because of the opioid problem

1249 throughout this country. Oh, no, we can laugh all day long about
1250 open borders and laugh all day long about the impact on Texas
1251 right now, today, with fentanyl pouring into Texas while my 1252 colleagues on the other side of the aisle don't give a whit, not 1253 one whit about what's happening to Texans today, right now, in 1254 south Texas.

1255 Right now, ranches getting overrun. Right now, human
1256 trafficking, right now sex trafficking. Right now a little girl
1257 being moved up I-35 because we don't secure the border. And right
1258 now, some child in Texas dying because of an abuse, an overdose
1259 of fentanyl.

1260 Now, I understand the argument here about the connection
1261 to the underlying bill, I get that. But I would note that when 1262 we're talking about the extent to which prosecutors have to go
1263 about their job in the U.S. Attorney's Office and make decisions
1264 about prosecuting, I think it would be great if this body in the 1265 context of talking about how we're prosecuting cocaine offenses
1266 could at least acknowledge the extent to which it often laced
1267 with fentanyl.

1268 And we want to be very clear that when people are distributing 1269 fentanyl, that we are going to go after them. And that we are 1270 going to go after them with the full force of the law because 1271 it is so extraordinarily damaging and dangerous.

1272 And again, I'll have more to say in a minute on the actual 1273 underlying bill. But I'm not going to be a part of hopping on 1274 this pendulum swinging back away from criminal justice while Joe 1275 Biden runs away, runs away from his very efforts to make sure

1276 that we are responding to the crimes in the 1980s and responding
1277 to the scourge and the dangers that was occurring in inner city
1278 America and throughout the United States.

1279 And now, the President, for political purposes, runs away
1280 from the very legislation that he put forward in order to try 1281 to attack the dangers that was occurring to people throughout 1282 our country while we saw the increases that resulted from the 1283 expansion of crack cocaine in 1986. We all know the history of 1284 that and we've seen the history of that.

1285 And now today, we're seeing a history and a moment where 1286 fentanyl is pouring into our border through the Southwest region
1287 of the United States for very obvious reasons because we will 1288 not actually secure the border. And that we are not going to 1289 say, ho, we're not going to even talk about it here as we talk
1290 about winding back and pulling back from our obligation to ensure 1291 that we're enforcing the law against those who peddle these 1292 dangerous substances.

1293 With that I --

1294 Mr. Johnson of Louisiana. Will the gentleman yield? Will 1295 the gentleman yield, Mr. Roy?

1296 Mr. Roy. I will yield to the gentleman from Louisiana.

1297 Mr. Johnson of Louisiana. With his 40 seconds that are left 1298 I'll be brief. I'd echo and identify myself with everything he 1299 just said. This is a crisis.

1300 And here's the point, to answer Mr. Cohen, if it is in fact
1301 not related, as you say, I think the benefit of this amendment
1302 far outweighs the risk of saying something that may be 1303 superfluous. All it says is nothing in this section shall apply
1304 to an offense involving fentanyl, which is what you just said
1305 is already obvious.

1306 Well, why not put it in the language of the bill? There's 1307 no risk in doing that. And if there is indeed a nexus between 1308 cocaine products and them laced or mixed with fentanyl, it 1309 directly relates. It's certainly germane, and it ought to be 1310 a part of legislation.

1311 So I lend my voice of support to it and I yield back.

1312 Mr. Massie. I yield back.

1313 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back. The question
1314 occurs on the amendment to the amendment in the nature by Mr.
1315 Fitzgerald. All in favor, say aye,

1316 (Chorus of aye.)

1317 Chairman Nadler. Opposed, no.

1418 Mr. Massie.
1419 Mr. Massie. Aye.
1420 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Massie votes aye.
1421 Mr. Roy.
1422 Mr. Roy. Aye.
1423 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Roy votes aye.
1424 Mr. Bishop.
1425 Mr. Bishop. Yes.
1426 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Bishop votes yes. Ms. Fischbach.
1427 Ms. Fischbach. Aye.
1428 Ms. Fontenot. Ms. Fischbach votes aye.
1429 Ms. Spartz.
1430 Mrs. Spartz. Yes.
1431 Ms. Fontenot. Ms. Spartz votes yes. Mr. Fitzgerald.
1432 Mr. Fitzgerald. Aye.
1433 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Fitzgerald votes aye.
1434 Mr. Bentz. Mr. Owens.
1435 Mr. Owens. Aye.
1436 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Owens votes aye.
1437 Mr. Cohen. Mr. Chairman, how am I recorded?
1438 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Cohen, you are recorded as aye.
1439 Mr. Cohen. That was a mistake. I should be no.
1440 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Cohen votes no.

1441 Chairman. Nadler. Mr. Issa.

1442 Mr. Issa. Mr. Chairman, how am I recorded?

1443 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Issa votes aye.

1444 Mr. Gaetz. Gaetz?

1445 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Gaetz, you are not recorded.

1446 Mr. Gaetz. I'd like to vote aye.

1447 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Gaetz votes aye.

1448 Chairman Nadler. Ms. McBath.

1449 Mrs. McBath. McBath votes no.

1450 Ms. Fontenot. Ms. McBath votes no.

1451 Chairman Nadler. Are there any other members who wish to 1452 be recorded who haven't been recorded? The Clerk will report.

1453 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Chairman, there are 17 ayes and 23 noes.

1454 Chairman Nadler. The amendment is not agreed to.

1455 Are there any other amendments to the amendment in the nature

1456 of a substitute? For what purpose does Ms. Jackson Lee seek

1457 recognition?

1458 Ms. Jackson Lee. Mr. Chairman, you will be glad that I do

1459 not have another amendment, but I do want to acknowledge two guests

1460 that are in the room with us temporarily.

1461 And in the spirit of bipartisanship and the hard work of

1462 Congresswoman Bass, I want to acknowledge Alissa Findlay,

1463 President of the Botham Jean Foundation. Her brother met an

1464 untimely death by law enforcement. And Dr. Tiffany Crutcher,

1465 Executive Director of the Terence Crutcher Foundation. Her
1466 brother as well.

1467 They are here to add support to the judiciary work that we're 1468 doing, both in terms of the George Floyd Justice in Policing Act, 1469 which I hope will be bipartisan continuing, and H.R. 40, because 1470 Dr. Crutcher is a resident of Greenwood, Oklahoma, Tulsa, 1471 Oklahoma. And of course we know the Greenwood massacre and the 1472 idea of reparations, and she is here supporting H.R. 40 and the 1473 work that this committee is doing.

1474 We thank you, Mr. Chairman, for the work that you're doing,
1475 and Congresswoman Bass. And we just wanted to welcome them here
1476 for Oklahoma and from -- Florida? New York. Thank you very 1477 much.

1478 Chairman Nadler. The Chair extends the welcome on behalf
1479 of the Committee.

1480 The question -- for what purpose does Mr. Roy seek
1481 recognition?

1482 Mr. Roy. Move to strike the last word.

1483 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

1484 Mr. Roy. Mr. Chairman, I appreciate the opportunity. When 1485 I first came to the Hill as a staffer in 2003, I worked on the 1486 Senate Judiciary Committee and came to know then-Senator Jeff
1487 Sessions fairly well, along with his staff. And obviously 1488 Senator Sessions went on to become the Attorney General of the

1489 United States.

1490 Senator Sessions is fairly well known for his efforts and 1491 belief as a former United States Attorney and prosecutor to take 1492 the 100 to one ratio and reduce it and introduce legislation along 1493 those lines to do it. And I had many conversations with Senator
1494 Sessions at the time asking him why, learning as a young lawyer, 1495 and talking to his staff about it. And came to the belief that 1496 the 100 to one disparity probably was in fact out of whack, and 1497 that we should make changes to that end.

1498 And there are number of Republicans who worked with Democrats
1499 across the aisle to do that. Obviously we saw a change in 20
1500 -- I think it was, and my history is a little vague here because 1501 I wasn't on the Hill at the time, but 2010, '11, '12, when we 1502 came into the Obama Administration. And then we saw that 1503 reduction from 100 to one to 18 to one.

1504 I do believe that that is a step in the right direction and 1505 a good thing to try to get to the right place. But let's remember 1506 why, let's remember why we embraced these changes in the 80s and 1507 the 90s. The levels of crime that we were seeing in our cities
1508 were at extraordinary levels.

1509 And it was in fact the Black community that came to Congress
1510 in large numbers, clergy, activists, organizations, asking for 1511 Congress to take action because of the highly addictive nature
1512 of crack cocaine, the highly negative impact on communities of 1513 crack cocaine.

1514 And so this was what the genesis of that was. And there
1515 was massive bipartisan efforts at the time, massive bipartisan 1516 agreement at the time. These are irrefutable facts. That's 1517 exactly what occurred.

1518 The question then becomes today what do we do. And as we 1519 look today at significant rising crime, significant increases
1520 of crime in our communities, when we look today at the -- the 1521 website of the Justice Department about gangs, gang violence has 1522 risen sharply, especially in large cities.

1523 There's a whole section in this section on the Department
1524 of Justice website of the nexus and the connection from gang
1525 activity to crack cocaine still today. The extent to which this 1526 is a massive problem in the communities.

1527 I then went back and looked at what Attorney General Sessions
1528 was talking about with respect to crime when he took over as 1529 Attorney General. This man who had spent a great deal of his 1530 life as Senator trying to deal with the disparity issue, which 1531 we all recognized needed to be dealt with.

1532 And when he got, and he talks about this -- drug trafficking
1533 is an inherently violent business. If you want to collect a drug 1534 debt, you can't and don't file a lawsuit in court, you collect
1535 it by the barrel of a gun. And for the approximately then 52,000
1536 Americans who died of a drug overdose in 2015, drug trafficking

1537 was a deadly business.

1538 We are now well past 52,000 drug overdoses in our country
1539 as we see the opioid epidemic raging. He wrote then, "My fear
1540 is that this surge in violent crime is not a blip but the start
1541 of a dangerous new trend, one that puts at risk the hard-won gains
1542 that have made our country a safer place."

1543 I would just say to this committee how short our memories
1544 are as we now watch what is occurring throughout our country and 1545 the significant increase in crime, the significant problems that 1546 we see. I do not want to be a part of hamstringing our law
1547 enforcement community and the U.S. Attorney's Office and 1548 prosecutors for being able to go after the baddest actors.

1549 Never in my time in the Office of the U.S. Attorney did I
1550 ever go try to lock up under federal law somebody who was, you
1551 know, smoking a joint behind the bleachers at a football game, 1552 right. We were going after the worst actors, the ones that the 1553 state came to us and said hey, this guy or this gal is a really 1554 bad actor, and here's why.

1555 And you sit down and you work with law enforcement to do
1556 that. And then you look at what you've got and you look at the 1557 penalties in front of you, and then you go make a decision to 1558 go prosecute the worst offenders.

1559 I can talk chapter and verse about federalism. I've 1560 supported some of the laws about, you know, let's defer to the

1561 states on their moves to make decisions about marijuana, for 1562 example. Crack cocaine and powder cocaine, these are lethal,
1563 dangerous drugs. And we want to talk about disparity, I'm happy 1564 to talk about bringing down the powder numbers, if we want to 1565 talk about something to further discuss disparity.

1566 But in my view, changing this by just a one-way ratchet of 1567 taking the 28 grams and going up, I think that's a problem. I 1568 think it'll hamstring our United States Attorneys from being able 1569 to go after the worst actors in our country. And for that reason,
1570 I will ask for a roll call vote, and I will vote no.

1571 I yield back to the Chairman.

1572 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back. For what 1573 purpose does Ms. Bush seek recognition? For what purpose does 1574 -- for what purpose does Ms. Bush seek recognition? You're 1575 muted.

1576 Ms. Bush. Can you hear me? I move to strike the last word.

1577 Chairman Nadler. Now we can, now we can.

1578 Ms. Bush. All right. St. Louis and I thank you, Chairman
1579 Nadler. It has been a longstanding commitment from me and our 1580 St. Louis community to remedy the anti-Blackness and 1581 dehumanization that have informed crack cocaine disparities and 1582 allowed our criminal legal system to sentence thousands of people
1583 to mandatory minimum prison sentences.

1584 Growing up in St. Louis, I saw the crack cocaine epidemic

1585 rob my community of so many lives. I lived through a malicious 1586 drug war that saw Black people arrested and incarcerated for 1587 possession at a much higher rate than our White counterparts.

1588 As a nurse, I've watched Black patients be criminalized for crack
1589 use while White patients are treated for cocaine use.

1590 The vicious drug war that has prioritized punishment over 1591 treatment, violence over healing, and trauma over dignity has 1592 influenced and affected all of our lives. Our jails were not 1593 originally proposed to be treatment centers, and yet our jails
1594 have become some of the largest substance use treatment centers
1595 in America.

1596 People with a history of substance use are being sent to 1597 jails that are in no way equipped to treat their trauma or 1598 addiction. This is a public health crisis.

1599 Too often drug offenses are born out of poverty. The system
1600 allows those with wealth to more easily escape the trauma of police 1601 raids, civil asset forfeiture, and mandatory minimums because 1602 they can afford top-notch treatment or they have been given a 1603 second chance, while the rest of the country is left to hurt in 1604 silence.

1605 Today's consideration of the EQUAL Act is long overdue.
1606 Congress should never have imposed this inequity in the first 1607 place. For 35 years, rather than treat drug use, we've 1608 criminalized and stigmatized it. Too many times lives have been 1609 destroyed. Far too many families have been destabilized. And 1610 we talk about building families.

1611 And thousands of children have grown up without their parents
1612 because our prison systems have taken the place of treatment and 1613 wrap-around care. That's the devastation caused by the crack
1614 cocaine sentencing disparity, an ongoing trauma I've seen
1615 first-hand.

1616 I am compelled to support this legislation because the EQUAL
1617 Act will eliminate the disparity between crack and powder cocaine
1618 altogether and make the change retroactive, providing an 1619 opportunity for redress to those serving excessively long
1620 sentences due to this disparity.

1621 Rarely do we have legislation that not only addresses these 1622 issues, but is committed to redressing the decades of abuse and 1623 the violence this inequity have caused. I applaud my colleagues 1624 on this committee for advancing this important legislation that 1625 will undoubtedly help save thousands of lives.

1626 We must ensure this bill is not just passed, but signed into 1627 law. And that we also right the wrongs that this racist
1628 sentencing disparity have caused. This bill puts us one step
1629 closer to reducing the harms caused by a deeply carceral and 1630 punitive approach to public safety. It's long past time for it 1631 to end.

1632 I move to submit into the record a letter written by the

1633 Leadership Conference and the ACLU that discusses the importance
1634 of this legislation and how powerful it is that we have a 1635 legislation that addresses this issue retroactively.

1636 Chairman Nadler. Without objection.

1637 Ms. Bush. And I yield back.

1638 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back. For what 1639 purpose does the gentleman from Colorado seek recognition?

1640 Mr. Buck. Strike the last word.

1641 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

1642 Mr. Buck. I am opposed to this legislation and would just 1643 tell the gentleman from New York that if he proposed legislation
1644 that increased the penalties for powder cocaine 18 times to have 1645 -- to eliminate the disparity between these two drugs, I would 1646 welcome that.

1647 And I wonder sometimes where my colleagues, what world
1648 they're living in. At what point in time do we start speaking 1649 for the victims of crime on this committee and stop talking about 1650 mass incarceration and stop talking about racist implications
1651 of these -- the laws that are passed?

1652 What I saw, over and over again, were dead bodies from drug
1653 overdoses, from murders. My friends, the talk about these, you
1654 know, jails and prisons being used as drug rehab centers, jails
1655 and prisons are used to incarcerate people who commit murder,
1656 who commit armed robbery, who commit burglaries and commit a whole

1657 slew of violent crimes. And they are -- the people that are 1658 in there are often drug addicts, and they are driven to commit
1659 these violent crimes because of their addiction.

1660 Yes, we should be treating those addictions in prison. But 1661 we should be incarcerating people that commit these serious
1662 crimes. To pretend that we can somehow wave a wand and do away
1663 with violent crime is just crazy. We have to recognize that there 1664 is a direct link between the addictive nature of a drug and the 1665 other crimes that are being committed.

1666 Crack cocaine is different than powder cocaine. It is more
1667 addictive than powder cocaine. To treat it the same as powder 1668 cocaine is a mistake. It was reduced from 100 to one to 18 to 1669 one because much of the violence in our inner cities was reduced
1670 as a result of putting people away.

1671 And to suggest that criminals don't understand what the law
1672 is is a mistake. I prosecuted across the river crack cocaine
1673 cases where mules were bringing these drugs up from Florida.
1674 And they had exactly one gram less than the mandatory minimum
1675 amount so that they wouldn't be caught in that particular law.

1677 Criminals know the law very well, and it acts as a deterrent.

1678 When we do away with laws like this, we do away with the deterrent
1679 effect of these laws. We see an increasing amount of violent 1680 crime in this country because we are not taking these drugs

1681 seriously enough.

1682 People talk about the war on drugs has failed. And I don't 1683 know that it's failed because we have too few drug rehab programs, 1684 which I'm absolutely in favor of. We reduced the crime rate in 1685 my judicial district while I was an elected district attorney
1686 with drug rehab programs. They're absolutely essential.

1687 But to suggest that we don't take the violent crime seriously
1688 and we don't recognize the impact on victims of crime from these 1689 dangerous drugs I think is a serious mistake.

1690 And I would love to work with my colleagues across the aisle
1691 to make sure that we distinguish between those who have committed 1692 violent crimes and those who are merely addicted to drugs. But 1693 there is a very close correlation between those two.

1694 Mr. Cohen. Would the gentleman yield?

1695 Mr. Buck. I'll be glad to yield.

1696 Mr. Cohen. Wouldn't the state laws still be in effect, and 1697 so if this guy's so smart that he knows not to bring the one gram
1698 in, that the state prosecutor in Colorado can still prosecute
1699 him?

1700 Mr. Chabot. Sure, and reclaiming my time.

1701 Mr. Cohen. Sure.

1702 Mr. Chabot. The purpose of arresting a mule is to work your 1703 way up an organization and be able to get the kingpins, whether 1704 they're in Jamaica, whether they're in Mexico, whether -- no

1705 matter where they are. So there is a purpose for the federal 1706 government to be able to go after someone carrying drugs. And 1707 to make sure that you have a harsh enough penalty that encourages
1708 that person to provide information in return for a reduced
1709 sentence.

1710 So there is a purpose in the federal government engaging 1711 in that. But certainly the state government, the state of 1712 Illinois has the primary jurisdiction over a murder that is gang-1713 and drug-related in Chicago. Or the same in Los Angeles, the 1714 same in New York.

1715 The federal government has an obligation, in my opinion.
1716 Cocaine isn't grown in the United States. It's typically grown 1717 in Colombia and other countries and brought into the United 1718 States. And the U.S. Government has an obligation under our laws 1719 to try to stop that importation.

1720 I yield back.

1721 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back. The question
1722 occurs on the amendment. For what purpose does --

1723 Mr. Jeffries. Move to strike the last word.

1724 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman -- I will strike the last 1725 word and yield to the gentleman.

1726 Mr. Jeffries. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

1727 I just have great respect for the distinguished gentleman
1728 from Colorado, but I just wanted to make, you know, two 1729 observations, or three observations. One, from the 1730 crime-fighting public service, public safety perspective, you

1731 know, this change, the EQUAL Act, does have the support, as 1732 Congresswoman Demings indicated, of the major city chiefs'
1733 association. And I think they're concerned about public safety 1734 and crime fighting.

1735 And it has the support of the Association of Prosecuting
1736 Attorneys. I think they're concerned about public safety and 1737 crime fighting. And it also has the support of the National 1738 District Attorneys' Association. I think it's fair to say that 1739 they have great concern with public safety and crime fighting, 1740 not just retroactively, but the current situation as well as 1741 moving forward.

1742 And when you go back to the original 1986 law, I think it's 1743 widely understood that the notion that five grams of crack cocaine
1744 would yield effectively the same sentence of 500 grams of powder
1745 cocaine, as if there was no quantifiable difference between the 1746 two, is just extraordinary.

1747 Five grams of crack cocaine essentially would be the 1748 equivalent of these two peanuts, these two peanuts. Which would 1749 yield the same sentence as -- this is 450 grams, a little bit
1750 more than this bottle of powder cocaine, if it were powder cocaine.

1751 And so I think one of the reasons why you see people who 1752 are Democrats and Republicans, progressives and conservatives,

1753 law enforcement organizations and civil rights organizations
1754 coming together is because they recognize that the original
1755 legislation was deeply flawed, it had no justification under law.
1756

1757 And even the revision has no current justification, in part
1758 because there's scientific evidence, medical evidence that there 1759 is no pharmacological difference between how the body reacts to 1760 crack cocaine and powder cocaine. That was originally believed 1761 to be the case in 1986. But crack cocaine is not more highly 1762 addictive. That's just the medical reality. Though in 1986 that 1763 was the view.

1764 I'd also point out in 1986 that there are a lot of folks
1765 who believe that the original law in part was not simply a reaction 1766 to the violent crime that was taking place in many parts of 1767 America. Yes, that was the motivation of many and Charlie Rangel
1768 acting in good faith, as has been indicated by members on both 1769 sides of the aisle.

1770 But there was another intervening event, and that was the 1771 death of Len Bias, who, you know, was a star basketball player.

1772 Many people thought he could rival Michael Jordan. He had just 1773 been drafted by the Boston Celtics. And the night after he was 1774 drafted, he dies of a drug overdose. And it was a national story.

1775 And Congress reacted. That was a horrific death. But 1776 Congress reacted a few weeks after Len Bias's untimely passing

1777 by comparing this amount of powder cocaine to this amount of crack.

1778 It was wrong. And Democrats got it wrong. And there were some 1779 Republicans who got it wrong. It was a Democratic House, and 1780 it was a Republican President.

1781 And Democrats and Republicans today are coming together to 1782 try to fix that wrong. Which was in part inspired not by the 1783 evidence of what was happening all across America, but by Len
1784 Bias's death. As tragic as that was, we can't make public policy
1785 on that basis.

1786 And we've seen the consequences decades later of what happens
1787 when we do just that. So I'm just thankful for all my colleagues
1788 who have different views, some supportive of the EQUAL Act, some 1789 who perhaps believe that we should maintain what currently exists.

1790 This has been a very positive discussion of people with different 1791 views.

1792 But I just wanted to make sure that the record reflected 1793 that the science is very clear now, and that the motivations in 1794 part in 1986 weren't simply what was happening across the country,
1795 but it was a reaction to a particularly sensationalized event
1796 that led to doing something that clearly had adverse consequences
1797 for significant communities, not just Black communities, but low
1798 income communities of every race. Not just in the inner city,
1799 but in rural America and small America and in Appalachia as well.

1800 And I yield back.

1801 Chairman Nadler. Reclaiming my time. I just want to point
1802 out also that there are mandatory minimums for cocaine. The bill 1803 before us equalizes the penalty for the two different forms of 1804 cocaine, which are medically indistinguishable in its effect.

1805 But there are mandatory minimums now. Maybe we ought to reduce 1806 those mandatory minimums, maybe we ought to increase those 1807 mandatory minimums, but they're there.

1808 And this bill simply recognizes medical -- recognizes a
1809 medical reality that the two forms of cocaine have the same 1810 pharmacological effect.

1811 I yield back. Does anyone else seek -- for what purpose
1812 does the gentleman seek recognition?

1813 Mr. Biggs. Move to strike the last word.

1814 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

1815 Mr. Biggs. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

1816 I just want to quickly read in response, appreciate the 1817 gentleman from New York and law enforcement organizations he 1818 cited. I want to read from the National Association of Police
1819 Organizations, Inc.

1820 Quote, "As crack is usually sold in much smaller quantities
1821 than powder cocaine, NAPO believes that tinkering with the -- 1822 with the current sentencing structure will negatively affect the 1823 work law enforcement has done to protect our nation's communities
1824 from the crime and violence associated with crack cocaine. A

1825 reduction of crack cocaine penalties will only accelerate the 1826 destruction brought to our neighborhoods by those convicted of 1827 federal crack offenses."

1828 With that, I yield to my friend from Colorado.

1829 Mr. Buck. I thank the gentleman for yielding. And I want
1830 to indicate to the gentleman from New York, the sponsor of this 1831 bill, that I have great respect for him and don't question motives
1832 at all. And I, in my experience, crack cocaine is more addictive.

1833 And I want to just read something. I just looked this up
1834 on my phone, thank God for phones where we can get this 1835 information. But I just find it hard to believe that crack is 1836 not more addictive.

1837 And according to Web MD, an article on Web MD, "Crack is 1838 inhaled through the lung and spreads through the body, producing 1839 the high much more quickly and lasts for a shorter time than 1840 snorting cocaine," said John Diordano, an addiction counselor
1841 and the founder of National Institute for Holistic Addiction
1842 Studies. "This causes a cycle of binging and crashing which puts 1843 the user at a greater risk of dependence."

1844 And there are several other experts who are quoted as saying
1845 the same thing. So I respectfully disagree about the addictive 1846 qualities of crack cocaine and would suggest that there should 1847 be a disparity in the sentencing treatment of that. And I yield
1848 back to my friend from Arizona.

1849 Mr. Biggs. Mr. Chairman, I yield back.

1850 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back. Are there any 1851 further amendments to the amendment in the nature of a substitute?
1852 In that case, the question occurs on the amendment in the 1853 nature of a substitute as amended. This bill be followed by 1854 immediately -- immediately by a vote and final passage of the 1855 bill.

1856 All those in favor, respond by saying aye.

1857 (Chorus of aye.)

1858 Chairman Nadler. Opposed, no.

1859 (Chorus of no.)

1860 Chairman Nadler. In the opinion of the Chair, the ayes have 1861 it, the amendment in the nature of a substitute is agreed to.

1862 A reporting quorum being present, the question is on the 1863 motion to report the bill H.R. 1693 as amended favorably to the 2003 as reported -- ordered reported favorably to the House. Members

2004 will have two days to submit views. Without objection the bill

2005 will be reported a single amendment in the nature of a substitute,

2006 incorporating all adopted amendments. And the staff is 2007 authorized to make technical and conforming changes.

2008 Pursuant to notice, I now call up H.R. 4035, the Real Justice

2009 for Our Veterans Act of 2021 for purposes of markup and move that 2010 the Committee report the bill favorably to the House.

2011 [The Bill H.R. 4035 follows:]

2013 COMMITTEE INSERT**

2014 Chairman Nadler. The Clerk will report the bill.

2015 Ms. Fontenot. H.R. 4035, to amend the Omnibus Crime Control
2016 and Safe Streets Act of 1968 to prioritize veterans court
2017 treatment programs and ensure equal access for racial and ethnic 2018 minorities and women and for other purposes.

2019 Chairman Nadler. Without objection, the bill is considered
2020 as read and open for amendment at any point. I will begin by 2021 recognizing myself for an opening statement.

2022 H.R. 4035, the Real Justice for Our Veterans Act of 2021, 2023 is an important bill to buttress the veterans court system by 2024 ensuring that the most effective rehabilitative treatments are 2025 implemented and are available to all veterans who need them.

2026 This bill would also expand access to rehabilitative
2027 services to veterans who would otherwise qualify for treatment
2028 and alternatives to incarceration but who do not have a veterans
2029 treatment court in their jurisdiction.

2030 For more than a decade, veterans treatment court programs
2031 around the country have successfully provided support to veterans
2032 struggling with substance abuse or mental health issues. These 2033 courts allow qualifying veterans to receive court-supervised
2034 comprehensive treatment provided by the Department of Veterans
2035 Affairs or community organizations providing mental health or 2036 substance abuse treatment.

2037 Because veterans -- because veterans courts across the

2038 country offer so many different and wide ranging services,
2039 comprehensive data collection is needed to discern and replicate
2040 the most promising methods. That is why the Real Justice for 2041 Our Veterans Act would expand data collection on the effectiveness
2042 of certain treatment practices in reducing recidivism.

2043 In addition, the bill would ensure that referrals to veterans
2044 treatment courts are determined in a fair and equitable manner.

2045 The bill would also establish a pilot program to examine 2046 promising and innovative treatment and rehabilitation programs.

2047 Finally, the bill opens up treatment courts to veterans who 2048 otherwise qualify for veterans treatment court but who live in 2049 a jurisdiction where a veterans court has not yet been 2050 established. In doing so, the bill ensures that the maximum 2051 number of veterans are offered the chance to get the support they 2052 need and to avoid incarceration.

2053 These are modest but important changes to the veterans
2054 treatment court program, and these improvements come at a time
2055 when our country stands at an inflection point. Nearly 20 years 2056 of war in Afghanistan are coming to an end. Over the course of 2057 the last two decades, millions of American service members have 2058 served abroad fighting on behalf of our nation.

2059 As the final troops come home, we must answer the call as 2060 a country to support veterans and their families during any and 2061 all challenges that they face. As of this year, there are roughly

2062 21 million veterans of the United States armed forces. Among 2063 these veterans, there are over a million people diagnosed with 2064 service-connected disabilities, in addition to the many more who 2065 may not have had an official diagnosis.

2066 By some estimates, nearly one in ten veterans who return
2067 from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan will have an encounter with 2068 the criminal justice system. Of those incarcerated veterans
2069 surveyed by the Bureau of Justice Statistics, 48% of those in 2070 prison and 55% of those in jail reported that they had been told 2071 by a mental health professional that they had a mental health
2072 disorder.

2073 The Bureau of Justice Statistics found that the number of 2074 incarcerated veterans who had seen combat who reported mental 2075 health disorders was even higher, 60% of those in prison and 67%
2076 of those in jail.

2077 Another study conducted in the first decade of the Iraq and 2078 Afghanistan wars estimated that one-third of service members
2079 previously deployed to Iraq or Afghanistan suffered from 2080 post-traumatic stress disorder, PTSD; major depression; or 2081 traumatic brain injury, TBI.

2082 Despite these somber statistics, there is some hope.
2083 Veteran defendants who successfully complete veterans courts
2084 programs can avoid jail time, receive needed treatment, and have 2085 their records expunged. That is why today we take up the Real

2086 Justice for Our Veterans Act of 2021.

2087 The beneficiaries of expanded and improved veterans
2088 treatment court services are some of the most deserving of our 2089 fellow Americans. They have sacrificed on behalf of their 2090 country, sometimes returning home with unseen wounds of war.
2091 These programs provide veterans with holistic rehabilitative
2092 services and reduce recidivism rates and ultimately benefit
2093 individuals as well as the community at large.

2094 I am proud to be a co-sponsor of this important legislation,
2095 and I thank Chairwoman Jackson Lee for her leadership as the author 2096 of this bill, and for her continued dedication and support to 2097 our veterans. I support this bill, and I urge its quick adoption
2098 by the Committee today.

2099 I now recognize the ranking member of the Judiciary
2100 Committee, the gentleman from Ohio, Mr. Jordan, for his opening
2101 statement.

2102 Mr. Jordan. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. The United States
2103 of America is the greatest country in the history of the world.

2104 I frankly think it's something we should say a little more often 2105 around this place. And a large part of that reason, of course, 2106 is for the greatness in the men and women of our military.

2107 These men and women and their families make sacrifices for 2108 our country. Sometimes they make the ultimate sacrifice. And 2109 the wounds of war oftentimes follow our heroes home. Many

2110 veterans suffer from substance use disorders, mental health
2111 conditions, and trauma. As a result, many veterans end up in 2112 the criminal justice system.

2113 Veterans treatment court programs are modeled after other
2114 treatment court programs such as drug treatment courts to provide 2115 services specific to meet the unique needs of a group, in this 2116 case, our veterans.

2117 Veterans treatment courts are not only designed to benefit
2118 veterans in the criminal justice system, but taxpayers as well.

2119 These programs lower recidivism for participants who complete
2120 them, saving money that would have otherwise been spent on 2121 incarceration.

2122 The bill before us today authorizes a pilot program to make 2123 grants to improve retention rates in veterans treatment court
2124 programs. It also allows veterans in jurisdictions that do not 2125 operation veterans court programs to participate in drug courts
2126 instead.

2127 I appreciate the bipartisan work on this legislation and 2128 look forward to our discussion and this bill moving. Thank you.

2129 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back. I now
2130 recognize the Chair of the Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, and 2131 Homeland Security, the gentlelady from Texas, Ms. Jackson Lee, 2132 for her opening statement.

2133 Ms. Jackson Lee. [Inaudible] greatness of our nation,

2134 recognized our greatness through the whole idea of the men and 2135 women -- men and women who serve. And over the years we have 2136 faltered in our response to their needs.

2137 There is no doubt if we begin in our present lifetime to 2138 look at some of the wars that we currently have history of,
2139 starting with the Vietnam War, not ignoring World War II or the 2140 Korean War, World War I, or any others, but we have a current 2141 image of Vietnam vets, of whom we note that many of them are 2142 homeless and many of them are afflicted with the disease of drug
2143 usage and of course abandonment, PTSD.

2144 And that transcends itself or continues through our soldiers
2145 in other conflicts, including both Iraq and Afghanistan. They 2146 cry out for help.

2147 So I thank you, Mr. Chairman, for calling up my bill, H.R.
2148 4035, the Real Justice for Our Veterans Act. I recall introducing 2149 some years ago when Chairman Mercer was alive, he worked with 2150 me extensively to create an offsite PTSD center away from a
2151 veterans hospital in a neighborhood where veterans could come 2152 who were homeless to get treatment for PTSD.

2153 It was like a bright light, and I hope this bill will be 2154 a bright light. This straightforward bill would build upon the 2155 ongoing success of veterans courts. It will ensure that the most 2156 effective alternative treatment courts are accessible to all
2157 qualified veterans.

2158 As amended in the nature of a substitute, this bill has three 2159 primary goals. First, the bill would expand data collection
2160 regarding the effectiveness of veterans courts. Second, it 2161 authorizes a pilot program that would investigate and promote 2162 promising retention models in veterans and drug courts. Third, 2163 it would open up drug treatment courts to veterans in areas where 2164 there may not be a veterans court.

2165 There is a great disparity between the number of drug courts
2166 and the number of veterans courts. We want our veterans
2167 everywhere to have access to the idea of treatment for whatever
2168 ails them as relates to their war duties or their military service.

2169 In doing so, this provision enables veterans who qualify
2170 for veterans court to participate in a drug treatment program
2171 in locations that haven't established a veterans court yet. This 2172 measure would ensure that access would be available to a broader 2173 number of qualifying veterans, even those that may have more
2174 serious past offenses.

2175 The veterans court program from my hometown of Houston, TX, 2176 inspired this legislation. 2009, Harris County created the first
2177 veterans treatment court in the state of Texas. In Harris County, 2178 our veterans treatment court provides program participants with 2179 integrated treatment services, including traditional substance
2180 abuse treatment, vocational rehabilitation, mental healthcare,
2181 and veterans benefits.

2182 These programs, along with additional support from the 2183 Veterans Administration, provide judges, prosecutors, and 2184 participants a wide range of rehabilitative options. Even though 2185 current data is limited, there is sufficient evidence to suggest 2186 that other veteran treatment courts across the country could 2187 benefit from adopting the innovative practices underway in 2188 Houston and elsewhere.

2189 The need for more widespread, innovative, and multifaceted
2190 approaches is clear. By one estimate, approximately nine percent
2191 of veterans who served in Iraq and Afghanistan have arrested --
2192 have been arrested since returning home. Again, nine percent
2193 of veterans who served our country, some wounded in Iraq and 2194 Afghanistan, seen their brothers and sisters having lost their 2195 life in battle, arrested -- have been arrested since returning 2196 home.

2197 Based on the most recent data, the Bureau of Justice
2198 Statistics estimate that approximately 181,500 veterans were 2199 incarcerated in jails, as well as state and federal prisons.
2200 Veterans have served our country and deserve the best chance at 2201 a successful rehabilitation possible. I would indicate that in 2202 some of our visits to the prison system, we have met some of these 2203 veterans.

2204 In addition, this legislation authorizes a new pilot program
2205 that allows DOJ to test promising retention programs that promote

2206 greater enrollment and participation by veterans through the 2207 duration of their treatment program. If there's a rehabilitative 2208 therapy out there than can improve veteran outcomes and reduce 2209 recidivism, return them to their families, their lives, and their 2210 occupations, we should be dedicating the resources to test out
2211 the model.

2212 Expanding access for veteran rehabilitation means offering
2213 those who live outside a jurisdiction that has veterans court 2214 a chance of rehabilitation and access to a veterans court, which 2215 is the underlying purpose and value of this legislation.

2216 Currently the federal law bars those who have a past violent
2217 conviction from participating in drug treatment courts. The same
2218 is not true of veterans courts. Veterans who have a past
2219 convictions and are otherwise qualified may be referred to a
2220 veterans treatment court.

2221 We do owe these service members, these persons who have been 2222 in battle, who have experienced things that we have never seen,
2223 we owe their moment of justice. The effect of this ban means
2224 that veterans who have a past conviction and live in one of the 2225 approximately 1,500 jurisdictions where there is no veterans but 2226 there is a drug treatment court are barred from participating
2227 in rehabilitative treatment. This is absurd, and my bill
2228 corrects this error.

2229 In the immediate future, I also plan to introduce legislation

2230 eliminating the so-called previous conviction bar from drug
2231 treatment court. Regardless of past offenses, any qualified 2232 participant should be considered for these meaningful programs.

2233 A life changed around is a life that is better for this nation.

2234 Past legislative efforts to strengthen veterans treatment
2235 court have yielded broad support. I hope my colleagues on the 2236 Committee in a bipartisan manner will support this bill today.

2237 Mr. Chairman, thank you for your courtesies. I yield back.

2238 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back. I now
2239 recognize the ranking member of the Crime Subcommittee, the 2240 gentleman from Arizona, Mr. Biggs, for his opening statement.

2241 Mr. Biggs. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

2242 We owe much of what we value in this country to our veterans.

2243 Our veterans have earned our respect and our gratitude.

2244 Sometimes we don't do enough to recognize the sacrifices they 2245 have made for this great country.

2246 Unfortunately for some, the trauma they experience on the 2247 battlefield doesn't stay there. It follows them home and 2248 manifests itself in substance abuse and/or mental health
2249 problems. Those problems can lead veterans to find themselves
2250 in the criminal justice system.

2251 Veterans courts provide an opportunity for these veterans
2252 to receive treatment and assistance that may help address
2253 underlying conditions and help -- and prevent them from facing

2254 more serious repercussions.

2255 In a number of jurisdictions in my home state, we have these 2256 types of courts for veterans, and also substance abuse courts.

2257 They have been highly effective. This bill aims to strengthen
2258 veterans court programs, which will hopefully help our veterans
2259 to not find their way back into the criminal justice system.

2260 Chairman Nadler mentioned traumatic brain injury and PTSD.

2261 Indeed, there are many veterans who suffer from the effects of 2262 traumatic brain injury, or TBI, and PTSD. A proven aid to 2263 veterans with TBI and PTSD is hyperbaric oxygen treatment. HBOT
2264 should be recognized by the Veterans Administration, and HBOT
2265 should be regularized as treatment for the veteran -- for veterans
2266 suffering from PTSD and TBI.

2267 I hope that that will become part of the treatments that 2268 are offered through the veterans courts as jurisdictions expand
2269 and use these more regularly.

2270 With that, Mr. Chairman, I thank you for the opportunity,
2271 and I yield back.

2272 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back. Without 2273 objection, all other opening statements will be included in the 2274 record.

2275 I now recognize myself for purposes of offering an amendment
2276 in the nature of a substitute. The Clerk will report the 2277 amendment.

2278 [The amendment offered by Chairman Nadler follows:]

2279

2280 COMMITTEE INSERT**

2281 Ms. Fontenot. Amendment in the nature of a substitute to 2282 H.R. 4035 offered by Mr. Nadler. Strike all after the --
2283 Chairman Nadler. Without objection the amendment in the 2284 nature of a substitute will be considered as read and it shall 2285 be considered as base text for purposes of amendment. I will 2286 recognize myself to explain the amendment.

2287 The amendment in the nature of a substitute makes one 2288 substantive change. As introduced, the Real Justice for Our 2289 Veterans Act of 2021 contained a preference for veterans court
2290 grants -- for veterans court grant applicants that meet certain 2291 conditions. The amendment eliminates that preference
2292 consideration.

2293 Instead, the Attorney General's report will include an 2294 analysis of referral practices, including consideration of 2295 demographic information. This is a modest but important change, 2296 and I urge all members to support the amendment.

2297 I yield back the balance of my time. Are there any 2298 amendments to the amendment in the nature of a substitute?

2299 For what purpose does Mrs. McBath seek recognition?

2300 Mrs. McBath. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

2301 And I really want to thank our colleague, Representative
2302 Sheila Jackson Lee, for bringing forth this really important piece
2303 of legislation, as I, myself, work a great deal with the veterans
2304 community in my district.

2305 And I know that one of the privileges that I have had in 2306 Congress is to work to improve the lives of those that have really 2307 given so much to our country and to our nation, and that is our 2308 veterans. And I come from a family of many veterans, and I'm 2309 proud to have a veteran actually working in my district office
2310 to help serve our veterans in our community.

2311 We all know that our veterans sometimes pay a great cost
2312 in terms of their physical health in service to our country, but 2313 many also suffer from depression, anxiety, PTSD, and other mental 2314 health conditions. And some also face the burdens of addiction.

2315 Veteran Treatment Courts play an important role in helping 2316 our veterans who have mental health or drug problems when they 2317 get involved with our criminal justice system. And often, these 2318 are people who need just simply treatment, counseling, and 2319 mentorship, not a prison sentence.

2320 While every program is different, they are all designed to 2321 provide structure, accountability, and a path forward for those 2322 who are willing to get the treatment that they need or to do the 2323 hard work of facing their own addictions.

2324 And I've been proud to support our Veteran Treatment Courts
2325 in my community, and this bill will make sure that more veterans 2326 get the help that they need to get back on track again, and to 2327 again become the pillars of our communities that they really so 2328 often are.

2329 And I am pleased that this bill has provisions that will 2330 improve data collection. With this data, we can better develop 2331 the best practices for Veteran Treatment Courts and do even more
2332 to reduce recidivism. We'll also be able to see whether or not 2333 these courts are serving the needs of all our veterans, including 2334 women and, most specifically, veterans of color.

2335 Our brave men and women, they sacrifice so very much to 2336 protect our democratic ideals. And when they end their service,
2337 we must see to it that we take care of them, whether their needs
2338 are physical, mental, or behavioral. And the Real Justice for 2339 Our Veterans Act is a part of that effort, and I thank 2340 Congresswoman, once again, Sheila Jackson Lee and the chair of 2341 the Crime Subcommittee for introducing this legislation. I am 2342 pleased to support it.

2343 And I yield back the balance of my time.

2344 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

2345 For what purpose does Ms. Ross seek recognition?

2346 Ms. Ross. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

2347 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

2348 Ms. Ross. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

2349 This bill, led by our colleague, Congresswoman Jackson Lee,
2350 marks a critical step in ensuring that our veterans are properly
2351 cared for within our criminal justice system. Veterans suffer
2352 disproportionate rates of substance abuse that are often related

2353 to mental illness. Such mental health disorders, if untreated,
2354 can lead many veterans to become involved in the criminal justice
2355 system. My dad was a psychiatrist in the Air Force during the 2356 Vietnam era and saw the effects that war can have on our service
2357 members.

2358 Treatment Courts provide a key resource for veterans because 2359 their judges have demonstrated experience in handling veterans'
2360 cases and understand factors that lead to veteran involvement
2361 in the criminal justice system. These courts possess
2362 institutional knowledge of veteran-targeted resources that can 2363 be offered in lieu of incarceration.

2364 As a Representative of a State and a district with a large 2365 veteran population, I care deeply about ensuring that gender or 2366 race does not dictate access to Veteran Treatment Courts. I urge 2367 my colleagues to support this legislation, as a promising path
2368 forward to care for our veterans who have sacrificed so much for 2369 our country.

2370 And, Mr. Chairman, I yield back.

2371 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

2372 For what purpose does Ms. Scanlon seek recognition?

2373 Ms. Scanlon. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

2374 And I also want to thank Chairman Jackson Lee for her
2375 leadership in introducing this important bill.

2376 As several of our colleagues have mentioned, too often our

2377 veterans suffer wounds of war that make them more vulnerable to 2378 substance abuse disorder and mental health challenges that can 2379 lead them into the criminal justice system.

2380 I want to share a few words from a veteran who now serves
2381 in Philadelphia's Veterans Treatment Court. "After returning 2382 to Philadelphia from Iraq in 2003, it took me only four days to 2383 see the inside of a jail cell. I was arrested for aggravated
2384 assault. My drinking, and eventually drugging, had given me all 2385 of what I thought I needed to transition back into society. I
2386 was wrong. It was exactly what I didn't need. I put a band-aid 2387 on my emotions by using substances to get through each day. Those 2388 substances destroyed my life. I had seven arrests and spent a 2389 year in prison. I lost my family, and what hurt the most was 2390 not being with my daughter for the first four years of her young 2391 life. Something had to change if I was going to survive.

2392 After my final arrest, I was put into the Philadelphia's
2393 Veterans Court. There is no question it saved my life. I found 2394 other veterans who were all working on the same mission, the 2395 mission of recovery. Help is what we get in Veterans Treatment
2396 Courts. My life began to change.

2397 After graduation from Veterans Court, I decided to stick
2398 around and continue to be a volunteer for the new veterans coming
2399 into court each week. My mission about recovery isn't just about 2400 me; it's the younger version of me who was about to see the inside

2401 of a jail cell for the first time."

2402 What Veterans Courts do is make sure that veterans don't 2403 see the inside of those jail cells more than once. For veterans
2404 who rely on the Veteran Treatment Courts for substance abuse and 2405 mental health treatment services, it's critical that we ensure 2406 that those programs are using evidence-based treatments. This 2407 bill will accomplish that, while also guaranteeing that the 2408 quality and access to care is equal for racial and ethnic 2409 minorities and women.

2410 I'm also glad to see the language includes a pilot program
2411 that aims to improve retention rates in veteran court treatment
2412 programs and encourage programs to improve their completion
2413 rates. Veterans who have sacrificed their physical and mental 2414 safety for our country should have the highest level of care upon 2415 their return. This includes access to substance abuse and mental 2416 health resources, as this bill ensures; and also, legal aid to 2417 ensure that they can take advantage of the programs they're 2418 entitled to.

2419 That's why I've introduced the bipartisan Veterans Medical 2420 Legal Partnership Act, which would provide grants to state and 2421 local governments to create medical-legal partnerships aimed at 2422 ensuring access to legal services for veteran, ultimately,
2423 reducing homelessness and recidivism and preventing
2424 victimization among former service members.

2425 I look forward to working with my colleagues to move that 2426 bipartisan piece of legislation and other veteran-focused
2427 legislation through our committee. And I encourage my colleagues
2428 to support the Real Justice for Our Veterans Act, which would 2429 make meaningful change for our veterans.

2430 Thank you again, Chairwoman Jackson Lee, for your leadership
2431 and focus on this important issue.

2432 I yield back.

2433 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

2434 For what purpose does Mr. Correa seek recognition?

2435 Mr. Correa. Move to strike the last word, Mr. Chairman.

2436 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

2437 Mr. Correa. Thank you. And I also want to stand to thank 2438 my colleague, Ms. Jackson Lee, for this important legislation.

2439 In my home county, Orange County, California, we also have 2440 a drug court, treatment court, homeless court, veterans court.

2441 And I've seen the difference that these courts can make in a
2442 person's life -- instead of having a confrontational criminal
2443 court environment, a prosecutor, defense attorney, probation
2444 officer, social service workers, all teaming up to make sure that 2445 veterans receive the services they need to get back on their feet.

2446 This bill is a tremendous step forward, but it's not enough.

2447 We also have veterans, veterans that have fought for our nation,
2448 served with honor, and have been discharged honorably, and these

2449 vets, legal immigrants with green cards, get into trouble because 2450 of things like PTSD, and then, have their green card and residency 2451 removed, pulled, and are then deported.

2452 These veterans, under current law, cannot return to the 2453 United States. However, once they die in foreign soil, they can 2454 have their bodies returned to the United States and buried in 2455 a national cemetery. What a terrible travesty of justice. As 2456 has been said many times here today, our veterans deserve better.

2457 And with that, I yield.

2458 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

2459 Are there any amendments to the amendment in the nature of 2460 a substitute?

2461 [No response.]

2462 The question occurs on the amendment in the nature of a 2463 substitute.

2464 This will be followed immediately by a vote on final passage
2465 of the bill.

2466 All those in favor, respond by saying aye.

2467 Opposed, no.

2468 In the opinion of the chair, the ayes have it and the 2469 amendment in the nature of a substitute is agreed to.

2470 A reporting quorum being present, the question is on the 2471 motion to report the bill H.R. 4035, as amended, favorably to 2472 the House.

2473 Those in favor, respond by saying aye.

2474 Opposed, no.

2475 The ayes have it and the bill is ordered reported favorably
2476 to the House.

2477 Members will have two days to submit views.

2478 Without objection, the bill will be reported as a single 2479 amendment in the nature of a substitute incorporating all adopted 2480 amendments, and staff is authorized to make technical and 2481 conforming changes.

2482 For what purpose does Ms. Jackson Lee seek recognition?

2483 Ms. Jackson Lee. Mr. Chairman, I'm pleased to ask to be 2484 able to submit into the record a letter of support for the Real 2485 Justice for Our Veterans Act from the National Association of 2486 Drug Court Professionals. I ask unanimous consent to submit it 2487 into the record.

2488 Chairman Nadler. Without objection.

2489 [The information follows:]

2491  COMMITTEE INSERT *****

2492 Ms. Jackson Lee. And I'd like to submit into the record
2493 an article from The New York Times, "Suicides Among Post-9/11
2494 Veterans Are Four Times as High as Combat Vets, a New Study Finds," 2495 June 22, 2021. I ask unanimous consent.

2496 Chairman Nadler. Without objection.

2497 [The information follows:]

2499  COMMITTEE INSERT *****

2500 Ms. Jackson Lee. Thank you. Thank you, Members.

2501 Chairman Nadler. Pursuant to notice, I now call up H.R.

2502 3372, the One Stop Shop Community Reentry Program Act of 2021

2503 for purposes of markup, and move that the committee report the 2504 bill favorably to the House.

2505 The clerk will report the bill.

2506 Ms. Fontenot. "H.R. 3372, to authorize implementation" --

2507 Chairman Nadler. Without objection, the bill is considered

2508 as read and open for amendment at any point.

2511  COMMITTEE INSERT *****

2512 Chairman Nadler. I'll begin by recognizing myself for an 2513 opening statement.

2514 I am proud to support H.R. 3372, the One Stop Shop Community
2515 Reentry Program Act of 2021. This bipartisan, bicameral
2516 legislation, which passed the committee in the House last 2517 Congress, would authorize grants to community organizations to 2518 create centralized reentry, intake, and coordination centers.

2519 These centers would serve as the home base for individuals
2520 recently released from correctional facilities, as they go
2521 through the difficult process of rejoining their communities.

2522 At one stop reentry centers, reentering individuals would 2523 be provided personalized step-by-step assistance to access the 2524 resources, both public and private, that are needed to 2525 successfully integrate back into the communities. At the one
2526 stop center, reentering individuals would be given assistance
2527 at every step of the way -- from the moment they are released
2528 until they have the capability to fully rejoin their communities.

2529 This important legislation recognizes that a comprehensive 2530 reentry approach is needed to improve reentry outcomes, which,
2531 ultimately, has the effect of improving public safety. The bill
2532 adopts a whole-person approach that would ensure that all elements
2533 of a returning individual's life are supported. This includes 2534 transportation to and from appointments, temporary housing,
2535 assistance applying for benefits and job training.

2536 Additionally, for those who have formal reentry plans, the one 2537 stop community reentry centers proposed by this bill would also 2538 provide case management and wraparound support.

2539 The challenges faced by individuals returning from prison
2540 are great and they warrant the type of support the One Stop Shop
2541 Community Reentry Program Act would authorize. Unfortunately, 2542 the reentry support services that many prisoners receive while 2543 incarcerated do not sufficiently prepare them for the transition
2544 back to their communities. Many incarcerated individuals also 2545 have preexisting conditions that make reentry even more 2546 difficult. Physical disabilities, mental health concerns, and 2547 substance abuse issues further complicate reentry plans, and 2548 additional support, like those detailed in H.R. 3372, are needed
2549 to promote successful outcomes.

2550 Specialists employed at one stop centers can build 2551 relationships with providers, private groups, religious 2552 organizations, and public agencies to build networks of support
2553 that will help returning individuals get the care and support
2554 they need to succeed. Inadequate reentry support leads to 2555 recidivism is unnecessary financial strain on the community.
2556 Both the short- and long-term costs associated with incarceration
2557 pale in comparison against the minimal front-end costs associated 2558 with a successful reentry.

2559 Of the few studies that have assessed the effectiveness of

2560 reentry services, a number have found that more robust and 2561 comprehensive reentry services are better at reducing recidivism
2562 and promoting the long-term success of reentering individuals.

2563 This bill offers greater opportunities for success for 2564 individuals returning from prison as well as their communities.

2565 I thank Representative Bass, Representative Reschenthaler,
2566 and their bipartisan cosponsors for introducing this important 2567 legislation again, and I urge my colleagues to join me in 2568 supporting the bill.

2569 I now recognize the ranking member of the Judiciary
2570 Committee, the gentleman from Ohio, Mr. Jordan, for his opening
2571 statement.

2572 Mr. Jordan. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

2573 Successful reentry into society helps reduce recidivism,
2574 improve public safety, and save taxpayer dollars. We have seen
2575 successful criminal justice reform programs, including reentry
2576 programs, work in Republican-led states like Texas. This is a 2577 worthwhile goal and something that President Trump and his 2578 administration prioritized.

2579 H.R. 3372 would build on President Trump's strong record
2580 of criminal justice reforms, and I am pleased that my Democrat
2581 colleagues are following on his lead. In 2018, he signed the 2582 FIRST STEP Act into law. The FIRST STEP Act reauthorized the 2583 Second Chance Act, a 2007 law aimed at reducing recidivism and 2584 improving outcomes for people returning from incarceration.

2585 H.R. 3372 applies a holistic approach to reentry to achieve 2586 results that are more favorable to the offender and to our 2587 communities.

2588 While this goal is important, I do think it's important we 2589 understand the bill authorizes programs duplicative of existing 2590 federal grant programs already authorized by the Second Chance
2591 Act. In other words, grants that would be created by H.R. 3372
2592 can be funded currently with currently authorized and 2593 appropriated programs. Overall, I think this is a good piece
2594 of legislation, and I yield back.

2595 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

2596 I now recognize the chair of the Subcommittee on Crime,
2597 Terrorism, and Homeland Security, the gentlelady from Texas, Ms.
2598 Jackson Lee, for her opening statement.

2599 Ms. Jackson Lee. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and I thank the 2600 author of this legislation as well.

2601 I rise in strong support of H.R. 3372, the One Stop Shop
2602 Community Reentry Program, and applaud our colleague,
2603 Representative Karen Bass, for authoring this bill and for her
2604 work on important reentry issues.

2605 This bill is a compassionate, common-sense measure. It
2606 makes sense for the individual leaving incarceration and the 2607 community that they are returning to. All but 5 percent of people

2608 who are incarcerated are eventually released. That means 95
2609 percent of those currently incarcerated will have to make the 2610 difficult journey to reentry and make a new life for themselves.

2611 Starting life anew is difficult enough; we know it. We know
2612 these people. They are our neighbors in our community.

2613 The journey is even more difficult for a previously
2614 incarcerated individual. Many previously incarcerated
2615 individuals will return to their neighborhoods that they barely 2616 recognize without jobs or a place to live. Many will not have 2617 basic job skills to compete in the modern economy, and only the 2618 lucky few will have family members or friends there to assist 2619 them through this difficult transition.

2620 H.R. 3372 will provide the critical link between the 2621 reentering individual and the resources they need to succeed to 2622 come out of incarceration. A single point of information makes 2623 referrals and carrying out reentry plans substantially easier,
2624 and therefore, more likely to succeed. The concept that this 2625 bill promotes from release to self-sufficiency is critical to 2626 successful reentry efforts.

2627 Many of us have visited shelters or veterans' facilities,
2628 and we see the veterans there, many of them young, who are also 2629 individuals who have come out of prison. They need help. To 2630 connect these individuals to the resources they need, the bill
2631 would authorize a 24/7 reentry hotline to connect these recently

2632 released with reentry services near their home. The reentry
2633 hotline would maintain a list of reentry services throughout the 2634 United States for individuals who are released into smaller or 2635 new communities.

2636 The public safety benefits of this legislation are clear.
2637 Reentry success produces cost savings and community benefit.
2638 This bill provides citizens leaving prison with the necessary
2639 tools and resources to be economically self-sufficient. It gives 2640 reentering individuals a stronger chance. That's why I am such 2641 an enthusiastic supporter of this bill.

2642 I, again, thank the chairman for taking up this legislation
2643 and applaud Representative Bass for authoring this important
2644 bill.

2645 With that, Mr. Chairman, I yield back.

2646 Chairman Nadler. And now, the gentlelady yields back.

2647 I now recognize the ranking member of the Crime Subcommittee,
2648 the gentleman from Arizona, Mr. Biggs, for his opening statement.

2649 Mr. Biggs. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

2650 Mr. Chairman, I support reentry programs. They do help in 2651 the reduction of recidivism, and that, in turn, helps improve 2652 our public safety. However, I am opposed to the federal 2653 government bribing the states to implement policies. We see this 2654 all too often in this committee. And as one who is a strong 2655 believer in federalism, this continues to undermine my goals of 2656 restoration of federalism, and actually, the separation of 2657 powers, as James Madison described it, both horizontally and 2658 vertically.

2659 So many of those we see before this committee are just bribes
2660 to the states to implement a particular policy. The grants
2661 created by this bill are also duplicative of existing grants
2662 authorized by the Second Chance Act. If state and local 2663 governments need additional funding, they should provide that 2664 funding, especially with the dollars that have been sent their 2665 way from the federal government over the past year.

2666 It is not the responsibility of the federal government to 2667 provide grants to states and local governments to cover their 2668 expenses. Instead of creating new grant programs, Members should 2669 work with their state legislatures, city councils, or other local 2670 government bodies to address these issues.

2671 We need to get serious and recognize the financial crisis
2672 facing our nation as well. We need to find a way to address these 2673 issues without increasing spending. I will be opposing the bill.

2674 I yield back.

2675 Ms. Jackson Lee. [Presiding.] The gentleman yields back.

2676 I'm pleased to recognize the author of the legislation,
2677 Congresswoman Bass.

2678 Ms. Bass. Thank you. Move to strike the last word.

2679 I want to thank the chairman for, once again, bringing this 2680 bill up for consideration the second time in the past two 2681 Congresses we considered it. The One Stop Shop Community Reentry

2682 Program Act, which I've introduced along with my colleague,
2683 Representative Guy Reschenthaler, and Representative Owens, will 2684 fill a critical void in reentry services by providing resources
2685 for state and local jurisdictions to make grants to establish 2686 a more centralized process for assisting individuals who are 2687 reentering their communities after a period of incarceration.

2688 Madam Chairman, during the debate over the EQUAL Act, we 2689 discussed how the sentencing laws for cocaine led to a disruption
2690 of families and neighborhoods. We all know the statistics. More 2691 people are incarcerated in the United States than anywhere in 2692 the world. During the War on Drugs, during the "Get Tough on 2693 Crime" period, we actually abandoned rehabilitation and just 2694 focused on punishment. We passed hundreds of laws that banned
2695 people who were incarcerated from participating in the legal 2696 economy -- from working, from living in certain areas. Arrests,
2697 then, were concentrated in certain ZIP codes, and individuals, 2698 then, returned to these ZIP codes.

2699 When our laws effectively block people from working or fully 2700 participating, unfortunately, they will survive by any means
2701 necessary. So, it's no surprise that, without options, many 2702 return to crime. In California, the recidivism rate has been 2703 close to 70 percent. People cycle in and out, destabilizing

2704 families and disrupting neighborhoods. This bill will assist 2705 in reducing crime in areas that are disproportionately impacted
2706 by assisting individuals reintegrate to the legal economy, find 2707 housing, and access to health care.

2708 Last year, when the Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, and 2709 Homeland Security held a hearing entitled, "Returning Citizens
2710 -- Challenges and Opportunities for Reentry," at that hearing, 2711 we heard about the challenges that many individuals face. So,
2712 imagine, you're incarcerated for many years. During the time
2713 period of your incarceration, you were diagnosed with diabetes,
2714 placed on insulin, or you were diagnosed with schizophrenia,
2715 placed on antipsychotic medication, and then, you are released
2716 back into the community with no access to health care. Your 2717 medicines are cut off. You don't have an ID. You can't get a 2718 driver's license because you owe back child support. You don't 2719 have a place to live. You can't associate with people who have 2720 been formerly incarcerated, even though there might be members 2721 of your family that were formerly incarcerated or, certainly, 2722 in your neighborhood.

2723 So, these challenges can oftentimes be insurmountable, and 2724 we must figure out how to address them, because access to support
2725 services is so critical to successful reentry. And if you don't 2726 care about the individuals, you know, that's unfortunate, but 2727 understand that, when people are arrested and incarcerated in

2728 concentrated ZIP codes, and you return them to those neighborhoods 2729 and block them from any way to be reintegrated into the legal 2730 economy, you actually contribute to crime in those areas because 2731 you leave people without options.

2732 The one stop shop model that this legislation supports would 2733 provide a fully panoply of reentry services, all at a single 2734 location, calibrated to address the critical elements of the 2735 reentry process. Critical services, such as housing and job
2736 training, navigating access to health care, would be available
2737 at the one stop centers. And hopefully, these centers will be 2738 led and staffed by people who were formerly incarcerated.

2739 In addition to one stop centers, this bill authorizes the 2740 Attorney General to establish a 24-hour, 7-day-a-week reentry
2741 service assistance hotline to direct recently released
2742 individuals to appropriate reentry services in their locations.

2743 When Congress passed the hallmark Second Chance Act that 2744 the ranking member talked about, we demonstrated our commitment
2745 to provide housing, employment assistance, substance abuse
2746 treatment, and other related services to returning individuals
2747 with the goal of reducing recidivism. This one stop shop bill
2748 would go a step further by ensuring that returning citizens can 2749 actually access these services.

2750 One of the things that we have done with reentry resources, 2751 both on a federal level and on a state level, is we've given those

2752 resources over to probation. People still have difficulty 2753 accessing the services that are supposed to be available in the 2754 Second Chance Act. And so, without critical reentry services, 2755 without programs that are led and staffed by people who were 2756 formerly incarcerated, who can do the hand-holding that is,
2757 frankly, inappropriate for law enforcement or probation to do, 2758 people will continue to fall through the cracks and won't be able 2759 to access the services that are provided in legislation that we 2760 pass, such as the Second Chance Act. So, we must help to 2761 facilitate this access, which will also help to ensure a reduction 2762 in recidivism, help to keep our communities safe, and reduce 2763 crime.

2764 So, I want to thank the chairman. I want to thank the 2765 cosponsors for this bill. And I urge my colleagues to support
2766 this measure today.

2767 I yield back.

2768 Chairman Nadler. [Presiding.] The gentlelady yields
2769 back.

2770 For what purpose does Ms. Scanlon seek recognition?

2771 Ms. Scanlon. Thank you, Chairman. I move to strike the 2772 last word.

2773 Chairman Nadler. The lady is recognized.

2774 Ms. Scanlon. Thank you.

2775 Hundreds of thousands of people are released from custody

2776 each year, and reentry services provide a crucial tool to help
2777 them find success back at home. But a lot of the time, returning
2778 individuals are given too little or no resources to support them
2779 as they reintegrate into our communities. Too often, they 2780 struggle to access safe and affordable housing, educational 2781 opportunities, and steady employment, once they're home.

2782 This bill would provide critical, accessible, and 2783 comprehensive resources to individuals returning home, like job
2784 skills training and help obtaining IDs, housing, mental health
2785 services, and more. Importantly, this bill would expand two 2786 services that I view as critical to increasing the success of 2787 reentering citizens: legal assistance and opportunities for 2788 mentorship as part of reentry services.

2789 For years, I had the opportunity to work with a reentry
2790 program started by judges in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, 2791 with the goal of reducing recidivism, the STAR Program. It became 2792 a model for federal courts, recruiting volunteer attorneys to 2793 represent returning citizens to address the myriad legal issues
2794 that impeded their success in reentry. Whether it was getting 2795 a driver's license reinstated, so that a person could get a job, 2796 or helping them secure housing, or medical insurance -- all of 2797 these things were providing blocks to people being able to 2798 successfully reenter.

2799 In addition, this program provides an opportunity for

2800 mentoring. And as chair of the Bipartisan Congressional Youth
2801 Mentoring Caucus, I know how valuable mentorship can be in helping 2802 individuals navigate the challenges of returning home after 2803 incarceration. Mentoring is an evidence-based initiative that 2804 leads to positive outcomes in areas like employment and 2805 educational attainment, and it's important that returning
2806 individuals have access to this support.

2807 So, thank you, Mr. Chairman, for putting forth this critical 2808 legislation for our consideration today. And thank you to 2809 Representative Bass for introducing this important, bipartisan 2810 bill. I look forward to voting to pass the One Stop Shop Community 2811 Reentry Program Act out of committee today and urge all of my 2812 colleagues to support this bill.

2813 I yield back.

2814 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

2815 For what purpose does Mr. Tiffany seek recognition?

2816 Mr. Tiffany. Mr. Chairman, I have an amendment at the desk.

2817 Chairman Nadler. The clerk will report the amendment.

2818 The gentlelady reserves a point of order.

2819 Ms. Bass. Reserve a point of order.

2820 Ms. Fontenot. "Amendment to H.R. 3372 offered by Mr.

2821 Tiffany of Wisconsin.

2823 Chairman Nadler. Without objection, the amendment will be

2824 considered as read.

2825 [The amendment offered by Mr. Tiffany follows:]

2826

2828 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized to explain
2829 his amendment.

2830 Mr. Tiffany. Okay. Thank you. Thank you very much, Mr.
2831 Chairman.

2832 So, I share this important amendment with you today. And 2833 in a nutshell, what it is is a maintenance-of-effort provision
2834 to make sure that we're protecting funding for our law
2835 enforcement. I mean, we are hearing across the country the 2836 clarion call of "Defend the police," and some people in some cities
2837 are following through with that. And we're seeing the results
2838 of higher crime. So, I'm asking for your support today for this 2839 amendment to the One Stop Shop Community Reentry Center Grant
2840 Program.

2841 Today, we are seeing bills that aim to lessen the penalties
2842 for those who willingly choose to break our laws, victimize
2843 families, and harm our communities. Crime rates are soaring
2844 across America. It's important that we support those who enforce 2845 the laws of this nation, those men and women who sacrifice each 2846 day to make our communities safer, from those who are 2847 beneficiaries of reduced criminal penalties and no cash bail
2848 systems.

2849 My amendment does that and prohibits grant money from being 2850 awarded to states who arbitrarily and capriciously defund their 2851 police departments to appease the loud minority. If we are

2852 proposing giving grants to reintegrate convicted criminals into 2853 society, we must also never forget the hard work and sacrifices
2854 made by those who investigate the crimes, protect the victims
2855 of crimes, prevent crimes, and bring those same criminals to 2856 justice. I strongly urge my colleagues to support this amendment
2857 to show solidarity and support for our law enforcement and first 2858 responders.

2859 Mr. Chairman, this is really an important amendment to this 2860 to make sure that the funding is getting to where it is supposed
2861 to. And that's why I term it a maintenance-of-effort provision, 2862 so that the funding for law enforcement agencies is protected.

2863 And I hear the continued talk about the FIRST STEP Act that 2864 was such an important piece of legislation; other pieces of 2865 legislation here that are reducing criminal penalties, that they 2866 are so important, that there's a better way to go about this than 2867 there was 30 to 40 years ago. Well, I have to say that, if the 2868 funding does not stay with our police departments, which this 2869 amendment will make sure that it does, your actions could 2870 jeopardize things like the FIRST STEP Act.

2871 I mean, this is a great experiment that's going on in America
2872 right now, and I can tell you Americans are deeply concerned about 2873 rising crime. They saw it last year, and with the riots that 2874 were held across this country, it sent a clear message to people,
2875 some who have taken advantage of that message, that, you know

2876 what? Law enforcement is backing down. And that is exactly 2877 what's happened.

2878 In fact, you can see how the message is resonating with the 2879 populace, rather than, as I term, the loud minority, by what 2880 happened in the New York City Mayor's primary race, where you
2881 had someone with law enforcement who received the most votes.

2882 And I think you're going to see more of that because it is average
2883 Americans that see the horrible effects of rising crime across 2884 America, and Americans are not going to accept that for long.

2885 And my colleague from Texas referred to the pendulum a little 2886 bit earlier. I would just say, make sure that we're funding law
2887 enforcement. Make sure we're giving law enforcement the respect 2888 that they deserve, that we're giving them the tools that they 2889 need to have. Because we need someone that is going to stand
2890 up for victims, someone who is going to take the bad guys and 2891 make sure that they're going to be sent to jail and prosecuted.

2892 Otherwise, we're going to see that pendulum swing back, and what 2893 you saw back in the 1980s could repeat itself again in the 2894 not-too-distant future. If you want to save lives, if you want 2895 to make sure law enforcement has their tools, you will vote for 2896 this amendment.

2897 I yield back, Mr. Chairman.

2898 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

2899 I recognize myself in opposition to the amendment.

2900 This amendment has nothing to do with this bill. The bill
2901 is talking about reentry centers for veterans. The amendment
2902 is talking about the merits of defunding a police department.

2903 And the gentleman quite correctly points out that the 2904 electorate in New York City, at least in the Democratic primary 2905 recently, supported a candidate who favored greater spending on 2906 the police, but maybe next year they'll support a candidate who 2907 wishes to change some of the funding from the police department
2908 to the fire department, because we have a lot of fires, or 2909 whatever, but that's up to the people.

2910 In any event, it has nothing to do with this bill and 2911 shouldn't be in this bill. It's a distraction. And I oppose 2912 the amendment for that reason.

2913 I yield back.

2914 Mr. Jordan. Mr. Chairman?

2915 Chairman Nadler. For what purpose does the gentleman from 2916 Ohio seek recognition?

2917 Mr. Jordan. Strike the last word.

2918 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

2919 Mr. Jordan. Yes, I support the amendment. I mean, this 2920 is about public safety. That's what this bill is. We've both 2921 talked about reducing recidivism rates and public safety. This 2922 is about public safety. This is a fundamental issue that is one 2923 of the key debates in our culture, in our country today. And

2924 we all know what has happened to every single major urban area
2925 in this country, as police forces around the nation have been 2926 defunded.

2927 So, it's a straightforward, simple amendment. It makes 2928 sense, good common sense. We should keep the bipartisan approach
2929 that has been evident here today and been in practice here today.
2930 We should keep that in play and support this amendment. It's 2931 a good amendment to a good piece of legislation.

2932 And I would yield the balance of my time to the gentleman
2933 from Wisconsin.

2934 Mr. Tiffany. I just want to say thank you to the gentleman
2935 from Ohio for yielding.

2936 So, the term was used by the chair that this is a distraction.
2937 You go tell that to the people in Minneapolis. You go tell that 2938 to the people in New York City. You go tell that to the people
2939 in Portland, a beautiful city that is now becoming the Beirut
2940 of the West Coast. Just talk to people who have been there to 2941 Portland, because I have, and they're seeing the harmful effects 2942 of crime.

2943 And all this bill does is make sure that those dollars are 2944 spent by law enforcement. It's a simple maintenance-of-effort
2945 provision. There is nothing wrong with adding this to this bill.

2946 I mean, when I sat in the state legislature, we saw 2947 maintenance-of-effort provisions all the time from the federal

2948 government. And this is an appropriate one to make sure that 2949 we're funding the police.

2950 And this goes right back to the difference between us and 2951 the other side at this point. Are you going to stand up against 2952 rising crime or not?

2953 Ms. Bass. Will the gentleman yield?

2954 Mr. Tiffany. You're going to have to make a choice here.
2955 Are you going to stand up against rising crime, and are you going 2956 to stand with the police? Because this --

2957 Ms. Bass. Will the gentleman yield?

2958 Mr. Tiffany. Just one second.

2959 This makes sure that resources are not taken away from police
2960 departments. Because I've seen the actions from places like 2961 Minneapolis and other cities where they're making clear yet that 2962 they want to defund the police, and they'll find any way to do
2963 it. And we should not allow them to take federal money that's 2964 going to be authorized with this bill and backfilling it with 2965 money that they pull away. Let's make sure that that does not 2966 happen.

2967 I yield to the gentlewoman.

2968 Ms. Bass. Thank you.

2969 I am confused because I know that you're expressing
2970 tremendous concern about defunding the police, but my confusion
2971 is that my colleagues on the other side of the aisle that were

2972 concerned about defunding the police also voted against the Rescue
2973 Plan that provided billions of dollars to local governments, so 2974 that they could fund the police. So, why is it that you are 2975 concerned about this bill, which has nothing to do with funding
2976 the police, has everything to do with preventing crime by making
2977 sure that people who come out of prison can successfully
2978 reintegrate and have jobs and not commit crimes?

2979 I yield back.

2980 Mr. Tiffany. I reclaim my time.

2981 So, thank you for your comments from the gentlewoman from 2982 California.

2983 And, yes, we want good reentry programs. We want people
2984 to get that rehabilitation. That's really important. I voted 2985 for those things like drug courts and others when I was in the 2986 state legislature in Wisconsin. I understand how important they 2987 are.

2988 But you asked why we put this here. Because now is the place
2989 and time.

2990 Ms. Bass. Why you voted against the Rescue Plan.

2991 Mr. Tiffany. Now is the place and time. Now is the place
2992 and time to deal with this. I mean, we have a bill before us.

2993 We want to make sure -- or this amendment will make sure that 2994 we do not have a city or any municipality across the country
2995 somewhere that wants to take this money and backfill, because

2996 there are sometimes some clever bean counters in some 2997 municipalities that they chose to do such things. Let's make 2998 sure that the money that's going to be going for this program,
2999 that it doesn't go for other purposes and that we make sure that 3000 our law enforcement is able to retain the money that's been 3001 allocated to them --

3002 Mr. Cicilline. Mr. Tiffany, will you yield for a question?

3003 Mr. Tiffany. -- as we go forward.

3004 Mr. Cicilline. Mr. Tiffany, will you yield for a question?

3005 Mr. Tiffany. I yield back the balance of my time.

3006 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

3007 For what purpose does the gentleman from Rhode Island, Mr.
3008 Cicilline, seek recognition?

3009 Mr. Cicilline. I move to strike the last word.

3010 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

3011 Mr. Cicilline. I want to just associate myself with the 3012 remarks of Congresswoman Bass. This has nothing to do with this 3013 bill.

3014 But I would make one point about the consequences of this 3015 amendment, which I'm sure Mr. Tiffany doesn't intend. But I was 3016 mayor of the city of Providence, and we created this highly 3017 effective, and now nationally recognized, program where we 3018 partnered with a community-based organization on the issue of 3019 domestic violence. And experts in domestic violence prevention

3020 actually ride with police officers to arrive at the scene of a 3021 domestic violence call, so they can immediately interact with 3022 the victim of domestic violence, particularly children, because 3023 of the trauma that children experience while someone is being 3024 arrested and the police arrive at their home. It's an incredibly 3025 effective program, one which the police helped create and strongly 3026 support.

3027 And so, the Providence Police Department allocates some 3028 resources to that agency that does this work. And I think your 3029 amendment would say they would no longer be eligible because it
3030 says that defund means, with respect to any police department, 3031 that the budget of such police department is reduced for any 3032 reason. This was reduced for a really, really good reason, one 3033 the police wanted and supported that reduced crime; reduced the 3034 trauma of domestic violence; made response to domestic violence
3035 calls safer.

3036 So, I get that you're trying to raise this issue of defunding 3037 the police. It has nothing to do with this bill. But, even the 3038 way it's drafted, it would prevent the kind of community police
3039 partnerships that are so critical in reducing crime.

3040 So, I urge you to withdraw your amendment, so we can get 3041 back to Congresswoman Bass' excellent bill on reentry. And -- 3042 Mr. Raskin. But would the gentleman yield?

3043 Mr. Cicilline. Of course, I'll yield to the gentleman from 3044 Maryland.

3045 Mr. Raskin. Well, I just wanted to thank the former mayor
3046 of Providence, Rhode Island, our distinguished colleague, Mr.
3047 Cicilline, for pointing this out. This is what jumped out at 3048 me immediately. This amendment is a radical assault on 3049 federalism and the right of state and local governments to manage 3050 their own budgets.

3051 It's defining "defunding," and I understand that that's the 3052 word of the hour. And so, the whole point is to try to inject 3053 political rhetoric into this. But it defines "defunding" as any 3054 reduction of any amount. It could be a thousand dollars in a
3055 police budget for any purpose at all, other than reflecting a
3056 decrease in revenue. Why would we try to micromanage the budgets
3057 of tens of thousands of jurisdictions across the country in this 3058 way, all to make a political point?

3059 You know, if you want to demonstrate your support for law
3060 enforcement, and I understand that you do, then please go meet
3061 with Officer Fanone, meet with Officer Dunn, meet with the law
3062 enforcement officers who saved our lives against the worst violent
3063 assault on the U.S. Capitol in our lifetimes with domestic terror
3064 groups involved in it.

3065 And we understand that there's an attempt to make up for 3066 the bill here. You have a lot of people to support law enforcement 3067 in this context, but this is a bad way to do it.

3068 And I yield back to the gentleman.

3069 Mr. Cicilline. I yield back, Mr. Chairman.

3070 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

3071 For what purpose does Mr. Bishop seek recognition?

3072 Mr. Bishop. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. To strike the last 3073 word.

3074 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

3075 Mr. Bishop. I thought I would comment very briefly on the 3076 gentlewoman from California's point suggesting that one of most 3077 amazing contentions in modern political discourse that I've ever
3078 heard is that members of the Republican Party who did not support
3079 the $1.9 trillion Christmas tree earlier this year, that did 3080 almost nothing for COVID relief, were in the process, did by that 3081 vote, defund police.

3082 One of the things that came out after that notion was 3083 popularized by Democrats and their allies in the media is that 3084 there's no mention of police in the entire legislation. The 3085 possibility on which this premise rests, apparently, is that some 3086 of the money that was spewed around, and has resulted in inflation
3087 in which the price of milk and eggs is up for every Americans, 3088 a tax increase, a regressive tax increase on Americans in every 3089 way, that result has occurred. But the notion that there could 3090 have been something connected to the police is that some of that 3091 money could have been used by somebody to augment a police budget.

3092 It is almost as if the Members on the other side do not know
3093 how police are paid for in this country.

3094 Policing is a local government function. And Democrats
3095 across the country, since last summer, including Members of this 3096 body, have repeatedly called for police to be defunded and/or 3097 abolished. That is the issue to which Mr. Tiffany's amendment
3098 speaks, I believe.

3099 And the notion, in response to that, that Republicans are 3100 trying to defund the police is almost -- I don't know whether 3101 it's funny or clueless, but it's one or the other.

3102 Mr. Cicilline. Mr. Biggs, will you yield? And maybe I can 3103 clarify for you.

3104 Mr. Bishop. Well, let me --

3105 Mr. Cicilline. I'm sorry. Mr. Bishop. I know Mr. Biggs 3106 would never make a comment like that.

3107 [Laughter.]

3108 Mr. Bishop. Mr. Tiffany had asked for me to yield to him.
3109 So, I'm going to yield to him. If he's got time, I'll yield
3110 to Mr. Cicilline.

3111 Mr. Tiffany --

3112 Mr. Tiffany. Thank you.

3113 Mr. Bishop. -- I yield to you.

3114 Mr. Tiffany. Yes, thank you for yielding, Mr. Bishop.

3115 So, just a couple of things. We just heard, in regards to 3116 the assault on the Capitol -- and I can understand why the 3117 gentleman from Maryland may not be familiar with it -- but I was 3118 there in 2011 when there was a three-week assault on the Wisconsin

3119 State Capitol, when people were hunkered down, bedded down in 3120 the Wisconsin State Capitol. I've seen it before.

3121 And also, I heard this thing about a radical assault on local 3122 government. I mean, in just a little over a year that I've been 3123 here, as I read these bills and stuff like that, I mean, talk
3124 about an assault on local government. I mean, we are sending 3125 down mandates and requirements, and all kinds of stuff, that are 3126 just simply constant. I mean, when I sit in the other committee 3127 -- I'm on Natural Resources -- I just see it constantly, how the 3128 federal government is dictating to local governments. So, to 3129 hear that there's this radical assault on local government that 3130 this is, I think that's rather disingenuous.

3131 I'm not going to withdraw this amendment. I think this is 3132 a really important amendment to make sure that police are funded
3133 appropriately across our country, even if some people don't want 3134 to do it, especially in our big cities of the United States.
3135 I think we need to continue to fund the police.

3136 And if you're serious about crime, as the American people
3137 are right now -- because just talk to the American people at this 3138 point, this is one of their top three issues, especially if you're 3139 in the cities. They are tired of the crime, especially the 3140 violent crime. I mean, we've seen the statistics, the increases.

3141 I mean, just a few months ago in Minneapolis, what was it?

3142 Carjackings were up over 300 percent. I mean, those type of crime

3143 statistics we are seeing across the country.

3144 This protects funding for the police and, hopefully, gets

3145 us to a place where we have less violent crime that is happening

3146 in our country, because it's out of control right now.

3147 I yield back to the gentleman from North Carolina.

3148 Mr. Bishop. And before I yield a few seconds to Mr.

3149 Cicilline, I would say that one thing, for those who would suggest,

3150 as I mentioned earlier, the absurd notion that voting against

3151 the $1.9 trillion big spending bill meant you were against police,

3152 it's really simple to decide whether you are for, or to signal

3153 whether you're for or against police by voting for this amendment.

3154 And if you vote no, everybody knows. It's very clear.

3155 I yield to the gentleman from Rhode Island.

3156 Mr. Cicilline. I thank the gentleman for yielding.

3157 I just would make the point to amplify Congresswoman Bass'

3158 point. We appropriated $350 billion to state and local 3159 government in the Coronavirus Relief Fund. The Department of 3160 the Treasury specifically said law enforcement was eligible for

3161 that funding because of the rise in crime during the COVID

3162 pandemic.

3163 So, you can say you support the police, but we should judge

3164 you by your actions. You voted against $350 billion which could 3165 be used to fund local police departments. I know the cities and 3166 towns that I represent, they'll be using some of that to support
3167 law enforcement. So, it's easy to say you're for the police,
3168 but in the moment when you were tested, every single Republican
3169 voted against funding the police. That's Congresswoman Bass'
3170 point.

3171 And I yield back and thank the gentleman for extending the 3172 courtesy.

3173 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman's time has expired.

3174 For what purpose does Mrs. Demings seek recognition?

3175 Mrs. Demings. Move to strike the last word.

3176 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

3177 Mrs. Demings. Mr. Chairman, are we at this again? Are we 3178 really doing this yet again? We all have a lot of things to say,
3179 but I would prefer to look at what you do. You're sitting here,
3180 yet again -- Mr. Chairman, they are sitting here, yet again,
3181 talking about supporting the police, funding the police, when 3182 they voted against the opportunity to fund police when local 3183 governments were screaming for help, and the American Rescue Plan
3184 would have helped them. They didn't support the police then.

3185 Secondly, when the police were being attacked -- it's not 3186 what you say; it's what you do -- on January 6, and you had an 3187 opportunity to vote in favor of an independent commission that

3188 would have gotten to the bottom of it and held every criminal 3189 accountable, not just the ones who, the 550-something who were 3190 arrested for attacking the police, but those who incited it, those 3191 who inspired it, those who funded it, and you chose not to do 3192 that.

3193 You know, let me tell you about the heart of a good police
3194 officer, because I believe there's a little lesson that needs
3195 to be taught here. There's nobody more dedicated, and as a former 3196 officer, to protecting and serving our communities, but we don't 3197 pick and choose, as law enforcement, when we want to do that.

3198 Good police officers do their job well, but you know what? They 3199 are also very supportive of programs just like this because they 3200 understand you hold the most violent criminals accountable, but 3201 you also work to address the quality-of-life issues that plague
3202 communities in the first place.

3203 So, here we are again with rhetoric. If you support the 3204 police, don't pick and choose the moments that you want to do
3205 that. Support police all the time.

3206 Mr. Chairman, I yield back.

3207 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

3208 For what purpose does Mr. Chabot seek recognition?

3209 Mr. Chabot. Move to strike the last word.

3210 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

3211 Mr. Chabot. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

3212 I think what you're seeing here is kind of desperation.
3213 My Democratic colleagues are desperate. It's so clear; they're 3214 in trouble. They know they're on the brink, on the verge of losing 3215 the House and control of this committee in the relative near 3216 future.

3217 And one of the key issues that they're losing, they've lost
3218 the American public on, is support for the police and the crime
3219 that's rampant across the country, particularly in our cities.

3220 And so, the gentleman from Wisconsin here has offered, I
3221 think, a perfectly legitimate amendment that we'll see on this 3222 vote how it goes down. My guess is all the Republicans will vote 3223 for it, support it, and I think all the Democrats will vote against 3224 it, even though they'll say they support the police, but they'll 3225 vote against it.

3226 And let's, again, look at this amendment. It, basically,
3227 says, if a community defunds the police department, they're not 3228 eligible for grants under this program or this fund or this bill
3229 or this section. So, you defund the police; you don't get any 3230 of this money. It's perfectly clear, and we'll see on the vote
3231 which side members ultimately fall.

3232 And now, they're trying, because they are so desperate and 3233 understand that they're in trouble because their support for the 3234 police, I was going to say is being questioned. It's really not 3235 being questioned. And it's not every Democrat. We'll see how

3236 they vote, but it's not every Democrat, but there certainly are 3237 Democrats who want to defund the police.

3238 Ms. Lofgren. Would the gentleman yield?

3239 Mr. Chabot. Well, I'm on a roll here.

3240 [Laughter.]

3241 Ms. Lofgren. All right.

3242 Mr. Chabot. If I have some time left at the end, I will.

3243 So, the Democrats, as I say, are desperate. And so, they've 3244 thrown back -- and Ms. Bass is a good friend of mine and I respect
3245 her tremendously. We have worked here on a whole range of issues.

3246 She's great. But she's also indicated that, well, to 3247 Republicans, well, you voted against this one bill, and therefore,
3248 you voted against funding for the police. And they're talking
3249 about this so-called rescue bill or the COVID relief bill.

3250 Now let's look back before that, in the last Congress where 3251 Democrats controlled one house. They controlled the House of 3252 Representatives. Republicans controlled the Senate. So, it had 3253 to be bipartisan.

3254 So, when we were dealing with COVID around this place, it
3255 was bipartisan. We passed the CARES Act and a whole range of 3256 bills that were bipartisan. We had the PPP program. I was the 3257 lead Republican on the House Small Business Committee at the time, 3258 and we saved a whole of jobs all over the country because of that 3259 program. There's a lot of other good stuff in there. They were 3260 bipartisan bills.

3261 The Democrats took over both houses as a result of the last 3262 election. And so, they didn't have to be bipartisan anymore.

3263 So, they had this almost $2 trillion bill that was a so-called 3264 "COVID relief". That's what it was called, COVID relief bill.
3265 Nine percent of the money in there went for COVID relief.

3266 And this money that they were giving out to cities, for 3267 example, could be spent for anything. As my colleague from North
3268 Carolina, Mr. Bishop, said, there's not a word in there about 3269 police. And they're saying, "Well, maybe the police could have 3270 got some of that." But it wasn't in there.

3271 We know that it was given to cities to do whatever the heck
3272 they wanted to and states. States that got in financial trouble 3273 because of bad decisions, huge amounts of money for that.

3274 And, yes, I think all the Republicans voted against that 3275 huge boondoggle bill that wasn't bipartisan. And now, they're 3276 saying, because they're so desperate, that, "Oh, Republicans are 3277 against the police." Well, we'll see what the public, the way
3278 they look at this, which party is more for the police, Republicans
3279 or Democrats. There's no question in my mind. That's why
3280 they're so scared on this issue.

3281 When we talked about protecting the police, look at in this 3282 very committee the qualified immunity debate. They wanted to 3283 take away, basically, the little protection that police officers

3284 have. They wanted to allow them to be sued personally -- your 3285 personal assets. Who's going to want to become a police officer
3286 if they can go after your kids' college funds or your pension,
3287 stuff that's basically for your family, because you've violated
3288 some rule and you may not even have known it? You may have 3289 followed police policies. They were willing to put the police 3290 in that kind of jeopardy. That was their answer to the 3291 instability that we saw a couple of summers back.

3292 So, I would just conclude here, because I'm about running
3293 out of time, that there's no question which party is supportive
3294 of the police and trying to do something about this out-of-control
3295 stuff that's going on all over the community.

3296 And defunding the police almost happened in my community
3297 in Cincinnati. They had on the ballot there to take $50 million
3298 from the police and give it to so-called affordable housing.
3299 And that's the kind of thing this is all about.

3300 So, thank you for offering this amendment.

3301 And I'm out of time. I yield back.

3302 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

3303 For what purpose does Ms. Dean seek recognition?

3304 Ms. Dean. Mr. Chairman, to strike the last word.

3305 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

3306 Ms. Dean. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

3307 I rise to oppose this amendment. And it is a striking

3308 amendment, and the use of the language any local government that 3309 moves to defund the police, if somehow those on the other side
3310 of the aisle were among that list of those who defund the police, 3311 you would be disqualified as a result from the funding.

3312 Let's take a look at what really happened over the course
3313 of the last year or so.

3314 Following the insurrection, many in the conference on the 3315 other side of the aisle would not meet with Capitol police. Not 3316 a single member of the Republican Congress voted for support for 3317 late -- state and local government, which every one of our 3318 municipalities, boroughs were crying for. And, fortunately, I
3319 will say, Democrats got it done, and $350 billion has gone out 3320 to state and local governments to support the very people who 3321 keep us safe. That is called funding the police.

3322 We passed a security supplemental for Capitol police in 3323 desperate need of resources. The great majority of your members
3324 vote no. You wanted to defund the Capitol police. They now
3325 remain at risk of not being able to pay salaries, let alone beef
3326 up the support that they need, the capital that General Honore 3327 spoke about.

3328 And, finally, most shamefully, 21 of your members couldn't 3329 bring him or herself to vote in favor of the recognition of the 3330 gold medal for Capitol police who literally saved every one of 3331 our lives.

3332 So, I rise in opposition to this reckless, fearmongering
3333 amendment that is not based in fact or truth.

3334 I do lend my support for the underlying legislation, the 3335 One Stop Shop Community Reentry Program. This is a common sense 3336 piece of legislation to address the challenges of millions of 3337 Americans who were thrown into a vicious cycle the scholars have 3338 labeled the revolving door to prison.

3339 This year alone we have spoken multiple times of our broken
3340 criminal justice system. Again, more than 2 million individuals
3341 are currently incarcerated, but we don't discuss that over 95
3342 percent of those who are incarcerated will eventually be released
3343 back into our communities.

3344 What are we doing about that? What are we, as a body, doing
3345 to represent these Americans so that they can become active
3346 citizens again? Current law makes it impossible to find work, 3347 find health care, find a home. And this is wrong. This is 3348 America, we know this is wrong.

3349 I commend Representative Bass on addressing this issue
3350 through the holistic legislation. The bill streamlines the 3351 services that have been proven to decrease recidivism rates in 3352 the United States. Formerly incarcerated people are almost ten 3353 times more likely to be unhoused than the general public. This 3354 is a bill that goes beyond rehabilitation services; it goes to 3355 acknowledging the humanity of formerly incarcerated people. We

3356 have a duty to give people returning to society a fighting chance
3357 at reentry and regaining their families and their lives.

3358 After someone serves his or her time, he or she should not 3359 be punished in perpetuity. This bill takes a logical step to 3360 address that issue. I urge all of my colleagues to support this 3361 legislation and encourage us to consider and yield the balance
3362 of our time in order to do such work.

3363 Again, defunding the police, sadly, is a response by the 3364 other side of the aisle, it is not the response here.

3365 And I yield back.

3366 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

3367 For what purpose does Mr. Biggs seek recognition?

3368 Mr. Biggs. Move to strike the last word.

3369 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

3370 Mr. Biggs. Thank you so much.

3371 I am actually kind of getting a kick out of this because 3372 I am beginning to think people really believe the rhetoric that 3373 the Republicans voted to defund the police by voting no on this 3374 monstrosity spending bill. But you know what, our loyal
3375 supporters in the media, those people who always support us
3376 Republicans and conservatives in the media, the Washington Post
3377 -- wait a second, I got that backwards -- but even the Washington
3378 Post said, un-un, Democrats, three Pinocchios, three Pinocchios
3379 on you for saying that by voting against that bill that was a

3380 defund motion.

3381 The Post's Salvador Rizzo wrote, "Although Republicans all
3382 opposed Biden's coronavirus relief package, no one voted to cut 3383 or defund anything."

3384 So, you can spin that all you want, but it is simply untrue.
3385 And the reason, the reason that you all are saying that is because 3386 you passed a bill out of here earlier on did two things: moved 3387 hundreds of millions of dollars out of policing into filing
3388 federally-mandated reports, moving it from normal police
3389 activities so you can get more reports and information to distract 3390 them from the job of policing that they want to do. And in that 3391 bill you threw in elimination of qualified immunity.

3392 That is a big deal. So, so let's just see here. President
3393 Biden said he supported reallocating police resources. The Vice 3394 President said, I applaud Ed Garcetti for defunding the L.A.
3395 police, we have to renege on public safety.

3396 Biden's Associate A.G. General Vanita Gupta said officials
3397 must give calls to decrease police budgets.

3398 Boston mayor, Biden's Secretary of Labor Marty Walsh, when 3399 he was mayor, said, proposed a budget to divert funding from law
3400 enforcement.

3401 A member of this committee said the Minneapolis City Council
3402 "was very thoughtful voting to dismantle the police."

3403 The speaker, fellow Democrats refused to criticize the

3404 Minneapolis City Council that did defund police when they were 3405 given the opportunity to.

3406 Another member of our body said protestors need to get more
3407 confrontational with police.

3408 Another representative from the other side of the aisle said,
3409 called for dismantling the Minneapolis Police Department. And 3410 a member of this committee called for defunding police.

3411 And recently, in the last two weeks, we have had two members
3412 of not this committee, but this body from the other side of the 3413 aisle, one stood by the calls to reallocate resources away from 3414 police, saying that a reaction to that based on crime is just 3415 "hysteria."

3416 Another said she still supports defunding police.

3417 Let's not, let's not spin this away from what it is.

3418 Here, how about some cities? Maybe this will help you
3419 understand. Cities that have defunded police:

3420 Austin, $150 million cut;

3421 Baltimore, $22 million;

3422 Boston, $12 million;

3423 Burlington, Vermont, a million;

3424 Columbus, $23 million;

3425 Denver, $55 million;

3426 Eureka, California, $1.2 million;

3427 Hartford, $2 million;

3428 L.A., California, $175 million cut.

3429 The only time I've actually agreed with the sheriff of L.A.
3430 County. He came from Arizona. He went from Arizona over to L.A.
3431 I have seen his career. When he was bellyaching recently and 3432 one of the things he -- well, that is kind of where I am, too,
3433 but one of the things I thought that was so interesting about
3434 it is he brought up the defund police movement in L.A.

3435 Madison, Wisconsin, $2 million;

3436 Minneapolis, $8 million;

3437 New York, a billion;

3438 Norman, Oklahoma, $865,000;

3439 Oakland, California, $14.6 million;

3440 Oklahoma City, $5.5 million;

3441 Philadelphia, PA, $33 million;

3442 Portland, $50 million;

3443 Salt Lake, 5.3;

3444 San Francisco, $120 million;

3445 Seattle, $69 million;

3446 Steamboat Spring, $1.5 million;

3447 Washington, D.C., $50 million;

3448 Total, $1.73 billion cut. What do they all have in common?

3449 They are not led by Republican mayors or councils. How about 3450 that? That spin it enough for you?

3451 I got another laugh when someone talked about the Independent

3452 Commission regarding January 6th. It is so independent that 3453 Nancy Pelosi has control of the membership of that committee and 3454 said -- and that said, and she booted off two of our members.
3455 That is independence for you. That is fair. That is getting 3456 to the bottom of things.

3457 I tell you what, when I hear the revisionist history coming
3458 from across the aisle today on this, it is outrageous. That gets 3459 us to the point of where we sit.

3460 Chairman Nadler. Will the gentleman yield?

3461 Mr. Biggs. No. I am finishing now. I have 18 seconds,
3462 otherwise I would. I have 18 seconds, I have to finish up here.

3463 I support this amendment. It is rational. It makes good 3464 sense. It is tied to what we are trying to do here today.

3465 And with that, Mr. Chairman, I yield back.

3466 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

3467 For what purpose does the gentlelady from California seek
3468 recognition?

3469 Ms. Bass. Move to strike the last word.

3470 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

3471 Ms. Bass. Yield to you.

3472 Chairman Nadler. Thank you.

3473 The gentleman spoke of why Nancy Pelosi didn't let the 3474 Republicans have the people they want on the commission. The 3475 fact of the matter is, you gave her that right. You gave it to 3476 her. You could have had an independent commission.

3477 Remember, there was an independent commission set up that 3478 the Democrats wanted, with an equal number of Republicans and 3479 an equal number of Democrats, and the Republican Senate voted 3480 it down. So, we had to set up a select committee, and that select 3481 committee is an unequal number and the Speaker has choices.

3482 But you gave her that choice because you refused. By "you"
3483 I mean the Republicans, not you, Mr. Biggs. You, the Republicans, 3484 set up this situation by voting down the independent commission
3485 which would have had an equal number of Republicans, an equal 3486 number of Democrats, and the --

3487 Mr. Bishop. Would the gentleman yield for a question?

3488 Chairman Nadler. In a moment.

3489 And the Speaker would not have had any power of choice.

3490 I will yield to --

3491 Ms. Bass. He can't. He can't yield my time.

3492 Mr. Bishop. Will the gentlewoman yield for a question?

3493 Ms. Bass. I reclaim my time.

3494 Mr. Bishop. Will the gentlewoman yield for a question?

3495 Ms. Bass. I will yield to Representative Cicilline first.

3496 Mr. Cicilline. I thank the gentlelady for yielding.

3497 I have spoken on the amendments. I would like to spend a
3498 moment to get us back on track and talk about the actual piece
3499 of legislation before us.

3500 I want to thank you, Chairman Nadler, for holding this 3501 markup, and thank you to Congresswoman Bass for her extraordinary
3502 leadership in sponsoring this necessary bipartisan and bicameral
3503 legislation that gives formerly incarcerated people a fighting
3504 chance at success upon release.

3505 Every year roughly 600,000 people in the United States are 3506 released from state and federal prisons. Though no longer behind 3507 bars, in many ways their sentences continue. A victim of sexual 3508 abuse who served time for drug-related charges should have the 3509 opportunity to find safe, affordable housing, and substance abuse
3510 treatment upon release.

3511 A person suffering from mental illness who was convicted
3512 of a low-level drug charge should have the opportunity to find 3513 a job to support their family.

3514 According to a March 2020 report by the Prison Policy
3515 Initiative, most crimes committed in the United States are 3516 misdemeanors or non-criminal violations, not serious or violent 3517 crimes.

3518 Low-level offenses like technical violations of probation
3519 and parole often lead to incarceration and additional 3520 consequences. But instead of investing in community-driven
3521 safety initiatives, many cities and counties continue to spend 3522 inordinate amounts of taxpayer money on incarcerating people for 3523 minor offenses.

3524 I mentioned earlier I served as Mayor of Providence. During 3525 that time, I assembled a reentry council that brought together
3526 community leaders, housing experts, religious leaders, business
3527 folks to help formerly incarcerated individuals to transition
3528 back into the community safely after they completed their 3529 sentence.

3530 During my time as mayor, I saw how increasing access to 3531 reentry services helps reduce the likelihood that people will 3532 return to prison. Comprehensive reentry services, including 3533 food assistance, access to employment opportunities help to 3534 ensure that justice-involved individuals have the support they 3535 need to provide for themselves and their families and to be 3536 productive members of their communities.

3537 That is why I am proud to support this legislation which 3538 provides grants to community-based organizations and other
3539 eligible entities to create community reentry centers. There
3540 is currently no agency responsible for helping people who are 3541 released from prison in obtaining essential services or 3542 overcoming the stigma of incarceration.

3543 The One Stop Shop Community Reentry Program Act incentivizes
3544 community-based solutions for access to housing, education,
3545 employment, and health care. It also assists with reconnecting 3546 returning prisoners to their families and neighborhoods. The 3547 resources and services offered include everything from help with

3548 obtaining an I.D. or a driver's license, to referrals for legal 3549 assistance, family counseling, and facilitating treatment or 3550 access to health care.

3551 This legislation removes barriers to essential services for 3552 successful reentry and seeks to end the revolving door of 3553 recidivism. It helps people navigate life after prison. And,
3554 importantly, it makes our communities safer. It gives people
3555 a second chance.

3556 I urge my colleagues to support this bill. And I thank 3557 Congresswoman Bass for her really strong leadership on a piece 3558 of legislation that is going to make our communities safer and 3559 lead to many more individuals leading productive, healthy,
3560 law-abiding lives. And for that, our nation owes her a debt of 3561 gratitude.

3562 I yield back.

3563 Ms. Bass. For my colleagues on the other side of the aisle
3564 that have raised repeatedly the rise in crime, this bill
3565 specifically addresses that issue by successfully reintegrating
3566 people back into the community so that they won't re-offend.
3567 Providing them access to jobs, access to housing is a way to reduce 3568 crime.

3569 So, I would ask for their support. And I would also ask
3570 that we get back to the issue at hand and vote for this bill.

3571 I yield back.

3572 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

3573 For what purpose does Ms. Fischbach seek recognition?

3574 Ms. Fischbach. Mr. Chair, I move to strike the last word.

3575 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

3576 Ms. Fischbach. Mr. Chair, first I would like to associate 3577 myself with the comments of my colleague from Arizona, and 3578 particularly my colleague from Ohio who did talk about the COVID 3579 relief package that the Democrats are saying was our vote against,
3580 the Republican vote against police officers.

3581 But I do want to just yield to my colleague from Wisconsin,
3582 who is the author of the amendment, to talk a little bit more
3583 about it.

3584 Mr. Tiffany. Thank you. Thank you to the gentlewoman from 3585 Minnesota for yielding.

3586 So, the question was posed, are we at this again? And I
3587 would just say that what I have seen here in 2021 is we get rare
3588 chances to amend bills. I think about some of the other
3589 committees that I am in. We see stuff that just goes straight 3590 to the floor, straight to the floor, not going through regular 3591 process. I don't have any examples immediately offhand, but that 3592 has been striking to me over the last couple months that you would 3593 like to propose an amendment but, boy, that bill is going straight 3594 to the floor.

3595 And what I hear from committee chairs is that, boy, this 3596 is so urgent we just have to get this done.

3597 So, when we do get an opportunity to offer an amendment,
3598 I think it is very important to do it. And this was the one time
3599 that I could get an amendment in in regards to a maintenance of 3600 effort provision.

3601 And by the way, to the author of the bill, I know her
3602 intentions are genuine and sincere. There is no question about 3603 that. I am not questioning that at all. What I am saying is 3604 that this is an opportunity to make sure that we don't have cities 3605 that are going to be defunding their police. And I believe the 3606 American people, I believe the American people agree with that.

3607 And I will go back to the comments I made in my original 3608 remarks. Crime is rising in our country. It is. And the 3609 pendulum swings. And you are going to jeopardize the gains with 3610 the First Step Act and things like that if we don't make sure 3611 we have good policing in our communities around America. And 3612 that is why an amendment like this, while it is small in the scheme 3613 of things is really important to make sure that we are sending 3614 a message also that we in Congress want changes in policing, we 3615 want some changes in law enforcement and things like that, but,
3616 by gosh, we do want public safety to continue to be preeminent
3617 because it is one of our number one duties is to make sure that 3618 we are providing for the public safety.

3619 So, this amendment is given to you sincerely. And I believe

3620 if you, if you want to make sure that the police are funded around
3621 our country, which I believe most of us do, this is a really good 3622 amendment. We see maintenance of effort provisions that are put 3623 in bills regularly. While I am not a big fan of them oftentimes,
3624 I think this is an instance when it comes to public safety where 3625 maintenance of effort is appropriate.

3626 And I yield back and thank my colleague from Minnesota.

3627 Ms. Fischbach. Thank you. And I yield.

3628 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back. Oh, sorry.

3629 Mr. Tiffany. I yield back.

3630 Ms. Fischbach. No. Mr. Chair, I yield the remainder of 3631 my time to my colleague from North Carolina.

3632 Mr. Bishop. I thank the gentlelady.

3633 You know, I think one other point needs to be made. Mr.
3634 Biggs did a fine job of reciting the proposed calling out this 3635 rhetoric that Republicans had not supported police by virtue of 3636 not voting for the massive COVID bill, the 1.9 -- we said it was 3637 a COVID bill, but it wasn't even that.

3638 But I think there is another point that deserves to be made.

3639 The question of funding police is not one -- those who have 3640 defunded police across the country did not do so because of the 3641 availability of money or its lack. Rather, they did it for 3642 ideological reasons. They did it because they believed, they 3643 articulated a belief that that was the way to make things better.

3644 The gentlewoman from Michigan in this body said, end
3645 policing. That is what she said. And I understand why that 3646 produces desperation on the other side. Because -- and you will 3647 run in every direction that you can because you are simultaneously 3648 seeking to accommodate that abominable ideological notion that 3649 every American knows is wrong, everyone with common sense, and 3650 at the same time try to sell the American people on the fact that 3651 you are not doing exactly that.

3652 That is a problem. It is a matter of life and death. Ten
3653 percent cut in Portland, 553 percent increase in murders. People
3654 are being killed. The games should stop.

3655 I yield back.

3656 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

3657 For what purpose does the gentlelady from Texas seek
3658 recognition?

3659 Ms. Jackson Lee. To strike the last word.

3660 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

3661 Ms. Jackson Lee. Last week in my district I stood with the 3662 Houston Police Department and very emotionally and sincerely as 3663 we presented them with almost a million dollars to deal with crime
3664 victims. Of course, we would like not to have crime victims.

3665 But we did have a crime victim there who said thank you for caring
3666 about them. Thank you for caring about crime victims.

3667 I would imagine that there are Democrats across this land

3668 who interact every day with their police officers. And so I take 3669 umbrage and offense of any sort of characterization.

3670 I do want to emphasize what I believe the gentlelady from 3671 California's bill is all about. In a research question given 3672 to individuals who are coming out of prison, 67 men, 18 to 66,
3673 what they wanted in life was what most Americans say they want:
3674 to be able to own their own home, drive nice cars, take their 3675 families on vacation, among other things. Several wanted to be 3676 doctors and lawyers, prestigious careers by American standards.

3677 Many also said they wanted to give their children opportunities
3678 that they hadn't had, like the chance to go to a prestigious 3679 college.

3680 This bill is about those opportunities. Can we not see 3681 plainly and clearly what the intent of the gentlelady's bill is,
3682 the One Stop Shop Community Reentry Program, and particularly 3683 the hot line, so no matter what rural hamlet you are in you can 3684 access what can I do to become a doctor, or a lawyer, or own a 3685 home, or to treat my children fairly, or to give them the 3686 blessings, as Barbara Jordan said, of this nation, the promise
3687 of America.

3688 Further, in a report that has come to my attention that the 3689 first estimate of homeless among five million formerly
3690 incarcerated people living in the United States, this report
3691 finding that formerly incarcerated people are almost ten times

3692 more likely to be homeless than the general public. Break that 3693 down to status by race, gender, age, and other demographics and 3694 it becomes even more severe.

3695 This is what this legislation is about, to be able to treat
3696 individuals who have done their time with dignity. To be able 3697 to say, yes, you can have that dream, that American home. You
3698 can have the best for your children.

3699 And so, when we enter an amendment that I am going to speak
3700 to the technical aspects of it, I don't really understand what 3701 defund means because what is the definition of my friends? And 3702 then I am not sure if this has been named, but they are now
3703 interfering with states' rights, and I thought they were truly
3704 states' rights individuals. They are interfering with decisions
3705 made by law enforcement officers in individual states. They are 3706 making a federal fiat of how you run your police department.

3707 They want to be merciful. They want to be humane in the 3708 way that they treat the issues of crime. We all are outraged
3709 by crime in America. All of us are outraged by this crime. We 3710 cry for the victims. But we also understand what is necessary
3711 to do good policing and good reform. This is a reform bill.
3712 And I would venture to say that law enforcement persons on this 3713 panel would celebrate reform, would celebrate trying to deal with 3714 ending recidivism. I want to end recidivism.

3715 And I do want to say to my friends, on January 6th there

3716 are probably many people that are not in this Congress that are 3717 suffering from Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder and they are our 3718 officers that are on the front lines. I would like to think that 3719 we are more concerned about ensuring that that never happens
3720 again, that we will not ever call that a tourist trip, people
3721 taking cameras with their Kodak paper cameras taking pictures
3722 while someone's head was squeezed into the door pleading for his 3723 life, or beaten to his death, almost a gun taken out of one officer.
3724 That is what we should be speaking against.

3725 But a amendment, all well-meaning, I am sure the gentleman
3726 is well-meaning, I cannot support it because it doesn't even 3727 define what this means. And I cannot support it when law
3728 enforcement persons are asking for reform, and victims are asking 3729 that people who are recidivist that we stop that, and that the 3730 bad guys are the bad guys and those who are seeking a new life
3731 are being helped by the gentlelady's legislation. That is what 3732 I think we should be discussing.

3733 And I might, as I end, say thank you for a bipartisan
3734 discussion that we have had of the other bills. I appreciate 3735 it. And I am hoping that we can do so here and understand the 3736 complexity.

3737 I just want to submit into the record "Post-prison people
3738 just want normal things." Americans say that is too much to 3739 expect. But we are seeing what they want. Ask unanimous

3740 consent.

3741 And then a Prison Policy Institute, "Nowhere to go:
3742 Homelessness among formerly incarcerated persons." I ask
3743 unanimous consent to submit these into the record.

3744 Chairman Nadler. Without objection.

3745 [The information follows:]

3746

3748 Ms. Jackson Lee. And I ask support for the bill.

3749 I yield back. Thank you.

3750 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

3751 Mrs. Spartz. Mr. Chairman.

3752 Chairman Nadler. For what purpose does Ms. Spartz seek
3753 recognition?

3754 Mrs. Spartz. I move to strike the last word.

3755 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

3756 Mrs. Spartz. I yield my time to the gentleman from 3757 Wisconsin.

3758 Mr. Tiffany. Okay. Thank you very much for yielding.

3759 And we saw some pounding on the table here, outraged by crime, 3760 yet we have somebody in this body who just in the last week or 3761 two said we should not only defund the police, but we should defund 3762 the Border Patrol, we should defund ICE. I mean, anything that 3763 serves as protection for the American people I guess that person
3764 is advocating, that person who is in the House of Representatives, 3765 is advocating for defunding.

3766 And the American people hear that. And also people who are 3767 perhaps choosing a life of crime, that they also hear that message,
3768 too. And you are seeing our cities overrun. I mean, if you look
3769 at what has happened in California with no pass fail and things
3770 like that, I mean you have companies like Target and others, and 3771 you see the stories, they can't even open their doors anymore.

3772 I mean, what is it, $1,000, you can shoplift up to $1,000 and 3773 you just go right back out on the street? I mean, that stuff
3774 it is simply craziness.

3775 And the American people are saying, hey, we have to make 3776 sure that our police are funded. This has gone too far.

3777 And I will go back to what I said twice before now. You
3778 are going to jeopardize the gains for the First Step Act and some 3779 of those things that you see as progress in regards to law
3780 enforcement in our country and how law enforcement reacts because 3781 the pendulum is going to swing back. And this bill==or, excuse
3782 me, this amendment is just a simple effort with the opportunity
3783 that avails us, because it is so rare when we see bills that go 3784 straight to the floor, this is an opportunity to make sure that 3785 police continue to be funded as they should be.

3786 And I can tell you, you go to these municipalities around
3787 America and I will bet you they will tell you that they support
3788 this amendment. And that is why I brought it forward. And I
3789 understand the intent of the bill. I think it is genuine. I
3790 think it is sincere, as I said before. And but this amendment
3791 is also, but most importantly, it is important for public safety
3792 in America.

3793 I yield back to the gentlewoman from Indiana.

3794 Mrs. Spartz. Thank you for yielding back. And I yield my 3795 time to the gentleman from North Carolina.

3796 Mr. Bishop. I thank the gentlelady.

3797 And one more point needs to be made, I believe. The chairman
3798 spoke to the question, well, I guess in a fairly elongated logical 3799 chain, or a chain that appeared to be, intended to be logic.
3800 There was a reference to the failure of Republicans to vote for 3801 the so-called bipartisan commission to examine January 6th.

3802 Well, I offered one of the objections to what was proposed
3803 on the floor myself. And that was that contrary to being a 3804 bipartisan commission, the staff was to be controlled by the 3805 majority. And anybody who spends any time here for long 3806 understands that that means the work of the commission would be 3807 controlled by the majority. It would be bipartisan only in a 3808 patina, only in appearance.

3809 Now, for those who have a suspicion about that, the other
3810 side thought that was horrific that you would even think that.

3811 So, now there is a select committee in which the appointments
3812 are made by the speaker. And the way things always work around
3813 here for members of the public who don't know is that the minority 3814 gets, the minority leader gets to suggest nominees for the 3815 minority. And that is what Mr. McCarthy has done. And now the 3816 speaker has rejected the ranking member on this committee, Mr.
3817 Jordan, and Mr. Banks from Indiana who, among other things, chairs
3818 the Republican Study Committee.

3819 Now, what I understood the chairman to say just a moment

3820 ago is she had to do that because it is no longer a bipartisan
3821 committee? You mean, because it is now a select committee chosen 3822 by the speaker she must act in a partisan way? Doesn't that 3823 validate the skepticism that members of the minority had when 3824 voting on that so-called bipartisan commission? That once the 3825 power is vested in the speaker to decide, what did she do? She 3826 takes a rank, partisan act, the exclusion of members of the 3827 minority from participating on a committee.

3828 You guys are headed down the slippery slope so fast it will 3829 make someone's head spin. The last thing that you have done is 3830 preclude Marjorie Taylor Green from being on a committee because 3831 she had comments before she was in Congress. And now respected
3832 members of unquestionable integrity in this Congress are being 3833 precluded by the speaker from participating because she is 3834 compelled to act in a partisan way, I suppose.

3835 My time is exhausted. I yield back.

3836 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

3837 Does anyone else seek recognition on this amendment?

3838 If not, the question occurs on the amendment.

3839 All in favor say aye.

4138 Members will have two days to submit views.

4139 Pursuant to notice, I now call up H.R. 4435, the Fight Notario 4140 Fraud Act of 2021. For purposes of markup I move that the 4141 committee report the bill favorably to the House.

4142 The clerk will report the bill.

4143 [The Bill H.R. 4435 follows:]

4144

4145 COMMITTEE INSERT**

4146 Ms. Fontenot. H.R. 4435, to amend title 18, United States
4147 Code --

4148 Chairman Nadler. Without objection, the bill is considered
4149 as read and open for amendment at any point.

4150 I will begin by recognizing myself for an opening statement.

4151 The Fight Notario Fraud Act of 2021 would criminalize the 4152 practice by unlicensed and often untrained people who offer legal 4153 services in immigration matters to unsuspecting victims. Last
4154 Congress we passed a nearly identical version of the bill out
4155 of this committee and through the House on a bipartisan voice
4156 vote, and hope we will do the same again this year.

4157 The bipartisan nature of last year's vote speaks to the 4158 widespread condemnation of these fraudulent practices. Notario
4159 fraud grifters take advantage of the translation of "notario 4160 publico" in Spanish to "notary public" in English. While the 4161 translation may be technically accurate, the meaning is very 4162 different. And the intent of these scam artists is malevolent:
4163 to defraud unsuspecting patrons seeking immigration help.

4164 In Latin America, "notario publico" often refers to a
4165 licensed attorney, whereas in the United States, a notary public 4166 is only permitted to witness the signing of documents, not to 4167 act as a lawyer. But many immigrants, particularly Latinos,
4168 unfamiliar with the American meaning of the term can be fooled
4169 by fraudulent notary publics into seeking legal assistance in 4170 immigration matters, often with disastrous consequences. Many 4171 of these immigrants may lose thousands of dollars and their 4172 immigration applications may go nowhere. But they are lucky

4173 compared to those whose immigration cases are irreparably harmed
4174 and whose opportunities to normalize immigration status are 4175 prejudiced or even lost.

4176 Notarios may also abandon their victims and flee with 4177 important documentation that immigrants need to file for 4178 immigration relief. Victims of notario fraud who have entrusted 4179 these fraudsters with their future and their hopes are both ripped 4180 off and, potentially, stripped of the opportunity to pursue the 4181 American dream.

4182 To address the prevalence of notario fraud, the Fight Notario
4183 Fraud Act would create three new federal crimes:

4184 First, it would outlaw the provision of fraudulent
4185 immigration services.

4186 Second, it would prohibit misrepresentations by individuals
4187 who falsely claim to be authorized to practice immigration law.

4188 This narrowly-crafted provision would establish targeted
4189 criminal penalties for the flagrant abuse of immigrants seeking 4190 relief. It would hold accountable those who take advantage of 4191 some of the least sophisticated consumers. This measure provides 4192 a much-needed tool for prosecutors to prevent this type of fraud
4193 and abuse.

4194 And, finally, the bill would criminalize threats and 4195 retaliatory acts associated with the provision of fraudulent
4196 immigration services.

4197 These provisions of the bill are particularly important.

4198 Notario fraud schemes are very rarely reported because so many 4199 immigrants are afraid of retaliation. By some estimates, only 4200 1 in every 100 cases is ever reported to the authorities. Failure
4201 to report these crimes, along with limited prosecutions, allows 4202 notarios to continue their scams. With this bill, greater focus 4203 and emphasis will be placed on notario scams by providing 4204 additional authority and resources to prosecute these crimes, 4205 including through the creation of no fewer than 15 special United 4206 States attorney positions to prosecute notario fraud crimes.

4207 I thank Representative Escobar for her leadership in 4208 introducing this vital legislation. And I would ask all my 4209 colleagues to join me in supporting this bill today.

4210 I now recognize the ranking member -- I now recognize Mr.
4211 Biggs for his opening statement.

4212 Mr. Biggs. I thank the chairman.

4213 H.R. 4435 is the majority's effort to deal with what they 4214 see as a serious situation. And I also think it is a serious
4215 situation. It seems obvious to me that it is.

4216 Within my district we have notarios that are practicing.

4217 I don't know the extent of whether there is fraud or whether

4218 they are legitimate, but I do see their storefront offices going 4219 through my district.

4220 Chapter 47 of Title 18 of the U.S. Code deals with fraud
4221 and false statements though. And in that chapter there are 4222 currently 40 sections. This bill would make it 41. And this 4223 is what I would refer to as over-criminalization. Certainly 4224 there are other state or federal laws that could deal with notario 4225 fraud.

4226 We should be looking, in my opinion, at shrinking Title 18,
4227 shrinking the criminalization, not growing it.

4228 This bill also directs the attorney general to establish 4229 at least 15 special United States attorneys to prosecute these 4230 crimes. Now, think about it. When you look in the sections of 4231 this bill and you look at the fraud section or the 4232 misrepresentation section, these are, these are misdemeanors.

4233 And you are going to assign 15 U.S. attorneys to investigate
4234 misdemeanors. I question whether that is a wise use of our 4235 limited resources.

4236 I wish that the supporters of this bill shared my view.
4237 And I am sure I will have more to say as we go along.

4238 And I yield back, Mr. Chairman. Thank you.

4239 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

4240 I now recognize the ranking member of the Crime Subcommittee
4241 -- I am sorry, I now recognize the chair of the Subcommittee on

4242 Crime, Terrorism, and Homeland Security, the gentlelady from 4243 Texas, Ms. Jackson Lee, for her opening statement.

4244 Ms. Jackson Lee. Mr. Chairman, thank you very much.

4245 And I am proud to be an original co-sponsor of H.R. 4435,
4246 the Fight Notario Fraud Act, and thank the chairman for addressing 4247 this important issue and, of course, my colleague and fellow
4248 Texan, Ms. Escobar, for her leadership on this issue.

4249 The bill makes necessary changes to federal law to ensure 4250 the appropriate prosecutorial tools are in place to target those 4251 who prey on immigrants, some of the most vulnerable members of 4252 our society. Notario fraud refers to the practice of unlicensed
4253 immigration consultants offering immigration legal services.
4254 And they are plentiful. Their advertisings, their signs, their 4255 tweets, their cards are everywhere.

4256 Unfortunately, it has been an ongoing problem in my district
4257 and many districts around America. The gravity and scope of the 4258 notario fraud problem in the State of Texas cannot be understated.

4259 According to one report, almost 100 businesses have been 4260 closed for offering legal services without the required
4261 authorization since 2002 just in my home state of Texas alone.

4262 What happens is it combines or it leaves open the individuals
4263 who use these services to a desperate circumstance, that they 4264 are not in compliance, or they haven't done what they are supposed
4265 to do, that they are subject to deportation. It is absolutely

4266 tragic.

4267 One report from my district highlights the economic and legal 4268 harm of these bad actors. One of my fellow Houstonians discovered 4269 18 years too late that the notario that she has contracted with 4270 had bilked her out of more than $15,000. This so-called notario 4271 also never notified her that her application for permanent legal 4272 resident status had been rejected years ago. Other immigrants 4273 have discovered that their applications were bungled, their 4274 ability to change their status ruined.

4275 Notario fraud has destroyed the American dreams of too many.
4276 These schemes also reduced community trust in the immigrant
4277 process which, in turn, has the effect of chilling immigrants'
4278 participation in prosecution of notario fraud.

4279 Notario fraud perpetrators take advantage of their victims'
4280 lack of familiarity with our complex immigration laws and exploit
4281 the fear of some immigrants to report crimes to government
4282 authorities.

4283 This bill includes protection against retaliation for 4284 reporting instances of notario fraud. This type of protection
4285 is necessary to encourage reporting of these types of illegal 4286 practices.

4287 There is also an important addition to the 117th version
4288 of this bill that I want to highlight for my colleagues. This 4289 Congress the bill includes a provision to focus on the linguistic

4290 competency of any federal prosecutor appointed to serve in any 4291 of the special U.S. attorney positions established by this 4292 legislation. As a result, prosecutors should be more effective
4293 in the prosecution of cases involving non-English speaking
4294 victims and witnesses. Additionally, having prosecutors who 4295 speak the language of the victims is critically critical to 4296 promoting trust in the community. This is especially true in 4297 Texas.

4298 Houston public media has also reported that notario fraud
4299 scams are also targeting Houston's Vietnamese-speaking community
4300 as well.

4301 The bill also requires that 15 federal prosecutors be 4302 designated to handle these cases. In doing so, the bill will 4303 also prioritize and promote affirmative steps to protect 4304 immigrants from notario fraud. Communities like my hometown of 4305 Houston need immediate action and attention to stop notario fraud
4306 and to hold notario fraud scammers accountable.

4307 I venture to say the nation needs this legislation.
4308 Moreover, this committee must encourage practices like those in 4309 the Fight Notario Fraud Act that meet the needs of victims.

4310 I thank my fellow Texan, Representative Veronica Escobar, 4311 again for taking up this legislation and for her leadership on 4312 this issue. I also thank the chairman for again moving forward
4313 on this important issue.

4314 And I want to acknowledge an article that deals with the 4315 notario fraud scammers target Houston's immigrant community, and 4316 immigrant lawyers warn of notario fraud. I ask unanimous consent
4317 to submit that into the record.

4318 Chairman Nadler. Without objection.

4319 [The information follows:]

4320

4321 COMMITTEE INSERT**

4322 Ms. Jackson Lee. And I ask my colleagues again to support 4323 the underlying bill for this important issue.

4324 Thank you.

4325 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

4326 Without objection, all other opening statements will be 4327 included in the record.

4328 Are there any amendments to H.R. 4435?

4329 For what purpose does Ms. Escobar seek recognition?

4330 Ms. Escobar. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Move to strike the 4331 last word.

4332 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

4333 Ms. Escobar. Mr. Chairman, I am so proud to be able to 4334 continue the work from last Congress of my friend and former 4335 colleague Debbie Mucarsel-Powell who did some incredible work
4336 on this bill. I am proud to continue to fight to protect some 4337 of the most vulnerable members of our society. And I am proud
4338 and grateful to my co-sponsors Representative Sheila Jackson Lee
4339 and Sylvia Garcia, my colleagues from Texas.

4340 The Fight Notario Fraud Act gives the Department of Justice
4341 the tools to go after perpetrators of notario fraud. This bill
4342 criminalizes providing fraudulent immigration services,
4343 misrepresentations by certain individuals claiming to be 4344 authorized to practice immigration law, threats or retaliation
4345 against the victims of notario fraud, and directs the attorney

4346 general of the United States to establish no less than 15 U.S.
4347 attorneys to investigate and prosecute reports of notario fraud.

4348 One of my colleagues mentioned concern about that particular 4349 aspect of the bill. And I would just like to emphasize that the 4350 impact that notario fraud has on the lives of some of some of 4351 the most vulnerable among us is devastating. People's ability 4352 to access the legal immigration system is at stake, people's 4353 livelihoods are at stake, people's families are at stake. I
4354 cannot emphasize enough the devastation that comes with the fraud
4355 related to notario fraud.

4356 And, in fact, this is fraud that is perpetrated all over
4357 the country. I have heard from colleagues who represent
4358 different states all over America who say that this is a badly
4359 needed piece of legislation. And so, this would bring relief
4360 to communities all across America.

4361 Grifters, many of whom are certified notary publics in the 4362 U.S., misrepresent their credentials to potential victims and 4363 offer immigration services they are not qualified to handle.
4364 We all know how complicated the U.S. immigration system is. We 4365 all know that there are fewer legal avenues today, fewer than 4366 ever before. And we all know how complex it is already. And 4367 so when these grifters offer services to vulnerable immigrants
4368 and rob them of their opportunity, that should be alarming to 4369 all of us.

4370 In addition to taking thousands of dollars from their 4371 victims, scammers often commit filing mistakes, give incorrect
4372 legal advice, and many have even lost or stolen important
4373 documents vital to their victims immigration cases. Sometimes 4374 the damage caused by scammers is severe and irreversible, and 4375 can cost victims their immigration case and their status in the 4376 United States.

4377 Fear of retaliation from scammers and fear of deportation
4378 by the U.S. Government means that victims of notario fraud rarely 4379 come forward to report the crime. Notario fraud is so under 4380 reported that it is difficult to find accurate statistics, though 4381 some estimates find that only about 1 in every 100 instances of 4382 fraud is ever reported.

4383 This committee voted the Fight Notario Fraud Act in a
4384 bipartisan manner out of this committee last Congress, and must 4385 do so again. I urge my colleagues to support this bill. And 4386 I thank everyone who helped make it better.

4387 Mr. Chairman, I yield back.

4388 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

4389 There are votes on the floor. We are going to recess the 4390 committee until immediately after the votes. So, please come 4391 back immediately after the votes.

4392 The committee stands in recess.

4393 [Recess.]

4394 Chairman Nadler. We will now resume consideration of H.R.
4395 4435.

4396 Who seeks recognition?

4397 Ms. Garcia. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.
4398 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

4399 Ms. Garcia. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and thank you for 4400 bringing this bill forward.

4401 Today, we take bold steps to address recidivism and 4402 sentencing disparities, provide equal access to veterans court
4403 treatment programs for racial and ethnic minorities and women,
4404 as well as address individuals who claim to practice immigration
4405 law and misrepresent themselves.

4406 I'm especially proud to co-lead the Fight Notario Fraud Act
4407 of 2021, which would hold public notaries accountable who abuse
4408 their power. Some of these bad actors take advantage of 4409 vulnerable communities with language barriers or of those who 4410 cannot read or fully understand the American legal system.

4411 Many Spanish-speaking immigrants, for example, turn to 4412 notaries because in their home countries a notario publico refers 4413 to a lawyer.

4414 So H.R. 4435 criminalizes notario fraud schemes, ensuring 4415 that no one can take advantage of the literal sounding translation 4416 of notario publico.

4417 Significantly, some scammers have fraudulently used a notary

4418 public title to market themselves as authorized to provide legal 4419 advice and services, especially in immigration law.

4420 When I was legal aid lawyer, I remember seeing firsthand
4421 many of the deceitful practices at the expense of indigent people
4422 due to their illiteracy or language barrier.

4423 Sadly, that wrong was -- that was wrong then and it is still 4424 wrong today. As a member of Congress, we have gotten many of 4425 these similar complaints.

4426 So the practice still continues. We have a responsibility
4427 to protect the well being and livelihoods of the most vulnerable
4428 among us, including immigrant families across our country.

4429 Certainly, courts have recognized the widespread prevalence
4430 of notario fraud and the negative impact on immigrants and their 4431 families is clear.

4432 I want to thank my Comadre Congresswoman Veronica Escobar
4433 of El Paso and Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee, my colleague
4434 from Houston, for their leadership on this issue, and I thank 4435 them for their continued work that started with our other Comadre
4436 Debbie Mucarsel-Powell of Florida, formerly with us on this 4437 committee.

4438 I urge my colleagues to support this important legislation.
4439 Let's put an end to these fraudulent schemes.

4440 And, Mr. Chairman, I agree with Mr. Biggs. Fifteen U.S.
4441 Attorneys is something we should rethink. Frankly, that's just 4442 enough for Texas. What do we do about the rest of the states?

4443

4444 We should make sure that if we're going to ask for these 4445 cases to be prosecuted that we have enough staff to handle the 4446 number of complaints that I know we get in Texas, that he gets 4447 in Arizona, that they get in California, New York, Florida, and 4448 I could go on and on.

4449 Mr. Chairman, this is an important piece of legislation.
4450 I urge all my colleagues to support it.

4451 With that, I yield back the balance of my time and I thank 4452 you so much for your leadership on this issue.

4453 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

4454 For what purpose does Mr. Stanton seek recognition?

4455 Mr. Stanton. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike last word.

4456 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

4457 Mr. Stanton. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

4458 I am proud to support H.R. 4435, the Fight Notario Fraud
4459 Act of 2021. I urge my colleagues to do the same. This bill
4460 addresses an issue that affects way too many people in my home
4461 state of Arizona.

4462 Fraudsters, often without any credentials, pose as legal 4463 professionals offering immigration services to unsuspecting
4464 targets. They prey on vulnerable immigrant communities, of whom 4465 many do not speak English as a first language. The notario

4466 provides advice and counsel as if they are an attorney. But,
4467 in fact, they are untrained, unlicensed, and too often malicious.

4468

4469 The risk posed by these scams is obvious. Mistakes in 4470 immigration proceedings and paperwork carry heavy penalties.
4471 And, too often, the victim of the swindles is left with little 4472 or no recourse and faces threat of retaliation.

4473 The Fight Notario Fraud Act of 2021 would fix this by 4474 criminalizing these fraudulent activities and establishing at 4475 least 15 special U.S. Attorneys to prosecute the bad actors.

4476 And I also want to offer my thanks to Representative Escobar,
4477 Jackson Lee, and Garcia for their ongoing leadership on this 4478 issue, and I ask my colleagues to join me in supporting this 4479 important bill.

4480 I yield back.

4481 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

4482 For my purpose does Ms. -- for what purpose does Ms. Ross
4483 seek recognition?

4484 Ms. Ross. Mr. Chairman -- Mr. Chairman, I move to strike
4485 the last word.

4486 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

4487 Ms. Ross. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

4488 The Fight Notario Fraud Act of 2021 led by my colleague, 4489 Representative Escobar, addresses real harms incurred to

4490 vulnerable immigrant communities that fall prey to notario fraud.

4491

4492 Spanish-speaking immigrants in particular often face
4493 confusion about the role and power of notaries, and can be led 4494 to believe that notaries are legally authorized to provide legal 4495 services.

4496 I have seen this in my state. These predatory practices
4497 have immense and often irreversible consequences on immigrant
4498 communities. Fraudulent notary practices can lead to the missing 4499 of key deadlines and the filing of incorrect, incomplete, and 4500 false claims with the government, leaving individuals with not 4501 only missed opportunities to obtain legal residency, but the 4502 possibility of facing criminal liability and deportation.

4503 I represent a district with a large immigrant population
4504 that's benefitted from rigorous enforcement of state laws that 4505 prohibit notary fraud. However, not all states have these laws.

4506

4507 I'd like to highlight the leadership of North Carolina
4508 Secretary of State Elaine Marshall, who has led the charge in 4509 preventing notario fraud by increasing the capability of the state 4510 to investigate misconduct and has worked with the state bar to 4511 provide continuing legal education for attorneys that help
4512 identify the notario misconduct.

4513 She has also improved methodologies to positively identify

4514 document signers. But again, all states do not have these 4515 protections, and that is why we need this important piece of 4516 legislation.

4517 I urge my colleagues to support the bill, and I yield back.
4518 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

4519 For what purpose does Ms. Scanlon seek recognition?

4520 Ms. Scanlon. I move to strike the last word.

4521 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady is recognized.

4522 Ms. Scanlon. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, for putting this 4523 legislation for our consideration today, and thank you to my 4524 friend, Representative Escobar, for introducing this important
4525 bill.

4526 As co-chair of the Legal Aid Caucus and someone who's worked 4527 for decades to expand access to legal services for those in need, 4528 I've seen how important access to quality legal counsel is.

4529 This is especially true in immigration matters, where our 4530 complicated laws and broken bureaucracy are difficult to 4531 navigate, even with legal counsel.

4532 But I've heard too many heartbreaking stories from 4533 vulnerable immigrants who were defrauded by notarios posing as 4534 legitimate immigration experts. These notarios take advantage
4535 of the complexity of our immigration system and the fears of 4536 immigrants seeking to navigate it in the hopes of making a better
4537 life in our country.

4538 And the impact of these fraudulent notarios is devastating.
4539 Not only do they extort hundreds of thousands of dollars from 4540 families who count on them for sound legal advice, but they often,
4541 through fraud or incompetence, irreparably damage legitimate
4542 opportunities for immigrants to gain visas, green cards, and other 4543 legal immigration status.

4544 That's why I'm so proud to support this legislation which 4545 would criminalize unlawful notario schemes as well as any threats
4546 and retaliation associated with those schemes.

4547 Additionally, I'm pleased that this legislation would 4548 allocate DOJ resources to ensure that notario fraud is rooted 4549 out and stopped before it can ruin the lives of immigrants looking 4550 for legal counsel.

4551 Ensuring access to quality affordable legal aid should be 4552 a priority for our committee and this Congress, and part of that 4553 effort lies in rooting out bad actors who aim to take advantage
4554 of vulnerable individuals looking for legal assistance.

4555 I encourage my colleagues to support the Fight Notario Fraud
4556 Act, which would make meaningful change for immigrants across
4557 our country.

4558 Thank you, again, to my colleagues for your leadership and 4559 your focus on this important issue. I yield back.

4560 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back. For what
4561 purpose does Mr. Biggs seek recognition?

4562 Mr. Biggs. I have an amendment at the desk.

4563 Chairman Nadler. Clerk will report the amendment.

4564 Ms. Lofgren. I reserve a point of order.

4565 Chairman Nadler. Point of order is reserved. The clerk
4566 will report the amendment.

4567 Ms. Fontenot. Amendment to H.R. 4435, offered by Mr. Biggs
4568 of Arizona. Add at the end of the bill the following. Section 4569 3, inadmissibility and --

4570 Chairman Nadler. The amendment will be considered as read.

4571 [The Amendment offered by Mr. Biggs follows:]

4572

4573 COMMITTEE INSERT**

4574 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized to explain
4575 his amendment.

4576 Mr. Biggs. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

4577 Well, Mr. Chairman, my amendment is quite simple. I mean,
4578 we have heard a lot of passion about the gravity of notario fraud,
4579 and I'm not minimizing it all.

4580 I think that it probably does and it is such a problem, quite 4581 frankly, because it is being -- this type of fraud and this kind 4582 of action is being used to prey on aliens who are living in United 4583 States.

4584 And those who are holding themselves out to be immigration
4585 specialists, they take the money of unsuspecting aliens in that 4586 way. They're not the kind of people, if they're foreign 4587 nationals, that we really want in the United States.

4588 They have violated a very serious law. They've impersonated
4589 lawyers. They've -- and you guys on the other side have really 4590 catalogued all the things that can happen and the impact on lives.

4591 I was kind of surprised that you left it at misdemeanor,
4592 though. So what my amendment does is it ensures that a foreign 4593 national who commits notario fraud, as defined by this bill, is 4594 both inadmissible to and deportable from the United States.

4595 See, a misdemeanor conviction is not enough for the Biden
4596 administration to make an alien a priority for removal. So the 4597 least we can do, in my opinion, is to speak with a strong unified

4598 voice that people who commit these types of crimes who are here, 4599 and they're foreign nationals, they should be removed from the 4600 country.

4601 I hope that all of my colleagues will work with me to convince 4602 the Biden administration that aliens who commit notario fraud
4603 and other -- and all other aliens convicted of crimes should be 4604 removed from the United States of America.

4605 Now, when I look at this, too, what I find interesting is 4606 I think there's an additional flaw in the bill. I'm not going 4607 to -- I'm not going to offer an amendment. I mean, I don't know 4608 that that necessarily is appropriate for me to offer that 4609 amendment. But I wish you would consider this.

4610 When you get to on the fifth page, line 19, linguistic
4611 competence, I understand that you want linguistic competence,
4612 but I want to -- I want to give you some context. You're going 4613 to have 15 special U.S. Attorneys and their linguistic capability
4614 -- their multilingual capability will be considered.

4615 The way this is structured here I hope they speak a lot of 4616 languages because, for instance, in the Yuma sector just about
4617 six, eight weeks ago when I was down their the number-one country
4618 from which people were being apprehended was Brazil.

4619 And I talked to the head of the station. I said, well, how 4620 you doing, because that's a Portuguese-speaking nation. He 4621 says, we don't have interpreters. We don't have translators.

4622

4623 That's a problem. What was number two? Russians. Had 4624 trouble getting Russian speakers to translate. Romanians -- the 4625 big groups -- the two big groups I saw when I was down there,
4626 Romanians. That's a problem.

4627 So when you have this kind of cross here, you might have 4628 an unintended consequence that you can't fulfill the 4629 qualification requirement for your U.S. Attorney -- Assistant 4630 U.S. Attorney General. I raise that because I don't know that 4631 that's intentional. I suspect it's not.

4632 But I think it possibly could be a problem. I don't think 4633 you have a problem with more common languages like Spanish or 4634 even French.

4635 But there's also Mandarin and Cantonese speakers. There
4636 are Farsi speakers that have come across, and I would assume that 4637 some of them are also victimized by notario fraud.

4638 The reason I say that is because in my district you can 4639 go and you will find many notarios in storefronts, you know,
4640 shopping centers. And so if you're coming across, regardless
4641 of where you -- what country of origin, you might end up there
4642 instead of at a lawyer.

4643 Now, let me just raise one other issue that does concern
4644 me, and I raised this -- and it's not meant -- I don't mean to 4645 be offensive with humor. But I'm trying to figure out why the

4646 state bars, and I belong to three different state bars, I would 4647 like to know why they're not enforcing provisions against 4648 nonattorneys practicing law. I wish they would and I think that's 4649 a problem here, and I think you're trying to correct that.

4650 But I think it might be better served in that way. So I
4651 urge everyone to consider my amendment. I would hope -- I hope 4652 it gets adopted.

4653 And with that, Mr. Chairman, I'll yield back.

4654 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

4655 The gentleman yields back.

4656 Does the gentlelady insist on her point of order?

4657 Ms. Lofgren. I do insist on the point of order, Mr.
4658 Chairman.

4659 The amendment purports to amend Section 8 of U.S. Code,
4660 whereas the bill is entirely about Title 18 of the U.S. Code.

4661 Therefore, it's beyond the scope of the bill and it is not 4662 germane.

4663 Mr. Biggs. Mr. Chairman --

4664 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady -- gentleman will be heard
4665 on the point of order?

4666 Mr. Biggs. Yes, I'd like to be heard, if I might.

4667 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

4668 Mr. Biggs. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

4669 I recognize that we're talking in two different sections

4670 but -- of the U.S. Code, but I think what's important to understand 4671 here is if you go to page 2 and you begin looking at -- under 4672 Section 2 and you start going through this, everything in here,
4673 and particularly on page 4 on lines 5 through 17, everything there 4674 is geared and discusses immigration status, the notario fraud
4675 impacting immigration status, is there something about perceived 4676 immigration status or attempts to secure immigration status that 4677 impacts the person's -- or results in the removal of that person
4678 from the United States, or it leads to the loss of immigration 4679 status.

4680 All of those things there go hand in hand with the immigration
4681 laws that my amendment is dealing with. It is extremely germane.
4682 It goes hand in glove with this. I'm kind of surprised that 4683 this was raised.

4684 But, in reality, I think, Mr. Chairman, if you look even 4685 in lines 12 through 15, or 16, I mean, in verse -- clause C, again, 4686 talking about person applying for an immigration benefit or to 4687 lose the opportunity to apply for an immigration benefit, we are 4688 talking about that through and through.

4689 And it seems to me that this is dependent upon this bill,
4690 and I urge that it'd be real germane, Mr. Chairman.

4691 Chairman Nadler. The chair is prepared to rule. Clause
4692 7 of House Rule 16 prohibits amendments that are on a subject
4693 matter different than the proposal that is under consideration.

4694

4695 he subject of the amendment -- I'm sorry, the subject of 4696 the bill we are currently considering is fraud and false
4697 statements regarding immigration law.

4698 The gentleman's amendment proposes to amend immigration laws
4699 that are not addressed in this bill, which is a subject different 4700 from what we are considering in this bill.

4701 The amendment, therefore, is not germane and violates clause
4702 7 of Rule 16.

4703 Mr. Biggs. I would appeal the ruling of the chair.

4704 Ms. Lofgren. I move to table.

4705 Chairman Nadler. Motion to table is made. The motion to 4706 table is not debatable. The clerk will call the roll.

4845 seek recognition?

4846 Mr. Correa. Chairman, I have an amendment at the table.

4847 Chairman Nadler. The clerk will -- the clerk will report

4848 the amendment.

4849 Ms. Fontenot. Amendment to H.R. 4435, offered by Mr. Correa

4850 of California. Page 6, after line 3 insert the following and 4851 redesignate --

4852 Chairman Nadler. The amendment will be considered as read.

4853 [The Amendment offered by Mr. Correa follows:]

4854

4855 COMMITTEE INSERT**

4856 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman will explain his amendment.

4857

4858 Mr. Correa. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, for holding this most 4859 important markup today, and I want to thank Ms. Escobar, the 4860 sponsor of this bill, for reintroducing it once again.

4861 This bill holds criminals accountable for their crimes for 4862 misrepresenting their qualifications to practice immigration
4863 law. In my district, this is a minor crime that happens every 4864 day that adds up to millions and millions of dollars of damage.

4865

4866 A few years ago, La Guadalupana law firm -- Guadalupana law
4867 firm made local headlines before a local district attorney shut
4868 them down. This firm was made up of crooked attorneys, bad
4869 notaries who took millions of dollars from hard-working 4870 immigrants, and by the time authorities shut them down they had 4871 fled the country.

4872 And the worst of it is that these attorneys and advisors
4873 recommended that their victims sign documents that were not true,
4874 resulting in many of these victims permanently being disbarred
4875 from legalization or barred, I should say, from legalization.

4876

4877 I support this Notario Fraud Act. But there's so much more 4878 that needs to be done. Let's not forget the real damage is to 4879 the victims. They should have at least the opportunity to seek

4880 monetary restitution. That's why my amendment requires that 4881 practicing immigrant attorneys and accredited immigration
4882 representatives have adequate errors omissions insurance so that 4883 victims may be compensated at least partly for their harm.

4884 And with that, I support the bill and I withdraw my amendment.

4885

4886 Chairman Nadler. The amendment is withdrawn. Are there
4887 any other amendments to the -- are there any other amendments?

4888 Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Chair?

4889 Ms. Jackson Lee. Reserve a right to object.

4890 Chairman Nadler. For what purpose does Mr. Fitzgerald seek
4891 recognition?

4892 Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Chair, I have an amendment at the desk.

4893 Chairman Nadler. Clerk will report the amendment.

4894 Ms. Fontenot. Amendment to H.R. 44 --

4895 Chairman Nadler. Point of order is reserved.

4896 Ms. Fontenot. -- to 4435 offered by Mr. Fitzgerald of 4897 Wisconsin, page 3 after line 10 --

4898 Chairman Nadler. Without objection the amendment is 4899 considered as read.

4900 [The Amendment offered by Mr. Fitzgerald follows:]

4901

4902 COMMITTEE INSERT**

4903 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman will explain his amendment.

4904

4905 Mr. Fitzgerald. Thank you, Mr. Chair.

4906 I guess I would start with saying once again we find ourselves
4907 kind of in a position of the bill is -- has got a laudable goal, 4908 and obviously, with what we're hearing and what's been 4909 demonstrated today is that this is -- this is needed.

4910 But I -- but I think I do have an amendment before the 4911 committee that would, once again, tighten things up, make things
4912 a little bit more succinct and, actually, I think improve on the 4913 statutes.

4914 I guess I would also say I'm disappointed that Mr. Correa
4915 had withdrawn his amendment because, actually, what I'm seeing 4916 is that amendment kind of speaks to what we are recognizing is 4917 one of the issues and that is, once again, the cartels, and let 4918 me further describe my definition.

4919 They are more transnational criminal organizations. Just 4920 -- you know, I know that there's different terms that are used 4921 sometimes for the cartels.

4922 But I wanted to just reiterate that, you know, this is a
4923 global issue, not just something happening within the borders,
4924 certainly, of the United States, but also our bordering countries.

4925

4926 So what this amendment would do is -- and DOJ has been asking

4927 for some of this stuff. They have been trying to root out
4928 immigration law fraud and prosecute notario fraud under mail and 4929 wire fraud. That's been going on. It's been going on for a long
4930 time.

4931 So because, obviously, we know fraud is never acceptable
4932 and this -- it's an unauthorized practice. I don't know if you
4933 want to call it a shell game, and the way it's been described 4934 numerous times is misrepresentation of legal services.

4935 So this amendment would allow judges to increase sentencing
4936 for any violation of this act when the individual involved is, 4937 guess what, related to the cartels, related to these transnational 4938 criminal organizations.

4939 And you would say, well, how would you determine that? Well, 4940 the way you would determine it is by the case or by trying to 4941 prosecute. You know, that's how this would emerge. That's where 4942 this would come from is in that prosecution because that would 4943 reveal the connection.

4944 Because otherwise, what we are led to believe, based on what 4945 we're seeing today, is that these are all just individuals
4946 operating on their own. Come on. That's not true. We know
4947 that's not true.

4948 So I think this amendment goes a long way to, once again,
4949 improving the bill, improving the efforts of the author. I
4950 applaud Representative Escobar in what's going on here.

4951 But again, I think this amendment addresses something that,
4952 clearly, is happening and would make this bill much better.

4953 And I would yield back.

4954 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

4955 For what purpose does the gentlelady from California seek
4956 recognition?

4957 Ms. Lofgren. I move to strike the last word.

4958 Chairman Nadler. Oh. Do you insist on your point of order?

4959 Ms. Jackson Lee. I had the point of order. I do not insist 4960 on my point of order. Thank you.

4961 Chairman Nadler. Point of order is withdrawn.

4962 The gentlelady is recognized.

4963 Ms. Lofgren. I'm pretty confident that every single member
4964 of this committee opposes the drug cartels. I mean, that's a 4965 given. And most of them are transnational organized crime.

4966 But I don't know really what else is transnational organized
4967 crime, to be honest. Although I have watched these predators
4968 for many years, the notarios, I've never once, even when there 4969 have been local prosecutions, there's never been an instance where 4970 they were connected with the cartels.

4971 So I think this is worthy of further investigation. But 4972 I think the drafting of this is loose enough that I don't know
4973 that we would know what we would be voting to approve.

4974 So I couldn't support this today. But I do -- and I don't

4975 think there's really any nexus, honestly, between the notarios
4976 and the cartels, although if there is, certainly, we would want 4977 to do something about that.

4978 But whether or not there's a connection between the notarios
4979 and the cartels, the cartels are a threat. They're a threat to 4980 our country and they're a threat to individuals who run into them, 4981 whether those individuals are documented or undocumented.
4982 They're a threat to our law enforcement officers. They're bad
4983 dudes, and we're against them. But --

4984 Mr. Bishop. Would the gentlelady yield for a question?

4985 Ms. Lofgren. I would be happy to yield.

4986 Mr. Bishop. I thank the gentlelady.

4987 And I guess the question that occurs to me as I hear your 4988 argument in response to this amendment is, what harm does it do?

4989 It would -- it would apply an enhanced penalty if someone who's 4990 engaging in this conduct that the bill seeks to strike at --

4991 Ms. Lofgren. Well, reclaim --

4992 Mr. Bishop. -- also is a conspirator with one of the -- 4993 with one of the cartels.

4994 Ms. Lofgren. Reclaiming my time. Transnational organized
4995 crime is not defined and that's the concern. When we pass a law
4996 providing for imprisonment of four years, I think we ought to 4997 know specifically what the terms mean, and we do not know what 4998 the terms mean in this amendment.

4999 Mr. Bishop. Would the gentlelady yield?

5000 Ms. Escobar. Would the gentlelady yield?

5001 Ms. Lofgren. Let me just finish and I'd be happy to yield.

5002 That doesn't mean that we couldn't find out. We could. We could 5003 have a hearing. We could do some research.

5004 But I don't think we know at this moment what that term means,
5005 and I am happy to yield to the gentlelady who's done so much good
5006 work on this bill, the gentlelady from Texas.

5007 Ms. Escobar. Thank you so much, Ms. Lofgren --
5008 Representative Lofgren.

5009 To my colleagues, I think you know I represent El Paso, Texas, 5010 on the southern border -- a border community. Before I was in 5011 Congress, I served in local government, and so I've been fortunate 5012 to be a public servant for a long time for my border community.

5013

5014 I have -- even as a local elected official, I received
5015 countless complaints from community members about notario fraud.

5016 I have never once heard that they are linked in any way in the 5017 way that is identified in this amendment, not once, and I have 5018 been as close to the community as it gets.

5019 In recrafting this bill and speaking with colleagues from 5020 across the country, I have never once heard that this is an issue.

5021 I would be very interested in any examples that you all might 5022 have come across because if there is even one example I'd love

5023 to explore it, talk about it, and as Ms. Lofgren mentioned, perhaps 5024 even have a hearing about it.

5025 And I will tell you that I am someone who believes that the 5026 cartels are evil, and the way that they prey on some of the most 5027 vulnerable human beings is detestable and horrific.

5028 And so I absolutely stand with anyone who wants to legislate
5029 to create better safety for the most vulnerable against the evil
5030 that is the cartel.

5031 But I think it's so important to make sure that when we 5032 legislate we legislate to solve a problem that exists, and we 5033 don't create overreach for something that doesn't exist.

5034 And so I would love to hear any examples that might exist.

5035 But after years in public service, I have not.

5036 And thank you so much, Ms. Lofgren, for yielding. I
5037 appreciate the time. I yield back.

5038 Ms. Lofgren. I thank the gentlelady for yielding back.

5039 I would just note that over the years I've run across cases
5040 where just horrendous situations have occurred because of this 5041 fraud, and it's important that this bill, which I think has a
5042 match in the Senate, pass and pass along the lines it can pass
5043 in the United States Senate, because real harm is being done to 5044 innocent people who are trying to comply with the law.

5045 And with that, Mr. Chairman, my time is expired.

5046 Chairman Nadler. The gentlelady yields back.

5047 Who seeks recognition?

5048 Mr. Bishop. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike last word.

5049 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

5050 Mr. Bishop. Thank you. And I wonder -- it seems to me that 5051 this is -- I have a hard time seeing what's difficult about this.

5052

5053 I do understand the comment of the gentlelady from 5054 California, I guess, in a technical way that what -- that there's 5055 no definition in the amendment of a transnational organized crime.

5056

5057 But, then again, I doubt that's a very big obstacle and I
5058 don't see what mischief could occur because it's not a -- it's 5059 not a term that is likely to be thought of as ambiguous. Organized 5060 crime is pretty clear. Transnational organized crime is pretty 5061 clear.

5062 And so the possibilities or the problem, it seems to me,
5063 would exist if a court were to over interpret it to include a
5064 bunch of stuff that wouldn't be included.

5065 Mr. Cicilline. Mr. Bishop, would you yield?

5066 Mr. Bishop. I'd be -- I'd be delighted to yield to the 5067 gentleman from Rhode Island.

5068 Mr. Cicilline. Yeah. I just want to associate myself with 5069 the remarks of the gentlelady from California. This is a criminal 5070 statute and so there are significant problems if definitions are

5071 not provided because you have to provide notice to a defendant
5072 or an accused of what the circumstances are that led to the charges
5073 that have been leveled against him.

5074 I was a practicing criminal defense lawyer for many, many 5075 years. You can't leave it up to courts to decide what the 5076 definition is -- what those terms mean, because that doesn't 5077 provide sufficient notice to an accused. It raises serious due 5078 process questions.

5079 Mr. Bishop. Reclaiming my time, and I'd be delighted to,
5080 perhaps, extend more time. But just to engage in something in 5081 the nature of a colloquy, if we could, I would submit that we 5082 were just in a very long markup over some bills that had great 5083 potential impact that had some terms that were extraordinarily 5084 broad and ambiguous and not defined, like critical trading
5085 partner, if that one rings a bell.

5086 And so, invariably, courts have to interpret words that 5087 Congress has not defined with great precision. But I would 5088 contrast this situation with that one and invite the gentleman
5089 from Rhode Island to comment on that --

5090 Mr. Cicilline. Yeah, of course. But there's, obviously,
5091 a very significant difference between a criminal statute that 5092 imposes penalties of imprisonment and requires due process
5093 considerations that don't exist in the civil context.

5094 So they're completely different circumstances.

5095 Mr. Bishop. Reclaiming my -- reclaiming my time.

5096 Is the gentleman's proposition that the language
5097 transnational organized crime would be so ambiguous as to raise 5098 a due process objection?

5099 Mr. Cicilline. The absence of a definition. It's not a 5100 question of whether it's ambiguous to you. It's to whether or 5101 not there is a definition that provides an accused with a clear
5102 understanding of the prohibited conduct. That's just not 5103 contained in this amendment.

5104 And by the way, critical trading partner had a definition
5105 in our bill. But there's a reason you have to provide an accused 5106 with the actual definition of the conduct that you are 5107 criminalizing so that person is on notice that if you engage in 5108 this, you can lose your freedom and go to prison.

5109 You don't leave it up to a court to later on decide whether 5110 it met that definition. That would turn the due process
5111 protections on their head.

5112 Voice. Would the gentleman yield?

5113 Mr. Cicilline. If it were up to me -- Mr. Bishop?

5114 Mr. Bishop. Reclaiming my -- reclaiming my time.

5115 Well, let me then yield for a moment and give him some time
5116 to yield back to Mr. Biggs.

5117 Mr. Biggs. Yeah. I'm just looking at the definition in 5118 USC Title 10, Section 28416, which defines transnational

5119 organized crime, and it seems to me that that's in the statute, 5120 it's defined, and so it would obviate the argument that it's 5121 indefinable, because it's in statute already, that definition
5122 -- 10 USC Section 28416.

5123 Mr. Bishop. I thank the gentleman, and perhaps to 5124 facilitate or solve the problem, I seek to be recognized to offer
5125 a second degree amendment.

5126 Mr. Chairman?

5127 Chairman Nadler. For what purpose --

5128 Mr. Bishop. I seek -- I seek to be recognized to offer a
5129 second degree amendment.

5130 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

5131 Mr. Bishop. And the amendment is at the desk.

5132 Chairman Nadler. Clerk will report the amendment.

5133 Ms. Jackson Lee. Reserve a point of order.

5134 Chairman Nadler. Point of order is reserved.

5135 Ms. Fontenot. Amendment --

5136 Mr. Cicilline. Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr.

5137 Chairman. Who controls the time right now?

5138 Mr. Bishop. I've just sought to be recognized for a second
5139 degree amendment and was so recognized.

5140 Mr. Cicilline. Okay.

5141 Ms. Fontenot. Amendment to H.R. 4435, offered by Mr.

5143 Chairman Nadler. Without objection, the amendment is 5144 considered as read.

5145 [The Amendment offered by Mr. Bishop follows:]

5146

5147 COMMITTEE INSERT**

5148 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman will explain his amendment.

5149

5150 Mr. Bishop. I thank the chairman and I just -- I assume 5151 I get a new five minutes?

5152 Chairman Nadler. Yes.

5153 Mr. Bishop. Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

5154 So this second degree amendment will interpose the language
5155 following the term transnational organized crime with a
5156 definition, which is an offense whose inception, perpetration,
5157 or direct or indirect effects involve more than one country.

5158 And I think that solves the problem to which Mr. Cicilline
5159 spoke and, again, it, it seems to make great sense in terms of 5160 it makes -- it certainly ought to absolve any concerns whatsoever
5161 about Mr. Fitzgerald's amendment because all his amendment does,
5162 for goodness sake, is say if someone who's engaged in this notario 5163 fraud that the bill strikes that is also engaged in this 5164 transnational organized crime that we all know -- and Ms. Lofgren 5165 made the comment everybody's against it -- and frankly, the 5166 enhancement is not that significant.

5167 There are crimes -- penalties as long as three years against 5168 these folks for notario fraud in the -- in the bill if it involves,
5169 I think, a matter of more than $10,000.

5170 And in this case, it would then -- it just extends it to 5171 four years if the person is participating with the cartel. How 5172 easy could that be?

5173 Ms. Escobar. Would the gentleman yield?

5174 Mr. Bishop. I'd be -- let me -- I understood someone wanted
5175 me to yield back here. Is that correct?

5176 Yes, I'd be delighted to yield to the bill's sponsor.

5177 Ms. Escobar. Could you give me an example of when this has 5178 happened?

5179 Mr. Bishop. I couldn't speak -- frankly, I don't have the 5180 knowledge of when a notario fraud has happened. But I've heard
5181 from members of the panel across the board that it's happening
5182 a lot, that these people are bad people.

5183 I do know that the cartels are very involved, as I'm sure
5184 you do, that by virtue of the open border that the Biden
5185 administration has undertaken the cartels are bringing people
5186 across the Rio Grande, getting paid $6,000 a head.

5187 Ms. Escobar. But just to be -- just to be clear, you don't 5188 have an example of this ever happening, correct?

5189 Mr. Bishop. But I don't have an example. I'm fixing the 5190 definition, and perhaps Mr. Fitzgerald would want to speak to 5191 it. But I do not have an example because, again, I don't have 5192 an example of notario --

5193 Chairman Nadler. Would the gentleman yield?

5194 Mr. Bishop. I would yield to the chairman.

5195 Chairman Nadler. I thank the gentleman.

5196 Let me just say that the original amendment, because it is 5197 so broad in a way without the definition in a criminal offense,
5198 as said by Mr. Cicilline, is insupportable, and the secondary 5199 amendment is so vague that it doesn't -- it doesn't solve the 5200 problem.

5201 And I just want to say that I have to oppose the secondary
5202 amendment and I have to oppose the amendment, and I yield.

5203 Mr. Bishop. Mr. Chairman, reclaiming my time.

5204 Chairman Nadler. Yes.

5205 Mr. Bishop. I understand that there's a source of that 5206 definition. It's from -- that is a -- is the definition of 5207 transnational organized crime, according to the United Nations,
5208 which seems like -- boy, I would think that would work for you
5209 tremendously well, and I submit that it really does clean this 5210 up very much and I hope that, therefore, the majority would be 5211 delighted -- the majority, certainly, opposing transnational 5212 organized crime, certainly be opposed to the cartels, as the 5213 gentlewoman woman from California indicated everyone is.

5214 Let's dispense with this quickly and take care of the second
5215 degree amendment.

5216 Mr. Cicilline. Mr. Bishop, will you yield for a question?

5217 Mr. Bishop. I do yield to the gentleman from Rhode Island.

5218 Mr. Cicilline. Thanks. I don't think anyone questions
5219 your intention here. But I guess my question is this. I think 5220 you're conflating two problems.

5221 I think we all agree transnational crime and organized crime
5222 is a serious problem. Maybe the notarios fraud that is the 5223 subject of the bill may be less familiar to you.

5224 But this is -- these are crimes which are committed against 5225 the immigrant community relative to accessing legal services or 5226 immigration services where people are, essentially, defrauded
5227 of money in their effort to either stay in this country or go
5228 through some immigration process.

5229 That's not a fertile area for organized crime. This is 5230 victims of defrauding individuals who are trying to access legal 5231 services. So they're --

5232 Mr. Bishop. Reclaiming my -- reclaiming my time.

5233 Mr. Cicilline. Let me just finish real quickly.

5234 Mr. Bishop. Reclaiming my time. I get your point, Mr.
5235 Cicilline, and respectfully, the response to that is, well, then 5236 there should be no harm.

5237 If a notario is also a member of a cartel, then they get 5238 an enhanced sentence. Who could be opposed to that? It's really 5239 easy. So even if it's not likely that these reprehensible
5240 notarios we're hearing so much about could also be a member of 5241 the Mexican cartel, I mean, I don't know why that's so implausible.

5242 But then again, I'm from North Carolina.

5243 But I submit that we have solved the problem with the 5244 definition. That cleans up the due process problem. I

5245 appreciate your contribution on that point. We have cleaned this 5246 up. We could really get this dispensed with very quickly.

5247 And with that, I yield back.

5248 Ms. Lofgren. [Presiding.] The gentleman yields back.

5249 Does anyone else wish to be heard?

5250 Ms. Jackson Lee is recognized to strike the last word.

5251 Ms. Jackson Lee. Thank you so very much.

5252 Mr. Bishop, as I strike the last word, and also I would throw
5253 in my point of order, let me just say that your amendment is worthy 5254 of further discussion.

5255 But I do believe my colleague and -- my colleagues plural
5256 -- are seeing these every day in their districts.

5257 Congresswoman Escobar, Congresswoman Garcia and myself,
5258 we're seeing the real life daily in the United States
5259 domestic-based individuals who are seeking -- and let me just 5260 read very quickly.

5261 Immigrants hire these persons to file taxes, work on 5262 immigration papers, and handle other legal matters. Scammers
5263 then steal their return -- their tax return money, overcharge
5264 clients and botch paperwork. These are some of the things. They 5265 are also -- their culture. They're coming from a country where 5266 a notario is someone that is highly esteemed, is respected in 5267 the community, has all these credentials to practice law, though

5268 they do not.

5269 So when they come across, this person in the United States,
5270 of course, they assume this is a person that can help with my 5271 immigration case.

5272 And I think I asked to submit the notario fraud scammers
5273 into the record -- I ask unanimous consent -- article on 5274 immigration lawyers.

5275 My point is is that your idea is worthy, again, as I indicated
5276 Mr. Fitzgerald of a more intense review -- a transnational review.

5277 But I do think you have some Achilles' heels, the definition,
5278 even though you tried to amend it, and the expanse of what you 5279 do in this as opposed to what the bill is.

5280 The bill is narrowly framed to deal with these scammers that 5281 attack our constituents every day.

5282 And so I would make the argument that we can do this another
5283 time. Hate to say that. We have said that before, and that we 5284 can address the complexity of transnational organizations dealing 5285 with immigration crime and dealing with crime.

5286 With that, I would have to oppose the amendment and the 5287 underlying amendment. And also, as I conclude, hoping that we 5288 will pass this Ms. Escobar's bill, I ask that we support the 5289 underlying bill.

5290 I think it is a vital change to, in essence, really saving 5291 lives, because what happens is these people find out what has

5292 happened to them and the fraud 15 years later, and they are in 5293 the midst of the immigration process to be deported, their 5294 children separated from them. It is a mess. This bill is long
5295 overdue and it is needed, and I think we should move quickly.

5296

5297 As I say that, let me thank all of my colleagues for voting
5298 on bills out of the Crime Subcommittee in a bipartisan manner.

5299 Maybe you'll do that in this bill. And I want to thank the Crime
5300 Subcommittee staff for doing an excellent job for getting these 5301 bills out.

5302 Again, I ask that you support the Escobar bill, H.R. 4435,
5303 and that we do it in a bipartisan manner because it is needed.

5304 With that, Madam Chair, I yield back.

5305 Ms. Lofgren. The gentlelady yields back. Does anyone else
5306 wish to be recognized?

5307 Mr. Tiffany is recognized to strike the last word.

5308 Mr. Tiffany. Yeah. I move to strike the last word.

5309 Thank you, Madam Chair. So I think part of the reason that 5310 we want to include this amendment we may not get another
5311 opportunity, and it appears to me that we have -- as the gentlelady
5312 from Texas just said, this is a worthy bill and -- but this is 5313 a great opportunity, a golden opportunity, to be able to make 5314 sure that we deal with something that's very serious.

5315 I mean, we just heard from the gentleman from California.

5316 He was talking about he broke up a ring, or they broke up a ring
5317 in -- what was it, the LA area or something like that?

5318 I'm assuming that's where they're at. And they said they 5319 escaped across the border. You don't think that they were 5320 colluding? That sounds to me like that could be a transnational 5321 organization that was doing that.

5322 So I think that this is a great opportunity to be able to 5323 deal with an example that just came to us and making sure to close 5324 a loophole and give us greater ability to be able to make this 5325 law even more effective and be able to get at people that are 5326 doing something that is really wrong to fellow human beings.

5327 And so I really -- I think the gentleman from Wisconsin,
5328 Representative Fitzgerald, really came forward with a good 5329 amendment here, and us being able to close this loophole with 5330 the transnationals and include them in the bill to make this bill 5331 really work to deal with a terrible situation that happens to 5332 people, I think this is a terrific opportunity.

5333 And as the gentlelady from Texas was saying, we could --
5334 we should move quickly on this. We can dispense with the whole
5335 thing really quickly here by voting for this, and I urge everybody
5336 to vote yes to Mr. Fitzgerald's amendment and let's put on the 5337 second amendment also -- the secondary amendment -- and I think 5338 we'll have had a good day in regards to this bill.

5339 I yield back.

5340 Ms. Lofgren. The gentleman yields back.

5341 I'd like to ask unanimous consent that we add an E to the 5342 second to the last word. I'm sure that was what Mr. Fitzgerald
5343 intended -- more than one country, not more than on country.

5344 And without objection, that is done.

5345 Who else wishes -- Mr. Johnson of Georgia is recognized.

5346 Mr. Johnson of Georgia. Thank you, Madam Speaker. I move
5347 to strike the last word, and I rise in opposition to the amendment.

5348 And while that I am sympathetic with the goals of this 5349 legislation, which seeks to get at notario fraud, I have not been 5350 convinced that we need to make a federal case out of it.

5351 In the state of Georgia, such misconduct would constitute 5352 an everyday theft by deception or some other kind of fraud that 5353 is recognized under state law, and I assume that most states would 5354 have statutes in place that would get at the misconduct that this 5355 legislation seeks to get at.

5356 And with there being very slight evidence of any 5357 transnational activities with respect to garden variety notario
5358 fraud, you know, then it means that there's generally no organized 5359 conspiracy.

5360 It's just individuals set up on a street corner in a shop
5361 that advertise and then they get a victim in there, and they don't 5362 do the work that they promise to do or they do it such that it
5363 is not effective, or sometimes they just skip off with the money

5364 and do absolutely nothing.

5365 But those are, like, garden variety theft cases. And so 5366 when we insert in the federal statutes a specific provision on 5367 notario fraud, which primarily takes place in Latino communities
5368 across the United States, then we're opening up federal agents
5369 and federal prosecution focused on Latino areas and focused on 5370 Latinos.

5371 And I'm just -- you know, I am not convinced that we need
5372 to go this far to get at this issue. I'm thinking it's more of 5373 a state issue and -- but I'm still open minded, and I'm looking 5374 forward to hearing -- continuing to listen to the debate as we 5375 move forward on this markup.

5376 And with that, I yield back.

5377 Ms. Lofgren. The gentleman yields back.

5378 Who else seeks recognition?

5379 Mr. Raskin is recognized.

5380 Mr. Raskin. Thank you, Madam Chair.

5381 You know, perhaps it's unnecessary to get too much more
5382 deeply into it. But I just want to point out that the so-called 5383 secondary or clarifying amendment just adds multiple new layers
5384 of confusion, ambiguity, and vagueness to it.

5385 If you look at the insertion on the amendment, it says any 5386 person who violates subsection (a), (b), or (c) and who 5387 participates or conspires to participate in transnational

5388 organized crime, then the insert is, which is an offence whose 5389 inception, perpetration, or direct or indirect effects involve
5390 more than, I think, that's one country.

5391 So, basically, we've -- with this amendment, we have defined
5392 a -- we have defined an entity, which is transnational organized
5393 crime, as an offense whose inception or perpetration or direct 5394 or indirect effects involve more than one country.

5395 What would it mean to say that, okay, you've got 5396 international organized crime. If it is a crime or if it is an 5397 offense or its indirect effects relate to more than one country, 5398 what are the indirect effects of a crime? You could say that's 5399 everything.

5400 So, you know, look, I believe the underlying bill is 5401 excellent and addresses a serious problem based on real empirical
5402 research that is actually going to advance the public interest.
5403 All of this just seems to me to be like legislative graffiti.
5404 It's just scrolling a bunch of ideas on paper and it doesn't 5405 advance a real public interest.

5406 So I -- you know, I thank that the author of the bill and 5407 those who are, you know, struggling to add an amendment. But 5408 if you want to deal with the problem of transnational organized
5409 crime --

5410 Mr. Bishop. Would the gentleman yield?

5411 Mr. Raskin. Yes, by all means.

5412 Mr. Bishop. Do I understand that the U.N. definition of 5413 transnational crime is, in your view -- what was it, legislative 5414 graffiti?

5415 Mr. Raskin. Well, certainly, in this context it is. I
5416 don't know where it's coming from. I don't know if the -- I don't 5417 know if all the misspellings were part of the original but I don't 5418 like the way the United Nations spells perpetration or the word 5419 one.

5420 So yeah, I guess I would stick to American law rather than 5421 -- you know, it just -- it seems to me that this is an ill-advised 5422 road to go down here.

5423 And there's a well-developed body of law dealing with 5424 transnational organized crime, and if you've got some ideas on 5425 how to --

5426 Mr. Bishop. Would the gentlemen yield?

5427 Mr. Raskin. Yes, by all means.

5428 Mr. Bishop. There's also a well-developed body of law on 5429 dealing with the unauthorized practice of law, isn't there?

5430 Mr. Raskin. Well, not with respect to notaries because this 5431 is -- this is a criminal statute. I think what you're -- what 5432 you're talking about is either bar discipline or else the 5433 unauthorized practice --

5434 Mr. Bishop. Under state law.

5435 Mr. Raskin. I don't know whether -- I don't know whether 5436 that's ever been used before in this context. Do you know whether 5437 it has been?

5438 Mr. Bishop. May I ask you, sir, do you know whether there 5439 is any other subject matter where the unauthorized practice of 5440 law is prosecutable under federal law as opposed to by state
5441 authorities under state law?

5442 Mr. Raskin. Well, that's the whole purpose of the 5443 legislation is deal with this problem.

5444 Mr. Bishop. So the answer is no, you're not -- for example,
5445 in bankruptcy practice, in tax practice, in trademark practice, 5446 you're not aware, are you, sir, of any other area where the 5447 unauthorized practice of law, the law of that, has been 5448 federalized and criminalized?

5449 Mr. Raskin. Well, sure. Under mail fraud, for example,
5450 there are people who would pretend to be lawyers who are prosecuted
5451 under the mail fraud statute or the wire fraud statutes --

5452 Mr. Bishop. Well, is that an authorized practice of law?

5453 Mr. Raskin. If they pretend to be a lawyer and they defraud
5454 people of their money, sure. Yeah, I can find you a lot of cases 5455 like that.

5456 In any event, Madame --

5457 Mr. Bishop. Madame Chairman.

5458 Mr. Raskin. Yes.

5459 Ms. Lofgren. Mr. Raskin's time has not yet expired.

5460 Mr. Raskin. Okay. So, Madame Chair, this is just to say
5461 that what we have got is a very worthy underlying legislative 5462 vehicle and the amendment strikes me, whether it comes from the 5463 United Nations or somewhere else, it doesn't it here and I think 5464 it would just add a lot of chaos and confusion to the federal 5465 law.

5466 I yield back.

5467 Ms. Lofgren. The gentleman yields back.

5468 Mr. Bishop?

5469 Mr. Bishop. Yes. I withdraw the second degree amendment.

5470 Mr. Biggs. Madame Chair, I seek recognition to offer a
5471 second degree amendment.

5472 Ms. Lofgren. I'm sorry. First, we have to get -- by 5473 unanimous consent we will withdraw the second degree amendment.

5474 And hearing none, that can be secondary -- meant to offer
5475 a second agreement. Hearing none, that second degree amendment
5476 is withdrawn.

5477 Mr. Biggs. Thank you, Madam Chair. I seek recognition to 5478 offer a second degree amendment.

5479 Ms. Lofgren. You are recognized for that purpose.

5480 Mr. Biggs. Thank you, Madam Chair, and --

5481 Ms. Lofgren. Clerk will report.

5482 Ms. Fontenot. Amendment to H.R. 4435 offered by Mr. Biggs

5484 Ms. Lofgren. By unanimous consent the amendment will be 5485 considered as read and the clerk will dispense -- will hand out
5486 the amendment.

5487 [The Amendment offered by Mr. Biggs follows:]

5488

5489 COMMITTEE INSERT**

5490 Ms. Lofgren. And a point of order has been reserved by the 5491 gentlelady from Texas.

5492 You are recognized.

5493 Mr. Biggs. Thank you, Madam Chair, and I appreciate the 5494 procedural safeguard to reserve a point of order.

5495 But this is, basically -- the first part of this amendment
5496 is exactly the same as the last part. The only thing that's 5497 different is since there seems to be such a concern about the 5498 definition, this -- what we have done is we have actually defined
5499 it with the definition of transnational organized crime in Section
5500 10 USC Section 284(i)(6).

5501 So in that definition, it says, and I want to read this so
5502 everybody understands what it says so maybe it will clear it up
5503 and maybe ameliorate some of the concerns that I've heard.

5504 Number one, this is it. This is what it says. The term
5505 transnational organized crime means self-perpetuating
5506 associations of individuals who operate transnationally for the 5507 purpose of obtaining power, influence, monetary or commercial 5508 gains wholly or in part by illegal means while protecting their 5509 activities through a pattern of corruption or violence or through 5510 a transnational organization structure and the exploitation of 5511 transnational commerce communication mechanisms.

5512 So you actually have the definition that is in the United 5513 States Code being inserted into this amendment being offered by 5514 Mr. Fitzgerald.

5515 Poor Mr. Fitzgerald. He thought he was offering a simple
5516 amendment that nobody could disagree with, and then we're trying 5517 to make it better.

5518 Mr. Bishop. Will the gentleman yield?

5519 Mr. Biggs. I'll yield to you, Mr. Bishop.

5520 Mr. Bishop. It would seem that whatever problem of legal 5521 graffiti might have existed with my second degree amendment has 5522 been 100 percent resolved with yours. Would you agree?

5523 Mr. Biggs. Mr. Bishop, I would wholly agree and if Mr.
5524 Cicilline he was here he'd be calling you Mr. Biggs and me, Mr.
5525 Bishop. But either way, I would agree.

5526 And we put this in here to make it very clear because I think 5527 -- I think maybe some of the questions were justified, although,
5528 you know, I used to do some international legal work and I never 5529 -- I thought the U.N. had -- actually had some problems with its 5530 vernacular from time to time.

5531 But I think now you're going to be arguing against the U.S.
5532 Code because we have taken language for the U.S. Code trying to 5533 ameliorate some of the concerns of my colleagues across the way.
5534 I think that resolves it.

5535 I don't want to belabor the point, Madam Chair. We have 5536 had a lot of discussion today about this, and I don't think any 5537 of us thought we'd be having this kind of lengthy discussion.

5538 But I would say I hope we have ameliorated the concerns.

5539 And with that, I yield back to the chair.

5540 Ms. Lofgren. The gentleman yields back. I recognize 5541 myself in opposition to the second degree amendment, and let me
5542 say why. I appreciate the effort that's been made to make this 5543 more certain and to address the ambiguities.

5544 But I think there are still some drafting issues that it's 5545 not clear that the -- there needs to be conspiracy related to,
5546 and I've just pulled up and I hope that Cornell Law is right in 5547 terms of having the code online, but, presumably, they are.

5548 I would recommend that, you know, we take a step back and 5549 look at whether the issue of transnational crime and notarios
5550 are actually related at all. I don't believe there's any evidence 5551 that they are.

5552 If there is, I think we would have a bipartisan effort to 5553 do something about it, and I think this has gotten -- of course,
5554 we're the Judiciary Committee. If we can complicate something 5555 we will.

5556 But I think that we -- at this point, we would be better
5557 off moving on to the bill itself, agreeing to talk together about 5558 whether these are -- the cartels are, in fact, at all connected 5559 with the abuses that we're finding in the notario business and,
5560 if so, make a pledge to work together on a bipartisan basis to 5561 deal with that.

5847 Ms. Fontenot. Mr. Chairman, there are 15 ayes and 20 noes.

5848 Chairman Nadler. [Presiding.] The amendment is not agreed

5849 to.

5850 For what purpose does Mr. Cicilline seek recognition?

5851 Mr. Cicilline. I move to strike the last word.

5852 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

5853 Mr. Cicilline. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

5854 I'm delighted to report that we'll now return to the actual 5855 bill before us. And I want to thank my colleague, Congresswoman
5856 Escobar, for introducing this important piece of legislation.

5857 All too often, notaries, paying themselves as legal service
5858 providers, take advantage of immigrants seeking legal help.
5859 These fraudsters, often referring to themselves as "notarios," 5860 take advantage of the fact that in many Latin American countries
5861 a "notario publico" can provide legal services. Here, however, 5862 that is not the case, as being a notary does not license you to 5863 practice immigration law.

5864 These fraudsters offer legal services to victims who believe 5865 they have hired a capable professional, as they navigate our 5866 complex immigration system, but the providers are not actually 5867 qualified or certified to provide legal services at all. Victims 5868 often pay thousands of dollars and put their hopes and trust in 5869 these imposters, and they're left in the dust when they don't 5870 receive the help that is promised.

5871 These "notarios" often make mistakes in court filings and 5872 with other documents, which can have disastrous, and sometimes 5873 irreversible, harm on an immigrant's status and on a particular

5874 case. There are also cases where the "notarios" skip town, often 5875 taking the victim's important legal and another documentation
5876 with them.

5877 A lucrative business for these "notarios" has grown out of 5878 deception and the suffering of thousands of victims. And I know
5879 firsthand, having received complaints about this when I was mayor, 5880 and continue to receive complaints about these individuals as 5881 a Member of Congress, this bill will help crack down on this 5882 important practice by making it illegal to provide fraudulent
5883 immigration services or misrepresent one's self as a licensed,
5884 having a license to practice law.

5885 It also will require the Department of Justice to dedicate
5886 15 attorneys to investigate and prosecute such fraudulent
5887 practices, and would create a public list of those convicted of 5888 providing immigration services unlawfully, so others know to 5889 beware of such bad actors.

5890 This legislation is extremely important and will help
5891 protect thousands of people from being taken advantage of,
5892 strengthening our communities and our legal system in the process.

5893 I want to end by, again, thanking Representative Escobar
5894 for reintroducing this important legislation, for her commitment 5895 to this issue, and urge my colleagues to support this effort to 5896 root out deceptive and predatory practices in our communities.

5897 And with that, Mr. Chairman, I yield back.

5898 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

5899 Mr. Bishop. Mr. Chairman?

5900 Chairman Nadler. For what purpose does Mr. Bishop seek
5901 recognition?

5902 Mr. Bishop. To strike the last word.

5903 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman is recognized.

5904 Mr. Bishop. I thank the chairman.

5905 I will say that, until I sat down at this hearing today,
5906 I had sort of missed the significance of this bill, and not thought 5907 about the context; just hadn't had time. And then, I looked at 5908 it, and as a practicing lawyer for a long time, I took note of 5909 the fact that, as far as I know -- and this is something I was 5910 getting at with Mr. Raskin -- as far as I know, this would be 5911 the only subject matter of law in which one engaging in the 5912 unauthorized practice of law would be subject to federal 5913 prosecution and criminal penalties.

5914 And before I go further, I wonder if the bill sponsor would 5915 yield to a question on that point. Ms. Escobar, would you yield 5916 to a question?

5917 Ms. Escobar. Certainly.

5918 Mr. Bishop. Am I correct about that? I sat here doing a
5919 little bit of research, and the best I could do is -- well, I 5920 pretty quickly got confirmation that the only place in which the 5921 unauthorized practice of law could be federally criminal is in

5922 federal enclaves, where the laws of a state are brought in, like 5923 a federal -- like Fort Bragg in North Carolina, something like 5924 that. Are you aware of any other place where the unauthorized 5925 practice of law is rendered criminal by federal law?

5926 Ms. Escobar. You know, I have tremendous respect for our 5927 colleague and constitutional expert, Jamie Raskin, who mentioned
5928 that he could provide some examples.

5929 Mr. Bishop. No, no, no.

5930 Ms. Escobar. But, to answer your question, if I may have 5931 a couple of --

5932 Mr. Bishop. Well, I'm going to reclaim my time, unless 5933 you're -- answer it quickly, if you know.

5934 Ms. Escobar. Well, I'm trying to answer your question.
5935 But the point of this --

5936 Mr. Bishop. No, no. Do you know whether there are any other 5937 occasions in --

5938 Ms. Escobar. I'm happy to look --

5939 Mr. Bishop. All right.

5940 Ms. Escobar. -- to look into it --

5941 Mr. Bishop. I'll reclaim my time.

5942 Ms. Escobar. -- and provide you examples.

5943 Mr. Bishop. I think what Mr. Raskin said is that he thought
5944 that the unauthorized practice could be prosecuted as 5945 garden-variety fraud. Perhaps, but, then, you wouldn't need a

5946 specific law. This would be the only case that I know of in which 5947 the unauthorized practice of law is made federal and criminal.
5948 I'm not even clear that in North Carolina the unauthorized
5949 practice of law is criminal. It can be acted upon by the Bar,
5950 but I couldn't find any crime.

5951 So, the problem with this is not only that, that it moves
5952 federal law into an area it's never been in, but the question
5953 is, for whom, and compared to other situations, what are you doing?

5954 So, if someone is involved in a matter in federal court,
5955 and they're victimized by someone practicing law without a 5956 license; if they're in bankruptcy court; if in they're in a federal 5957 trademark matter, and on and on and on, in which you're having 5958 people dealing with federal law issues if they are victimized
5959 by someone practicing without a license, you know, let the state 5960 --

5961 Ms. Escobar. Mr. Bishop, will you yield to a question?

5962 Mr. Bishop. I will not.

5963 They're left to their state authorities to enforce the law
5964 there. And so, what that means is, for the sake -- and the people
5965 who are victimized here are people who are in many cases illegal
5966 immigrants into the country. And so, this bill would give 5967 priority to those people under federal law over every American 5968 who may be victimized by the unauthorized practice of law. And 5969 in the course of doing that, the majority is unwilling even to 5970 add Mr. Fitzgerald's amendment to say, if the same person is a 5971 member of the Mexican cartel, we want to punish them a little 5972 more. "No, no, no, we can't do that."

5973 We're in an environment where prosecutorial resources have 5974 been so minimized for the sake of enforcing the federal 5975 immigration law, that I think the figure is that immigration,
5976 Customs Enforcement Officers are -- 6,000 of them are arresting 5977 an average of two a month, or something, of people that need to 5978 be deported. It's been de-emphasized to the point of disregard 5979 of the law.

5980 And where is the one place where the majority sees it as 5981 a critical priority to federalize and criminalize the 5982 unauthorized practice of law? That is "notarios" are victimizing 5983 predominantly illegal immigrants into the United States. That's 5984 what you want to do. That is amazing to me.

5985 Ms. Escobar. That's not true.

5986 Mr. Bishop. Well, I'll be glad to yield for an answer as 5987 to why that's not true, as long as it's a fast answer.

5988 Ms. Escobar. They're not predominantly undocumented
5989 immigrants. In fact, a lot of victims of "notario" fraud are 5990 American citizens.

5991 Mr. Bishop. Well --

5992 Ms. Escobar. If you spoke to your constituents, you would 5993 know.

5994 Mr. Bishop. If you say so. I would submit that these people
5995 who are pursuing asylum claims that they will never prevail on, 5996 that's probably a lot of the people that you're talking about.

5997 But, to the extent they are American citizens, then answer me
5998 that on your own time: why should they be prioritized over every 5999 other American in the way the law deals with them in matters of 6000 unauthorized practice of law?

6001 And with that, my time's expired.

6002 Chairman Nadler. The gentleman yields back.

6003 Who seeks recognition?
