

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”

Disabled #

Amendment to H.R. 1631

Offered by Mr. Gaetz of Florida

Amend line 20 on page 8, to end in a comma, and after the comma to insert

“ and certifies to the applicable Federal, State, local, or municipal body incorporating the standard by reference that the standards development organization will not seek copyright damages against any individual with a disability, or organization owned by such an individual, or non-profit organization that provides services to individuals with disabilities, for the use of the copyrighted standard so incorporated by reference.”