

Anne Fundner is a wife and mother of four whose 15-year-old son Weston was poisoned by fentanyl. Mrs. Fundner speaks publicly about her son's death to promote change and educate American families about the consequences of the fentanyl crisis.