

Trump Found Guilty by Manhattan Jury on 34 Felony Counts in Fraud Case

law.com/newyorklawjournal/2024/05/30/breaking-trump-found-guilty-by-manhattan-jury-in-fraud-case

Emily Saul

May 30, 2024

Related information

News White Collar Crime

Trump, 77, was found guilty of 34 counts of falsifying business records. Prosecutors persuaded the jury that he conspired with others to "catch and kill" negative stories about himself during the 2016 presidential election cycle, thereby unlawfully influencing the election.

4 minute read May 30, 2024 at 05:15 PM

Former President Donald Trump, center, returns to the courtroom as the jury reaches a verdict at Manhattan criminal court in New York on Thursday, May 30. A New York jury found Donald Trump guilty of multiple felonies at his hush-money trial, making him the first former U.S. president to be convicted of crimes. Photographer: Michael M. Santiago/Getty Images/Bloomberg

Archived Content

This article is part of the Law.com NewsVault archive, and access requires an additional subscription.

Already a subscriber? Log in here to access full content.

Not a subscriber? Contact us to learn more.

Page printed from:

NOT FOR REPRINT

© 2026 ALM Global, LLC, All Rights Reserved. Request academic re-use from www.copyright.com. All other uses, submit a request to [\[email protected\]](#). For more information visit Asset & Logo Licensing.

Continue Reading

When an Executive's Defense May Waive Company Privilege

Robert J. Anello and Richard F. Albert

The case clarifies that claiming an “involvement of counsel” defense doesn’t automatically waive a company's privilege unless specific communications are revealed. Courts are careful about broad waivers, and whether privilege is waived depends on the facts and defense details. Lawyers and companies should proceed cautiously due to the complex and unpredictable rules.

February 10, 2026

Attorney Pushes For Federal Jurisdiction Over NYAG's 'Unwarranted' Insider Trading Suit

Alyssa Aquino

In a notice removing Letitia James's insider trading suit, Robert Kramer argued that the trades at the center of her $10.1 million suit were conducted under a 10b5-1 trading plan, which is regulated by federal authorities. His attorney, Kirby Behre, criticized the suit as “an unwarranted expansion of the AG’s power.”

February 06, 2026

Ex-SDNY Chief's Advice on Parallel Probes? Don't Treat the SEC as the 'B-Team'

Alyssa Aquino

If “the criminal authorities go away, and the SEC is left at the table, and you spent a year of an investigation treating them like the B-team...” Williams cautioned during a panel discussion on how to defend clients against parallel government investigations.

February 05, 2026

SDNY Chief Promises 'Big Carrot' for Businesses That Cooperate With Criminal Probes

Alyssa Aquino

U.S. Attorney Jay Clayton for the Southern District of New York said that his office would look to get non-prosecution agreements signed "as quickly as possible" for companies that self-report potential misconduct.

February 05, 2026

'Fatal to You': Federal Judge Suggests Trump Delay Killed Removal Attempts

Emily Saul

As personal lawyers for President Donald Trump attempt to remove his state court conviction to federal court, the federal judge overseeing the case hinted that a "strategic" decision to delay made by Trump's former defense team—including current Deputy Attorney General Todd Blanche — doomed his efforts.

February 04, 2026

For You

Loading For You...

Membership

Law.com ProThe membership program designed for the legal industry professional who is focused on delivering revenue and profit growth