

Vicente Reyes

Vicente Reyes is a 20-year-old farm worker, a college student, a beneficiary of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program and a member of the UFW Foundation. Vicente resides in Bakersfield, California. Since 2010, Vicente has worked alongside his parents harvesting carrots, beets, oranges, table grapes, onion, lettuce, kale, and mustard crops. He currently works in the table-grape harvest alongside his undocumented mother and father. Vicente is a second-year student at Bakersfield College and plans to attend California Institute of Technology (Caltech) in the fall of 2022 to pursue a career in Robotics Engineering.