For weeks, the Biden White House has been spewing lies about veterans being hurt by Republicans' responsible debt limit increase.

It's because they want to distract you from their own open-border policies that are hurting veterans right now.

Shameful.

The Biden Administration and NY officials are reportedly booting homeless veterans from hotels in upstate New York in order to house illegal aliens from the border.

This is no way to treat our nation's heroes.

Biden is the epitome of America Last.

Shameful. Our veterans should not bear the consequences of Biden's border catastrophe.

As a society, we should aim to find ways to end veteran homelessness.

It's sad when veterans willing to risk lives for us are booted from shelters to make room for illegal migrants being bussed out of NYC.

It's unconscionable and we can't allow it.

And you choose to repay them by kicking them out of their hotel so that illegal aliens could have the rooms at a higher price.

Joe Biden ✓ @JoeBiden · May 14

How do MAGA Republicans choose to repay those who fought to defend our country?

They are proposing cutting veterans' health care funding, which would result in as many as 30 million fewer veteran outpatient visits.
