

SUNNY HOSTIN

Biography

Sunny Hostin is the Emmy nominated co-host of The View and the Emmy-winning Senior Legal Correspondent for ABC News. From 2007 to 2016, Sunny was a host and legal analyst at CNN. Prior to working at CNN, Sunny filled in as co-anchor for ABC News' World News Now and America This Morning.

Sunny also hosts and executive produces a six-episode documentary series, Truth About Murder with Sunny Hostin, which will premiere on October 22nd at 10 PM ET on Investigation Discovery. The series explores the stories behind some of the nation's most notorious homicides. Each episode, Sunny meets with forensic experts, law enforcement officials, prosecutors, defense attorneys and the families of each victim, showing viewers how cases are solved.

A gifted storyteller, Sunny has an impressive depth of knowledge about the criminal justice system. She has brought clarity and context to some of the biggest stories of the past decade, including the Bernie Madoff scandal, the George Zimmerman trial, the unrest in Ferguson and Baltimore, the AME church shooting in Charleston, and the Bill Cosby rape allegations. She has won three Emmys, including two Emmys for her work as a correspondent for ABC's Good Morning America and one for her work as a correspondent for the ABC News Special, The President and the People.

Originally from the South Bronx, Sunny began her career as an appellate law clerk after graduating from Notre Dame Law School and went on to become a trial attorney for the Justice Department and a federal prosecutor. During her time as Assistant U.S. Attorney, Sunny was awarded the Special Achievement Award by Attorney General Janet Reno for her prosecution of child sexual predators.

Sunny currently resides in Westchester, NY with her husband and two children.
